Traylor, 2023-02-07 An Edgar and Macavity Award Nominee The first ever biography of the most popular and most influential pulp writer of all time written by the collaborator who knew him best There has never been a full length biography of Mickey Spillane the most popular and influential mystery writer of his era until now Beginning in 1947 with I the Jury and continuing with his next six novels Spillane guickly amassed a readership in the tens of millions becoming the bestselling novelist in the history of American publishing Surrounded by controversy for the overt violence and suggestive sexual content of his iconic Mike Hammer private eye novels Spillane was loathed by critics but beloved by his readers There is however more to Spillane s life than the books He also starred as Hammer in a movie was a circus performer worked with the FBI in capturing a notorious criminal and starred in Miller Light beer commercials that were so popular they ran for a quarter of a century Max Allan Collins became Spillane's friend and collaborator continuing the Mike Hammer series for years after the author's death building upon unfinished manuscripts the writer left behind Now with co author James Traylor Collins has produced the first comprehensive and authoritative profile of the Mystery Writers of America Grand Master It is a must read for any fan of the author or of the generations of crime writers that were influenced by his work N.A.R.D. Journal, 1952 and Poetics of Translation in Turkey, 1923-1960 Sehnaz Tahir Gürçağlar, 2008 The present book is a bold attempt at revealing the complex and diversified nature of the field of translated literature in Turkey during a period of radical socio political change On the broad level it investigates the implications of the political transformation experienced in Turkey after the proclamation of the Republic for the cultural and literary fields including the field of translated literature On a more specific level it holds translation under focus and explores the discourse formed on translation and translators while it also traces the norms not observed by translators throughout the 1920s 1950s in two case studies. The findings of the study suggest that the concepts of translation both affected and were affected by cultural processes in the society including ideological and poetological ones and that there was no uniform way of defining or carrying out translations during the period under study The findings also point at the segmentation of readership in early republican Turkey and conclude that the political and poetological factors governing the production and reception of translations varied for different segments of Encyclopedia of American Literature Manly, Inc., 2013-06 Susan Clair Imbarrato Carol Berkin Brett Barney Lisa readers Paddock Matthew J Bruccoli George Parker Anderson Judith S Private Eyes Robert Allen Baker, Michael T.
