Drama and Education Manon van de Water, Mary

McAvoy, Kristin Hunt, 2015-02-20 Drama and Education provides a practical comprehensive guide to drama as a tool for teaching and learning. It is among the first practical drama and performance textbooks that address brain based neuroscientific research making the argument that creativity is necessary in our lives that embodied learning is natural and essential and that contextual learning helps us find our place in society in relationship to other peoples and cultures. As well as a historical and theoretical overview of the field it provides rationale and techniques for several specific methodologies: linear drama, process oriented drama, drama for social justice and performance art. Each approach is supplemented with sample lesson plans, activities, ideas for differentiation and extensive bibliographies. The topics are discussed from five key angles: Historical and theoretical foundations, Curricular applications, Practical toolkits for a range of classrooms and learning environments, Different strategies for lesson plans, Extension options for longer workshops. Alongside these core methods the integration of other innovative forms from performance art to Theatre of the Oppressed into drama based learning is explored as well as the pragmatic concerns such as assessment, planning and advocacy for arts learning and arts education partnerships. Drama and Education is the comprehensive textbook for teachers and students on Applied Theatre and Theatre and Education courses.

Culturally Responsive Methodologies

Mere Berryman, Suzanne SooHoo, Ann Nevin, 2013-01-17 This book offers new methodologies that require the researcher to develop relationships that may enable them to intimately come to respect and know the Other with whom they seek to study. Mapeh in Action IV' 2008 Ed., Arts-Based Research Across Textual Media in Education Jason DeHart, Peaches Hash, 2023-11-06 In company with its sister volume Arts Based Research Across Textual Media in Education explores arts based approaches to research across media including film and comics related material from a variety of geographic locations and across a range of subdisciplines within the field of education. This first volume takes a textual focus capturing process poetic and dramaturgical approaches. The authors aim to highlight some of the approaches that are not always centered in arts based research. The contributors represent a variety of arts based practices and methods and they weave this marrying of artistic and scientific expertise and experience into the fabric of the chapters themselves. Authors from international contexts speak to the importance of utilizing artistic approaches for research processes. From multimodal field notes to poetic forms to the dramaturgical chapters in this book represent steps forward in educational inquiry to bringing together both the creative and credible. The book includes multiple images and rich descriptions shared from the field. This first volume covers amongst other topics co created narratives, creative fiction in research, analytic portraits, dramatic representation and critical poetic inquiry. It would be suitable for graduate students and scholars interested in qualitative inquiry and arts based methods in education and the social sciences.

Disrupting Early Childhood Education Research

Will Parnell, Jeanne Marie Iorio, 2015-12-22 Recent and increasing efforts to standardize young children's academic performance have shifted the emphases of education toward normative practices and away from qualitative substantive intentions. Connection to human experience, compassion for societal ailments and the joys of learning are straining under the pressure of quantitative research competition and test scores exemplified by federal funding competitions and policymaking Disrupting Early Childhood Education Research critically interrogates the traditional foundations of early childhood research practices to disrupt the status quo through imaginative cutting edge research in diverse U S and international contexts Its chapters are driven by empirical data derived from unique research projects and a variety of contemporary methodologies that include phenomenological studies auto ethnographic writings action oriented studies arts based methodologies and other innovative approaches By giving voice to marginalized social science researchers who are active in learning school and early education sectors this volume explores the meanings of actionable and everyday approaches based on the experiences of young children their families and educators Art

Dissidence Marie Leduc,2018-11-20 How the valorization of artistic and political dissidence has contributed to the rise of Chinese contemporary art in the West Interest in Chinese contemporary art increased dramatically in the West shortly after the 1989 Tiananmen Square protests Sparked by political sympathy and the mediatized response to the event Western curators critics and art historians were quick to view the new art as an expression of dissident resistance to the Chinese regime In this book Marie Leduc proposes that this attribution of political dissidence is not only the result of latent Cold War perceptions about China but also indicative of the art world s demand for artistically and politically provocative work a demand that mirrors the valorization of free expression in liberal democracies Focusing on nine Chinese artists Wang Du Wang Keping Huang Yong Ping Yang Jiechang Chen Zhen Yan Pei Ming Shen Yuan Ru Xiaofan and Du Zhenjun who migrated to Paris in and around 1989 Leduc explores how their work was recognized before and after the Tiananmen Square incident Drawing on personal interviews with the artists and curators and through an analysis of important exhibitions events reviews and curatorial texts she demonstrates how these and other Chinese artists have been celebrated both for their artistic dissidence their formal innovations and introduction of new media and concepts and for their political dissidence how their work challenges political values in both China and the West As Leduc concludes the rise of Chinese contemporary art in the West highlights the significance of artistic and political dissidence in the production of contemporary art and the often unrecognized relationship between contemporary art and liberal democracy

Meaning Making in Early Childhood Research Jeanne Marie Iorio, Will Parnell, 2017-12-12 Meaning Making in Early Childhood Research asks readers to rethink research in early childhood education through qualitative research practices reflective of arts based pedagogies This collection explores how educators and researchers can move toward practices of meaning making in early childhood education The text s narrative style provides an intimate portrait of engaging in research that challenges assumptions and thinking in a variety of international contexts and each chapter offers a way to engage in meaning making based on the experiences of young children their families and educators

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research David Coghlan, Mary Brydon-Miller, 2014-08-11 Action research is a term used to describe a family of related approaches that integrate theory and action with a goal of addressing important organizational community and social issues together with those who experience them It focuses on the creation of areas for collaborative learning and the design enactment and evaluation of liberating actions through combining action and research reflection and action in an ongoing cycle of cogenerative knowledge While the roots of these methodologies go back to the 1940s there has been a dramatic increase in research output and adoption in university curricula over the past decade This is now an area of high popularity among academics and researchers from various fields especially business and organization studies education health care nursing development studies and social and community work The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research brings together the many strands of action research and addresses the interplay between these disciplines by presenting a state of the art overview and comprehensive breakdown of the key tenets and methods of action research as well as detailing the work of key theorists and contributors to action research
