Recital of Love Keren Dibbens-Wyatt, 2020-09-08 I love reading Keren's work and her new book Recital of Love encourages us to experience the mystical beauty of Divine Love something we all need to feel more connected to each other Richard Rohr Recital of Love is a collection of treasures gathered up in prayer Each one focuses on something precious to God hopefully giving us an insight into his heart and the grace to look at life with a different more eternal perspective Written as nuggets of wisdom and encouragement in poetic prose these pieces are garnered from silent contemplation and presented to be savored by all God's beloved children

Left-handed Jonathan Galassi, 2013-10-08 An emotionally riveting collection that tells a powerful story of passion loss and transformation Left-handed unfolds in the manner of an intense searching novella At its center is a one way dialogue with an elusive character who beguiles and torments but also inspires the unnamed narrator who at midlife is telling the tale These poems decisive wrenching exquisite show an overpowering force at once disruptive and creative invading a settled existence They take us from the streets of New York City to a house in the country from the island of Naxos to the Roman Forum They reach back to the sonnets of Shakespeare but find inspiration too in contemporary life Naked and raw lyrical yet formally inventive rich with the melancholy wisdom of age this is a work of resonant and shimmering beauty

Charxeen Adolph Hassenfeather, 2025-05-12 This is about a fourteen year old guy who has taken a little adventure from one planet to another This is a story of a love affair between himself and a girl from that other planet how they met and conquered the language barrier the cultural differences and other obstacles thrown up by technical glitches their own sun and politics It is about two races of people who discover each other by accident It doesn't involve huge gleaming starships that can only in one's imagination penetrate the speed of light but by the invention and development of the transporter Radio waves can be tuned to hyper luminescent frequencies thus enabling the creation of the transporter Just step through the door However with the excuse that there is a war happening and other economic and political reasons politicians have to put little Berlin Walls in If you cross international and interplanetary borders you still have to go through customs and immigration This is their story
