

Publishing your book

From proposal to publication

1. Submit proposal

Complete the Emerald new book proposal form and send it to the editor for your discipline. Your editor will acknowledge safe receipt as quickly as possible.

2. Internal editorial review

Your editor assesses your book's fit for our publishing list and raises questions or queries with you.

3. External peer review

Your proposal and any additional material will be sent out to a subject specialist for external, single blind peer review – we aim to get feedback to you in 4-6 weeks.

7. Manuscript submission

Your editor may commission a final review of your manuscript before we put it into production. Our editorial team will then check through your final manuscript.

6. Writing your book

You will be contacted regularly by our editorial team and we will be on hand for guidance and support as you prepare the manuscript for submission.

5. Contract

After approval by our internal Editorial Board meeting, your Editor will send you terms of our contract including extent, royalty and manuscript delivery date.

4. Response to peer review

You send your editor a full response to the review. You may need to revise and resubmit your proposal based on our peer review and discussions with your editor.

8. Production

Your book will go through copy editing, typesetting and indexing. You will be issued proofs. Your cover design will be finalized. We will publish your book 6 months, or on a fast-track schedule if your book is an Emerald Point.

9. Sales and marketing

When your book enters production our marketing and sales team start work to promote your book through our sales channels, and to support you with self-promotion.

10. Publication

You will be sent your free copies of your book, and additional information on how you can best help us promote it to the widest possible market.
