Hachemi,2007 A poignant first hand account of life for a young Afghani woman under the Taliban Born into an educated middle class family in Kabul her world changed from the moment the Taliban seized power there in 1996 She reveals her helplessness and despair and her own defiance under the regime True Teen Stories from Afghanistan and Pakistan

Cassandra Schumacher,2018-07-15 The Taliban rose to power in the 1990s in Afghanistan and then in Pakistan Taliban insurgents implement strict Islamic law and any perceived transgressions are punished swiftly and brutally Armed insurgents have attacked civilians and are notorious for limiting the rights of women and girls including restricting access to education This book tells the stories of teens who lived through the horrors of the Taliban occupation surviving in the face of fear and resisting injustice My Forbidden Face Latifa,Chékéba Hachemi,2001 A young woman s account of growing up under the repressive Taliban rule in Afghanistan Words, Not Swords Farzaneh Milani,2011-05-16 A woman not only needs a room of her own as Virginia Woolf wrote but also the freedom to leave it and return to it at will for a room without that right becomes a prison cell The privilege of self directed movement the power to pick up and go as one pleases has not been a traditional right of Iranian women This prerogative has been denied them in the name of piety anatomy chastity class safety and even beauty It is only during the last 160 years that the spell has been broken and Iranian women have emerged as a moderating modernizing force Women writers have been at the forefront of this desegregating movement and renegotiation of boundaries Words Not Swords explores the legacy of sex segregation and its manifestations in Iranian literature and film and in notions of beauty and the erotics of passivity Milani expands her argument beyond Iranian culture arguing that freedom of movement is a theme that crosses frontiers and dissolves conventional distinctions of geography history and religion She makes bold connections between veiling and foot binding between Cinderella and Barbie between the figures of the female Gypsy and the witch In so doing she challenges cultural hierarchies that divert attention from key issues in the control of women across the globe Southern Bound John S. Sledge,2013-03-15 Southern Bound represents a running conversation on books writers and literary travel written for the Mobile Press Register Books page from 1995 to 2011 by John S Sledge The collection includes more than one hundred of the best pieces culled from Sledge s total output of approximately seven hundred columns Numerous classic authors are celebrated in these pages including Homer Plato Gibbon Melville Proust Conrad Cather and Steinbeck as well as modern writers such as Walter Edgar Tom Franklin and Eugene Walter While some of the essays are relatively straightforward book reviews others present meditative and deeply personal perspectives on the author s literary experiences such as serving on the jury in the play version To Kill a Mockingbird spending the night alone in a Jesuit college library s venerable stacks rambling through funky New Orleans bookshops talking to Square Books owner Richard Howorth while overlooking the Oxford Mississippi courthouse rereading Treasure Island on the shores of Mobile Bay and remembering a beloved father s favorite books Engaging and spirited Southern Bound represents the critical art at its most accessible and will prove entertaining fare for anyone who loves the written word Adolescents in the

Search for Meaning Mary L. Warner,2006-03-03 As is painfully evident from the reports of school shootings gang violence dysfunctional family life and from statistics on adolescent suicide many teens live troubled lives Even those who live a normal life still face the challenges adults face but teens are also engaged in establishing independence and finding their identity However few adolescents have the same resources as adults for surviving life challenges Building from the idea that story is a powerful source of meaning particularly those stories that resonate with our own lives this book suggests that the stories of other young adults offer a resource yet to be fully tapped Adolescents in the Search for Meaning begins from the perspective of young adults by sharing the results of a survey of over 1400 teens and also includes the insights of authors of Young Adult Literature The book presents over 120 novels that teens have identified as meaningful as well as books recommended by YA authors and experts in the field of YA literature For any teacher librarian parent or counselor wanting to reach young adults this book is ideal

War without End Dilip Hiro,2014-06-03 This book provides the historical and political context to explain acts of terror including the September 11th and the bombing of American Embassies in Nairobi and Dar as Salaam and the West s responses Providing a brief history of Islam as a religion and as socio political ideology Dilip Hiro goes on to outline the Islamist movements that have thrived in Egypt Saudi Arabia and Afghanistan and their changing relationship with America It is within this framework that the rising menace of Osama bin Laden and his Al Qaida network is discussed The Pentagon s amazingly swift victory over the Taliban in Afghanistan is examined along with implications of the Bush Doctrine encapsulated in his declaration so long as anybody is terrorizing established governments there needs to be a war a recipe for war without end

With All Our Strength Anne E. Brodsky,2004-06-01 With All Our Strength is the inside story of this women led underground organization and their fight for the rights of Afghan women Anne Brodsky the first writer given in depth access to visit and interview their members and operations in Afghanistan and Pakistan shines light on the gruesome often tragic lives of Afghan women under some of the most brutal sexist oppression in the world

Terrorism and Homeland Security Dale L. June,2010-09-29 Since 9 11 the terms homeland security and terrorism have become firmly entrenched in our lexicon The days of walking through a simple metal detector at the airport are over and our security landscape is forever changed Terrorism and Homeland Security Perspectives Thoughts and Opinions brings together the work of academic researchers and law

Goddesses and Monsters Jane Caputi,2004 The essays focus upon popular culture as it is informed by ancient and current mythic images narratives personalities icons and archetypes Topics include the cult status of the serial sex killer sexual murder as a contemporary form of religious sacrifice pornography as an everyday narrative underlying not only sexism but also racism homophobia and militarism the relation of incest to nuclearism pornography and the sacred cyborg myth and subtextual presence of ancient goddess figures in contemporary narratives including that of Princess Diana

Being Muslim Sylvia Chan-Malik,2018-06-26 2018 Outstanding Academic Title given by Choice Magazine An exploration of twentieth and twenty first century U S Muslim womanhood that centers the lived experience of women of color For Sylvia Chan Malik Muslim womanhood is constructed through everyday and embodied acts of resistance what she calls affective insurgency In negotiating the histories of anti Blackness U S imperialism and women s rights of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Being Muslim explores how U S Muslim women s identities are expressions of Islam as both Black protest religion and universal faith tradition Through archival images cultural texts popular media and interviews the author maps how communities of American Islam became sites of safety support spirituality and social activism and how women of color were central to their formation By accounting for American Islam s rich histories of mobilization and community Being Muslim brings insight to the resistance that all Muslim women must engage in the post 9 11 United States From the stories that she gathers Chan Malik demonstrates the diversity and similarities of Black Arab South Asian Latina and multiracial Muslim women and how American understandings of Islam have shifted against the evolution of U S white nationalism over the past century In borrowing from the lineages of Black and women of color feminism Chan Malik offers us a new vocabulary for U S Muslim feminism one that is as conscious of race gender sexuality and nation as it is region and religion

U.S. Foreign Policy and Muslim Women's Human Rights Kelly J. Shannon, 2018 U S Foreign Policy and Muslim Women s Human Rights explores the integration of American concerns about women s human rights into U S policy toward Islamic countries since 1979 reframing U S Islamic relations and challenging assumptions about the drivers of American foreign policy

Imagined Identities Gönül Pultar, 2014-04-14 How are identities being forged during the age of globalization This collection of essays by scholars from various disciplines and regions of the world discusses both the construction and deconstruction of identity in its engagement with culture ethnicity and nationhood The authors explore the tension resulting from the desire to create a new cultural space for identities that are at once national regional linguistic and religious Among the wide ranging approaches Tanja Stampfl looks at the elusiveness of cultural identity in Khaled Hosseini s The Kite Runner Dawn Morais investigates issues of ethnicity and nationality in Malaysia s tourism advertising and Cathy Waegner explores ethnic identities as globalized market commodities Throughout the volume identity is approached from a variety of sites fiction news analysis film theme parks and field work to contribute new insight and perspective to the well worn debate over what identity signifies in societies where the existence of minorities both indigenous and immigrant challenges the dominant group

Modern Honor Anthony Cunningham, 2013-08-21 This book examines the notion of honor with an eye to dissecting its intellectual demise and with the aim of making a case for honor s rehabilitation Western intellectuals acknowledge honor s influence but they lament its authority For Western democratic societies to embrace honor it must be compatible with social ideals like liberty equality and fraternity Cunningham details a conception of honor that can do justice to these ideals This vision revolves around three elements character being relationships relating and activities and accomplishment doing Taken together these elements articulate a shared aspiration for excellence We can turn the tables on traditional ills of honor serious problems of gender race and class by forging a vision of honor that rejects lives predicated on power and oppression

The Fiction of Doris Lessing Ratna Raman, 2021-10-15 Doris Lessing 1919-2013 a prolific contemporary author was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2007 for her life work Examining five decades of Lessing's unique life narrative strategies and the literary traditions that she drew upon and improvised this book highlights her extraordinary significance as a writer of our times and for our times Lessing's fiction and non-fiction provide a seminal understanding of the key issues that shaped the twentieth century Autodidactic and keenly interested in the world around her Lessing flagged the problems of racism in Africa the inequity of class in modern England the limitations of white middle class women's movements that overlooked the rights of women across race and class the marginalisation of individuals the horror of nuclear war and the need for disarmament and the hazardous global expansion in the face of unrelenting technological progress Further she raised the concern of the atomisation of modern families violence and the urgent need for alternate modes of viewing voicing anxieties decades ahead of other contemporary writers Making futuristic projections through innumerable genres of writing such as realistic narratives memoirs diaries and science fiction Lessing examines myth psychoanalysis and Marxist perspectives engaging with a gamut of experiences that have defined modernity and sets up feminist blueprints that challenge atrophying patriarchal hegemonies
