Watson, 2018-03-17 In todays society there are many children with disabilities and illnesses Sometimes society has a tendency to overlook the hidden talent in these individuals They are special in a positive way because they are the children of God The most amazing thing about individuals with any form of disability is that they are stronger in other areas For instance a man without physical sight may have the capability to play a musical instrument yet some people with sight cannot play at all Ask yourself How does this happen I believe that within each person lies a light of hope spirituality and determination If you are confident regardless of your circumstance you can accomplish anything After all God is only concerned about your heart not your physical appearance In addition he loves all of his children Be confident in who you are and know that you are a wonderful individual in spite of physical or mental limitations

Children Framing Childhoods Wendy Luttrell,2020-02-12 Urban educational research practice and policy is preoccupied with problems brokenness stigma and blame As a result too many people are unable to recognize the capacities and desires of children and youth growing up in working class communities This book offers an alternative angle of vision animated by young people s own photographs videos and perspectives over time It shows how a racially ethnically and linguistically diverse community of young people in Worcester MA used cameras at different ages 10 12 16 and 18 to capture and value the centrality of care in their lives homes and classrooms Luttrell s immersive creative and layered analysis of the young people's images and narratives boldly refutes biased assumptions about working class childhoods and re-visions schools as inclusive, imaginative and care-full spaces. With an accompanying website featuring additional digital resources, childrenframingchildhoods.com, this book challenges us to see differently and thus set our sights on a better future. Some Things Matter... Some Things Don't Anna D. Jaquith, 2007. In the big picture of life, some things really matter and some things really don't matter. Try to keep everything in perspective and live for what matters. In the end, it matters that you learn to let God be your best friend in the world. Other people may fail you, but He never will. It matters that you keep the Ten Commandments God gave you; these rules to follow because He loves you and wants you to have the best life possible. It matters that you learn to view yourself as God views you. He absolutely thinks the world of you and He made you the way that you are for a special reason. It matters that you learn to resist the lies of compromise. What have you gained if you've enjoyed everything the world has to offer but have lost your soul in the process? If you've lost your soul, you have lost all that there is to lose. It matters that you learn to fight the enemy. Live with your armor on. Be a warrior and not a wimp. Give it all you've got and do damage to the devil's camp. Bottom line: having God say "Well done, good and faithful servant" is what matters in the end.

unFocused Roselyn Jewell, 2015-03-04. Hilary lives in a world that is supposed to be perfect. The government provides all of the basic necessities, and if you want additional items, you can take on non-governmental work or odd jobs to earn luxury dollars to buy pretty much anything you could desire. The downside: She's assigned a career she hates, a place to live that she's never even been to before, and a guy she's supposed to marry that she's not even sure she likes. In fact, she's not sure she can ever feel that way about any guy. Period. Oh, yeah, and this all happens to everyone when they turn 17. Hilary tries to make the best of it but goes through a series of events that make her question who she is as a person and whether or not perfect can ever really exist, no matter what they want her to believe. Apples in God's Eye Orinio G. Opinaldo, 2010-02-25. Orinio Gregorio Opinaldo was born in Los Angeles and attended St. Agnes Elementary and High School, of which he is still an active member of that community in finances, social justice, and liturgy. He has been a teacher for forty-four years for LAUSD and has taught all elementary grades and served as resource teacher in art, drama, math, writing, and reading. He was chosen as outstanding teacher from the Mayors Office when he taught at Fifty Second Street Elementary, 1964-1989, nominated for the Disney Teacher Award when he taught at Forty Ninth Street Elementary, 1989-2004, and selected as the 2008 Hero for Harmony Elementary School from LAUSD Board of Education, 2005-2008. After twenty years of teaching, he went to India to reflect on his first twenty years as a teacher and to plan for his next twenty during all of the 1983-84 school year. During the next twenty years, he spent six months in Botswana, where he traveled to South Africa and Zimbabwe. After retiring, he set plans on what his next twenty years would be like in service to children and community. He is the patriarch of twenty-three members of his family, of which eleven live with him. He has sixteen grandchildren, eight girls and eight boys, and a long history of wonderful friends scattered throughout the world. His greatest asset is his openness as a life learner. He embraces new experiences and is always studying reading and listening but mostly observing the nuances of his own mind so that he can grow toward total freedom as a vegan and a humanitarian

Narrative and Grief Patricia English-Schneider, Deleasa Randall-Griffiths, 2023-05-15 Grief and loss are fundamental aspects of the human experience Narrative and Grief examines the desire to make sense out of the nonsensical by exploring specific stories of loss and grief spanning from the loss of a parent child or partner loss within larger family systems and ambiguous and anticipatory loss to broader cultural aspects of grief The autoethnographic essays in this book reflect on the unique and individual experiences of each contributor s story Simultaneously these essays reveal that although each grief experience is unique it is also collective evoking broader cultural themes related to loss and grief Scholars of communication sociology and family studies will find this book of particular interest
