My Journey Behind The Veil Conversations With Muslim Women:

Great Feminist Denial Monica Dux, Zora Simic, 2008-09-01 What the hell happened In The Great Feminist Denial the authors talk with women feminists and non feminists young and old famous and not famous child free and with child and use their responses as a starting point from which to refocus the key debates Dux and Simic argue that ultimately feminism is still necessary for everyday life Even the most cursory glimpse at the social and cultural landscape suggests an urgent need for a politics that identifies inequalities differences and strengths specific to women as a sex The Great Feminist Denial puts an ailing feminist past to rest and proposes a way forward that offers young women of today a new way of calling themselves feminists

South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies

My Journey Behind the Veil Kay Rasool, 2002 Contrary to popular belief the veil is not always a symbol of oppression For many women the veil is an expression of individuality and pride and for others it represents a statement of religious identity that embodies a set of beliefs Drawing on the lives of women in Australia India and Pakistan My Journey Behind the Veil provides portraits of Muslim women from diverse backgrounds and includes a revealing interview with former Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto

Bridging Imaginations Dr Amit Sarwal, 2012-02-11 Migration of the South Asian peoples to Australia has resulted in a continually growing and flourishing diaspora one of the most prosperous communities with an ever increasing role and responsibility in all areas of society One of the challenges in writing about the South Asian diaspora in Australia is the nature of the multifarious migration and entry points into Australia range from colonial indentured workers to political asylum seekers to transnational marriages to students and high end professionals How did their journeys and experiences generate bridges that have influenced the historical cultural social and academic perceptions of the ever changing continents It is hoped that this critical anthology will help present a dynamic community in transit and showcase the achievements of the South Asian diaspora during the last decade which have not only made a significant impact on Australia's multicultural landscape but also furthered South Asian Australian engagement

From Behind the Veil: A Hijabi's Journey to Happiness Farheen Khan, 2018-10-09 Farheen Khan was the victim of an Islamophobic attack by a stranger in a residential apartment building in Toronto She managed to elude her attacker but the assault on her body had only just begun For fear of dishonoring her family in the South Asian and Muslim community Farheen didn't report the incident Internalizing this experience so deeply sent her body into an allergic overdrive resulting in fatal anaphylactic shock Being unable to consume entire food groups gave her an insight into how a third of the people on earth are unable to eat for a very different reason poverty and food insecurity Despite her allergies Farheen worked tirelessly to make a difference locally on building the foundation for the Muslim social services sector in her city From the first lick of soy pudding to despair and back again she realized that not only can we not fight adversity alone we are not expected to This is an honest and candid story about accepting the angels that come in and out of our lives when we need them the most to show us to ourselves as a reflective surface on a dirty wall Sometimes being swept away by a giant wave beyond our understanding can take us to beaches we never knew existed and in losing control we can often gain control of who we are and what we are really about Today cured of 95 percent of her allergies Farheen has founded and presides over several non profit organizations to help relieve poverty

Labels and Locations Louise Lightfoot, 2015-02-27 Some happy occasions like the 1995 Commonwealth Writers Prize for Best Book to Bangladeshi Australian author Adib Khan the 2008 Man Booker Prize to Indian born Australian writer Arvinda Adiga and the 2013 Australian Prime Minister's Literary Award for Fiction to Sri Lankan Australian author Michele de Kretser have boosted the self confidence of South Asian Australian writers in Australia South Asian diasporic communities have also been the focus for relatively small but constantly growing studies by anthropologists and sociologists on the interrelation of gender race ethnicity and migration in Australia The terms Labels and Locations capture numerous aspects that contribute in the making of a diasporic consciousness This book critically examines the issues of identity gender family class and caste expressed in the short narratives of South Asian diaspora writers based in Australia Taking an interdisciplinary approach from literary cultural historical anthropological and sociological studies this book engages chiefly with the oeuvre of postcolonial writers and academics namely Mena Abdullah Adib Khan Yasmine Gooneratne Michelle De Kretser Chandani Lokug Chitra Fernando Satendra Nandan Suneeta Peres da Costa Hanifa Deen Christopher Cyrill Suvendrini Perera Sunil Govinnage Brij V Lal Sunil Badami Glenn D Cruz Chris Raja Manik Datar David De Vos Rashmere Bhatti Kirpal Singh Chauhan Sujhatha Fernandes Neelam Maharaj Sushie Narayan Madu Pasipanodya Shrishti Sharma Beryl T Mitchell and Sunitha This book will by calling upon the works of this much neglected South Asian diaspora group fill a lacuna in the broader critical rubric of diaspora studies

The Face Behind the Veil Donna Gehrke-White, 2007-02 Muslim American women in all their diversity are given the chance to tell their stories in their own voice by award winning journalist Donna Gehrke White The only book of its kind it tells in extraordinarily moving detail the lives of New Traditionalists who wear the veil though their forebears did not Blenders who do not wear the veil but consider themselves spiritual and Converts women from other religious backgrounds who have converted to Islam A rare revealing look into the hearts minds and lives of a misunderstood people
