My Sense of Silence Lennard J. Davis, 2010-10-01 Selected as an Editors Choice by the Chicago Tribune Lennard J Davis grew up as the hearing child of deaf parents In this candid affecting and often funny memoir he recalls the joys and confusions of this special world especially his complex and sometimes difficult relationships with his working class Jewish immigrant parents Gracefully slipping through memory regret longing and redemption My Sense of Silence is an eloquent remembrance of human ties and human failings

Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy G. Reagan, 2004-09-22 This text provides a brief yet comprehensive overview of a number of non Western approaches to educational thought and practice Its premise is that understanding the ways that other people educate their children as well as what counts for them as education may help us think more clearly about some of our own assumptions and values and to become more open to alternative viewpoints about important educational matters The value of this informative mind opening text for preservice and in service teacher education courses is enhanced by Questions for Discussion and Reflection and Recommended Further Readings included in each chapter New in the Third Edition Chapter 2 Conceptualizing Culture I We and The Other is new to this edition It is a response to feedback about the problems inherent in our general discourse about culture and in addition provides an example of a culture that is near to us but nevertheless alien the culture of the Deaf World Chapter 9 which deals with Islam and traditional Muslim education has been substantially revised The subtitle of the Third Edition has been changed to Indigenous Approaches to Educational Thought and Practice reflecting not so much a change in the emphases found in the book but rather a recognition of the growing scholarly interest in indigenous peoples their languages cultures and histories Various points throughout the text have been expanded and clarified and chapters have been updated as needed

The World of Deaf Infants Kathryn P. Meadow-Orlans, Patricia Elizabeth Spencer, Lynne Sanford Koester, 2004-06-17 What is the impact of an infant s diminished hearing on the infant and its parents How does communication develop in cases of diminished hearing How does diminished hearing affect social and cognitive development What types of early interventions can improve communication and development in infants with diminished hearing The World of Deaf Infants presents the results of a 15 year research study that addresses these questions Through their research perhaps the largest long term comparison of deaf and hearing infants Meadow Orlans s team provides a comprehensive and intimate look into the world of deaf infants For a core group of 80 families that includes all four combinations of parent infant hearing status data was collected longitudinally at 9 12 15 and 18 months and mother infant interactions were recorded and observed in both structured and unstructured settings Mothers facial vocal and tactile behaviors during interactions were related to infants temperament and stress mothers linguistic and communication behaviors as well as their overall responsiveness were related to children s language and the effects of support provided to mothers were evaluated and explored The results were dramatic particularly those on infant attachment behaviors and the importance of visual attention to the overall development of deaf infants This comprehensive work provides a foundation on which researchers teachers students and parents can build to improve communication cognitive and social development and to enhance the world of deaf infants

Memoirs of Well-Being Tanja Reiffenrath,2016-05-15 As the body politics of life writing in the United States change illness and disability memoirs receive considerable attention Although these narratives are framed by a lack of health they abundantly present health and do so beyond its binary relationship to the pathological This book departs from previous scholarship by bringing into focus the writers representations of cure recovery and healing as well as their reluctance to bring closure to their narratives and align their stories with traditional notions of health These memoirs thus partake in the construction of alternative narratives of illness and disability

Affiliations Jeffrey R. Di Leo,2003-01-01 It s not what you know but who you know It s not what you do but where you do it Underlying such facile assertions there lies at least a little truth and for academics a complex web of relationships Academic affiliations confer value and identity on individuals disciplines and institutions They have a formative and formidable role in determining the status and self image of academics and institutions The subtleties and implications of such a system in personal and professional terms are the subject of this timely and thought provoking volume Here writers from all walks of academic life interweave personal experiences and critical insights to reveal the inner workings of affiliation in contemporary academic culture These essays take up topics ranging from scholars attitudes toward their affiliated institutions to publishing in academic journals from the phenomenon of the academic star system to activism among tenured professors from the perils of crossing disciplinary boundaries to the merits of mentoring through affiliation Together they offer a frank firsthand view of the ways and means and the uses and abuses of affiliation in higher education today a view that is sure to provoke discussion throughout academia

Signing the Body Poetic Dirksen Bauman,Heidi Rose,Jennifer Nelson,2006-12-20 This unique collection of essays accompanied by videos at last brings a dazzling view of the literary social and performative aspects of American Sign Language to a wide audience The book presents the work of a renowned and diverse group of deaf hard of hearing and hearing scholars who examine original ASL poetry narrative and drama The videos showcases the poems and narratives under discussion in their original form providing access to them for hearing non signers for the first time Together the book and videos provide new insight into the history culture and creative achievements of the deaf community while expanding the scope of the visual and performing arts literary criticism and comparative literature The videos may be viewed online at ucpress.edu/go/signingthebodypoetic

Taking Care Mary Grimley Mason,2012-10-23 Taking Care based on twenty six interviews and other autobiographical narratives challenges the negative stereotypes about mothers with disabilities These women s stories tell of their successes despite the barriers they encounter from the society in which they live Covering issues in the mothering cycle from pregnancy and birth to raising a child through adulthood the mothers experiences and strategies provide valuable information for other women with disabilities as well as for doctors and health and social service professionals This book will provide a significant model for all parents Open Your Eyes H-Dirksen L.

Bauman,2013-11-30 This groundbreaking volume introduces readers to the key concepts and debates in deaf studies offering perspectives on the relevance and richness of deaf ways of being in the world In Open Your Eyes leading and emerging scholars the majority of whom are deaf consider physical and cultural boundaries of deaf places and probe the complex intersections of deaf identities with gender sexuality disability family and race Together they explore the role of sensory perception in constructing community redefine literacy in light of signed languages and delve into the profound medical social and political dimensions of the disability label often assigned to deafness Moving beyond proving the existence of deaf culture Open Your Eyes shows how the culture contributes vital insights on issues of identity language and power and ultimately challenges our culture s obsession with normalcy Contributors Benjamin Bahan Gallaudet U Douglas C Baynton U of Iowa Frank Bechter U of Chicago MJ Bienvenu Gallaudet U Brenda Jo Brueggemann Ohio State U Lennard J Davis U of Illinois Chicago Lindsay Dunn Gallaudet U Lawrence Fleischer California State U Northridge Genie Gertz California State U Northridge Hilde Haualand FAFO Institute Robert Hoffmeister Boston U Tom Humphries U of California San Diego Arlene Blumenthal Kelly Gallaudet U Marlon Kuntze U of California Berkeley Paddy Ladd U of Bristol Harlan Lane Northeastern U Joseph J Murray U of Iowa Carol Padden U of California San Diego The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource Far From the Tree Andrew Solomon,2012-11-13 Selected as One of the Best Books of the 21st Century by The New York Times WINNER of the National Book Critics Circle Award Books for a Better Life Award The New York Times Book Review s 10 Best Books of the Year This masterpiece by the National Book Award winning author of The Noonday Demon features stories of parents who not only learn to deal with their exceptional children but also find profound meaning in doing so a brave beautiful book that will expand your humanity People Solomon s startling proposition in Far from the Tree is that being exceptional is at the core of the human condition that difference is what unites us He writes about families coping with deafness dwarfism Down syndrome autism schizophrenia or multiple severe disabilities with children who are prodigies who are conceived in rape who become criminals who are transgender While each of these characteristics is potentially isolating the experience of difference within families is universal and Solomon documents triumphs of love over prejudice in every chapter All parenting turns on a crucial question to what extent should parents accept their children for who they are and to what extent they should help them become their best selves Drawing on ten years of research and interviews with more than three hundred families Solomon mines the eloquence of ordinary people facing extreme challenges Elegantly reported by a spectacularly original and compassionate thinker Far from the Tree explores how people who love each other must struggle to accept each other a theme in every family s life It's Silence, Soundly John McGreal,2016-04-21 It s Silence Soundly It s Nothing Seriously and It s Absence Presently continue The It Series published by Matador since The Book of It 2010 They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and audial dialectic of mark word and image that began over 25 years ago In their aesthetic form the books are a decentred trilogy united together in a new concept of The Bibliograph All three present this new aesthetic object which transcends the narrow limits of the academic bibliography The alphabetical works also share a tripartite structure and identical length The Bibliograph itself is characterised by its strategic place within each book as a whole as well as by the complex variations in meaning of the dominant motifs nothing ness absence and silence which recur throughout the alphabetical entries that constitute the elements of each text It s Nothing Seriously for example addresses the amusing paradox that so much continues to be written today about nothing The aleatory character of the entries in the texts encourage the modern reader to reflect on each theme and to read them in a new way The reader is invited as well to examine their various inter textual relations across given conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical psychical social reproduction Literature for Young Adults Joan L.

Knickerbocker,2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading

Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein,2005-02-16 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes Disability Romel W. Mackelprang,Richard O. Salsgiver,Ryan C. Parrey,2021-12-15 Disability Fourth Edition is an indispensable tool for human services students in understanding disability from an empowerment perspective The textbook is divided into three parts Part I establishes a nontraditional context of disability moving readers away from the perspective that people with disabilities are sick passive and deviant Part II looks at groupings of disabilities placed within the context of the social definition of disability Part III discusses human service practice with people with disabilities Authors Mackelprang Salsgiver and Parrey establish the historical and societal context in which those living with disabilities are marginalized while offering a social ecological model and its three biosocial psychosocial and social cultural dimensions that students and instructors can employ Readers will also be introduced to universal diversity theory which draws from feminist race disability and queer theories for an approach that is applicable across all diverse groups Written from a North American perspective the book also addresses disability laws policies and practices globally Learning objectives guide students reading and discussion questions highlight key ideas while text boxes and personal narratives bring the book to life

Retrieving the Crisp Outsider Someshwar Sati, 2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability

DisAppearing Tanya Titchkosky, Elaine Cagulada, Madeleine DeWelles, Efrat Gold, 2022-07-29 DisAppearing offers a relational orientation to disability studies From encounters with disability and disabled people in educational settings from elementary school to university in novels and other texts in hospitals and policing in dance on the street and in community centres as well as in considerations of injury and healing and life and death the chapters in this collection explore a variety of cultural scenes of disability By doing so this collection reveals what disability can mean through scenes of its disappearance and demonstrates how to remake these meanings in more life affirming ways Encouraging critical engagement with how disability is noticed and lived the many chapters as well as poetry narrative and a podcast transcript reveal the meaning of disability appearing and disappearing in everyday life and beyond Bringing together the work of scholars artists and activists many of whom identify as disabled DisAppearing encourages students to approach disability differently and to reimagine its appearance in the world Engaging political artistic and philosophical this text with an emphasis on the

Canadian context is an invaluable resource for disability studies students and instructors

Feminist, Queer, Crip Alison Kafer, 2013-05-16 In Feminist Queer Crip Alison Kafer imagines a different future for disability and disabled bodies Challenging the ways in which ideas about the future and time have been deployed in the service of compulsory able bodiedness and able mindedness Kafer rejects the idea of disability as a pre determined limit She juxtaposes theories movements and identities such as environmental justice reproductive justice cyborg theory transgender politics and disability that are typically discussed in isolation and envisions new possibilities for crip futures and feminist queer crip alliances This bold book goes against the grain of normalization and promotes a political framework for a more just world

Concerto for the Left Hand Michael Davidson, 2010-02-11 Professor Davidson an accomplished literary critic offers a focused and balanced analysis of poetry film and the arts honed with his excellent knowledge of the latest advances in disability studies He is brilliant at reading texts in a sophisticated and aesthetically pleasurable way making Concerto for the Left Hand one of the smartest books to date in disability studies Lennard Davis University of Illinois Chicago Moving elegantly among social theorists and cultural texts Davidson exemplifies and propels an ethical aesthetic model for criticism Davidson asks continuously and with a committed intensity where a disability ends and the social order begins this book brings the study of poetry and poetics into the twenty first century Rachel Blau DuPlessis Temple University Concerto for the Left Hand is at the cutting edge of the expanding field of disability studies offering a wide range of essays that investigate the impact of disability across various art forms including literature performance photography and film Rather than simply focusing on the ways in which disabled persons are portrayed Michael Davidson explores how the experience of disability shapes the work of artists and why disability serves as a vital lens through which to interpret modern culture Covering an eclectic range of topics from the phantom missing limb in film noir to the poetry of American Sign Language this collection delivers a unique and engaging assessment of the interplay between disability and aesthetics Written in a fluid accessible style Concerto for the Left Hand will appeal to both specialists and general audiences With its interdisciplinary approach this book should appeal not only to scholars of disability studies but to all those working in minority art deaf studies visual culture and modernism Michael Davidson is Professor of American Literature at the University of California San Diego His other books include Guys Like Us Citing Masculinity in Cold War Poetics and Ghostlier Demarcations Modern Poetry and the Material World
