My Pride And Joy An Autobiography:

My Lion's Heart Gareth Patterson, 2014-09-15 Environmentalist independent researcher and author Gareth Patterson has spent his entire adult life working tirelessly for the greater protection of African wildlife and more particularly for that of the lion Born in England in 1963 Gareth grew up in Nigeria and Malawi From an early age he knew where his life's path would take him it would be in Africa and his life's work would be for the cause of the African wilderness and its wild inhabitants His is an all encompassing African story From his childhood in West and East Africa to his study of a threatened lion population in a private reserve in Botswana to his work with George Adamson celebrated as the Lion Man of Africa we witness Gareth's growing commitment to his life's mission This is nowhere more evident than in his account of his life as a human member of a lion pride experiencing life and death through its eyes as he successfully rehabilitated three famous orphaned lion cubs back into a life in the wilds At considerable risk to his own personal safety he exposed the sordid canned lion industry in South Africa bringing this shameful practice to international attention After moving to the Western Cape he took up the fight for the African elephant notably the unique endangered Knysna population and published his astonishing findings in his 2009 book The Secret Elephants Perhaps unsurprisingly given the stressful nature of his work Gareth suffered a massive physical and mental breakdown in his forties which he discusses here for the first time with an openness that underlines his courage Lesser men might have been broken but his lion's heart fought back and he ultimately overcame his illness Gareth Patterson's long awaited autobiography is a moving account of one man's single minded dedication to the preservation of Africa's wildlife It is also a stark reminder that if the human race does not want to lose Africa's priceless wild heritage there is no time to waste The lion is my totem animal and this is the story of my life in Africa for the lion My

Pride and Joy George Adamson, 1988 Green Heroes László Erdős, 2020-01-14 This book provides an introduction into the diversity of the environmental movement through great characters in the green sector The book describes inspiring personal achievements and at the same time it provides readers with information regarding the history the main directions and the ethical principles of the environmental movement Some of the most important characters of the movement from all around the world are included in the book As well as the title characters Buddha and Leonardo DiCaprio other famous environmentalists like Albert Schweitzer David Attenborough and Jane Goodall are discussed Some of the less well known but equally important environmentalists such as Chico Mendes Bruno Manser Henry Spira Tom Regan or Rossano Ercolini are highlighted in the various chapters The selection of characters represents all major branches within the green sector ranging from medieval saints to Hollywood celebrities from university professors to field activists from politicians to philosophers from ecofeminists to radicals Nature Conservation in Southern Africa, 2018-11-26 Nature conservation in southern Africa has always been characterised by an interplay between Capital specific understandings of Morality and forms of Militarism that are all dependent upon the shared subservience and marginalization of animals and certain groups of people in society Although the subjectivity of people has been rendered visible in earlier publications on histories of conservation in southern Africa the subjectivity of animals is hardly ever seriously considered or explicitly dealt with In this edited volume the subjectivity and sentience of animals is explicitly included The contributors argue that the shared human and animal marginalisation and agency in nature conservation in southern Africa and beyond could and should be further explored under the label of sentient conservation Contributors are Malcolm Draper Vupenyu Dzingirai Jan Bart Gewald Michael Glover Paul Hebinck Tariro Kamuti Lindiwe Mangwanya Albert Manhamo Dhoya Snijders Marja Spierenburg Sandra Swart Harry Wels

A Lion Called Christian Anthony Bourke, John Rendall, 2009-03-10 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A stirring tale of a rare bond formed between humans and an animal Time Two men One baby lion What could go wrong A Lion Called Christian tells the remarkable story of how Anthony Ace Bourke and John Rendall visitors to London from Australia in 1969 bought a boisterous lion cub in the pet department of Harrods For several months the three of them shared a flat above a furniture shop on London's King's Road where the charismatic and intelligent Christian quickly became a local celebrity cruising the streets in the back of a Bentley popping in for lunch at a local restaurant even posing for a fashion advertisement But the lion cub was growing up fast and soon even the walled church garden where he went for exercise wasn't large enough for him How could Ace and John avoid having to send Christian to a zoo for the rest of his life A coincidental meeting with English actors Virginia McKenna and Bill Travers stars of the hit film Born Free led to Christian being flown to Kenya and placed under the expert care of the father of lions George Adamson Incredibly when Ace and John returned to Kenya to see Christian a year later they received a loving welcome from their lion who was by then fully integrated into Africa and a life with other lions A video of this reunion has become a YouTube classic Originally published in 1971 and now fully revised and updated with more than 50 photographs of Christian from cuddly cub in London to magnificent lion in Africa A Lion Called Christian is a touching and uplifting true story of an indelible human animal bond It is destined to become one of the great classics of animal literature

The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing Terrence L. Craig, 2017-03-27 The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing provides an overview of Kenyan literature by white writers in the half century before Independence in 1964 Such literature has been overshadowed by that of black writers to the point of critical ostracism It deserves attention for its own sake as the expression of a community that hoped for permanence but suffered both disappointment and dispossession It deserves attention for its articulation of an increasingly desperate colonial and Imperial situation at a time when both were being attacked and abandoned in Africa as in other colonies elsewhere and when a counter discourse was being constructed by writers in Britain as well as in Africa Kenya was likely the best known twentieth century colony for it attracted publicity for its iconic safaris and its Happy Valley scandals Yet behind such scenes were settlers who had taken over lands from the native peoples and who were trying to make a future for themselves based on the labour willing or forced of those people This situation can be seen as a microcosm of one colonial exercise and can illuminate the historical tensions of such times The bibliography is an attempt to collect the literary resources of white Kenya in this historically significant period Kirkus Reviews, 1987 Adult books are categorized by genre i e fiction mystery science fiction nonfiction Along with bibliographic information the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided Starred reviews serve several functions In the adult section they mark potential bestsellers major promotions book club selections and just very good books in the children s section they denote books of very high quality The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews, 1987

The Love Object Edna O'Brien, 2015-05-12 Collected here for the first time are stories spanning five decades of writing by the short story master Harold Bloom As John Banville writes in his introduction to The Love Object Edna O'Brien is simply one of the finest writers of our time The thirty one stories collected in this volume provide among other things a cumulative portrait of Ireland seen from within and without Coming of age the impact of class and familial and romantic love are the prevalent motifs along with the instinct toward escape and subsequent nostalgia for home Some of the stories are linked and some carry O'Brien's distinct sense of the comical In A Rose in the Heart of New York the single mindedness of love dramatically derails the relationship between a girl and her mother while in Sister Imelda and The Creature the strong ties between teacher and student and mother and son are ultimately broken The Love Object recounts a passionate affair between the narrator and her older lover The magnificent mid career title story from Lantern Slides portrays a Dublin dinner party that takes on the lives and loves of all the guests More recent stories include Shovel Kings a masterpiece of compression distilling the pain of a lost exiled generation Sunday Times and Old Wounds which follows the revival and demise of the friendship between two elderly cousins In 2011 Edna O'Brien's gifts were acknowledged with the most prestigious international award for the story the Frank O'Connor Short Story Award The Love Object illustrates a career's worth of shimmering potent prose from a writer of great courage vision and heart The most striking aspect of Edna O'Brien's short stories aside from the consistent mastery with which they are executed is their diversity John Banville On the Road Jack Kerouac, 2002-12-31 The classic novel of freedom and the search for authenticity that defined a generation One of The Atlantic's Great American Novels of the Past 100 Years On the Road chronicles Jack Kerouac's years traveling the North American continent with his friend Neal Cassady a sideburned hero of the snowy West As Sal Paradise and Dean Moriarty the two roam the country in a quest for self knowledge and experience Kerouac's love of America his compassion for humanity and his sense of language as jazz combine to make On the Road an inspirational work of lasting importance. Kerouac's classic novel of freedom and longing defined what it meant to be Beat and has inspired every generation since its initial publication more than fifty years ago. Sept 1957 Hunting Humans Elliott Leyton, 2011-10-05 In this classic study, Elliott Leyton challenges the conventional idea of serial murderers as deranged madmen. He explores the twisted but comprehensible motives of a half-dozen notorious killers: Edmund Emil Kemper, Theodore Robert Bundy, Albert DeSalvo, The Boston Strangler, David Richard Berkowitz, Son of Sam, Mark James Robert Essex, and Charles Starkweather. In the process of describing their crimes, Leyton exposes the cold rationality that underlies their apparent pointlessness. The result is a startling, revelatory text on a deeply troubling topic.
