Steck-Vaughn Staff, 1998-01-01      GraceQuest Robert V. Rakestraw, 2015-04-13 In this fascinating spiritual theological autobiography Robert Rakestraw tells of his lifelong unceasing search for God After a troubled and unconventional childhood he came to know the grace and freedom of God in a personal way during his college years He then embarked on an unwavering intellectual and spiritual quest for truth and meaning in life Without technical language Rakestraw highlights significant developments and revisions in his understanding of God and God's ways of interacting with the world In striking and sometimes intimate detail he relates compellingly his experiences as a student pastor professor sufferer heart transplant recipient and above all seeker of God Dr Rakestraw's gripping portrayal of his difficulties and sufferings especially with regard to health issues does not come across as depressing Rather it presents the sustaining love and goodness of God in such a way that will pull readers in to investigate the remarkable and freely offered grace of God extolled by the author

Hockey Talk M. Gordon Hunter, 2017-12-13 This is another book about hockey But this one is unique It contains many stories by and about individuals who broadcast play by plays of major junior and provincial junior A games from arenas across Canada There are even a few chapters about broadcasters from teams in the United States that play in Canadian leagues There are major junior chapters from the Western Hockey League WHL the Ontario Hockey League OHL and the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League QMJHL Chapters from provincial junior A leagues include British Columbia Alberta Saskatchewan Manitoba Ontario and the Maritimes Some of the contributors for this book wrote their own chapters Others preferred to be interviewed In all cases the final version of each chapter was approved by the contributor The chapters include many descriptions of broadcasters experiences They describe their early experiences with hockey Some played while others listened on the radio watched on TV or attended games The stories include how they became involved as play by play broadcasters and who were direct or indirect mentors Each broadcaster recounts their memories of the first game they called They also describe some of the notable players coaches and color commentators Where possible there are even some bus stories Each chapter concludes with a comment about what the experience of broadcasting play by play has meant to each individual      Ethical Encounters Janne Korkka, 2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe's writings show that the self's knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe's writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe's work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author's central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe's texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe's writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe's writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing Report of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture Kansas.
