My Folks In World War II:

From the Great Depression to World War II Joseph Szalay, 2001-01-01 Follow Author Joseph Szalay thru the Great Depression as the son of Hungarian immigrants thru his service during World War II with the 102nd Infantry Division Candidly written through various articles that appeared over the course of more than 10 years in The Herald Democrat newspaper in Sherman Texas

Black Lives, White Lives Bob Blauner, 2022-02-01 Now with a new foreword this timely reissue features a remarkable collection of oral histories that trace three decades of turbulent race relations and social change in the United States for a new generation of activists One evening in 1955 Howard Spence a Mississippi field representative for the NAACP investigating the Emmett Till murder was confronted by Klansmen who burned an eight foot cross on his front lawn I felt my life wasn't worth a penny with a hole in it Twenty four years later Spence had become a respected pillar of that same Mississippi town serving as its first Black alderman The story of Howard Spence is just one of the remarkable personal dramas recounted in Black Lives White Lives Beginning in 1968 Bob Blauner and a team of interviewers recorded the words of those caught up in the crucible of rapid racial social and political change Unlike most retrospective oral histories these interviews capture the intense racial tension of 1968 in real time as people talk with unusual candor about their deepest fears and prejudices The diverse experiences and changing beliefs of Blauner's interview subjects sixteen of them Black twelve of them white are expanded through subsequent interviews in 1979 and 1986 revealing as much about ordinary daily lives as the extraordinary cultural shifts that shaped them This book remains a landmark historical and sociological document and an exceptional primary source commentary on the development of race relations since the 1960s Republished with a foreword by Professor Gerald Early Black Lives White Lives offers new generations of scholars and activists a galvanizing meditation on how divided America was then and still is today

Boots, Bikes, and Bombers Karen Brewster, 2012-05-15 Boots Bikes and Bombers presents an intimate oral history of Ginny Hill Wood a pioneering Alaska conservationist and outdoorswoman Born in Washington in 1917 Wood served as a Women's Airforce Service Pilot in World War II and flew a military surplus airplane to Alaska in 1946 Settling in Fairbanks she went on to co found Camp Denali Alaska's first wilderness ecotourism lodge helped start the Alaska Conservation Society the state's first environmental organization and applied her love of the outdoors to her work as a backcountry guide and an advocate for trail construction and preservation An innovative and collaborative life history Boots Bikes and Bombers incorporates the story of friendship between the author and subject The resulting book is a valuable contribution to the history of Alaska as well as a testament to the joys of living a life full of passion and adventure

Missing People, Animals, Things? Go to Anthony Juanita de Guzman Gutierrez, 2019-11-26 Inside this book is a very powerful prayer to Saint Anthony that will shake your hearts out Saint Anthony of Padua is also a matchmaker For those of you who are looking for suitable partners Saint Anthony is the way to go Actually this prayer was taught and given to me by my beloved mother who was a devoted Saint Anthony of Padua believer Mom assured me that this prayer to Saint Anthony will always be heard by the Saint It was in World War II in a jungle that two young newlyweds were hiding They can see the marching boots of the Japanese soldiers These soldiers held bayonets in their hands Nearby the newlyweds was their friend who was bayoneted It was at this time when the Japanese soldiers were approaching their exact location that the new husband saw a tall man with a brown Habit or clothing spread it out to hide these two newlyweds Each time the Japanese soldiers will close in to these newlyweds hiding spot this browned clothed man with an almost bald hair very young and fair skinned will stand in front of them and spread his cloak or long robe around these blessed newlyweds to hide the two of them The Japanese soldiers did not see the two newlyweds and had changed directions and went away And these newly weds were safe And the vision of Saint Anthony of Padua disappeared These newlyweds were my future parents And my beloved mother was a devotee of Saint Anthony of Padua As a very young girl my future mother was always wearing a brown Habit or Clothing just as Saint Anthony of Padua each time she went to church And it was only my beloved father who saw the vision of Saint Anthony of Padua who saved them from being killed by the Japanese soldiers bayonets in that jungle hideaway in 1944 That hideaway jungle was now where our ancestral home was built and where we grew up All these give me tears each time I recall these very holy and galactic events And I myself have experienced so many miracles from Saint Anthony of Padua This is precisely why this very precious book was written My beloved parents have experienced the miraculous intervention of Saint Anthony during World War II when they were newly married And up to this day Saint Anthony always runs to our rescue whenever we are looking for something After I have said this powerful prayer to Saint Anthony I have found this manuscript that I have been searching for I said to Saint Anthony that if I found this very manuscript that this was Creator Source and Saint Anthony s sign that I will publish this miraculous book And I have found this my manuscript that is in your hands right now "Come Out My People!" Wes Howard-Brook,2010 A compelling view of two competing religious visions one of creation and the other of empire that run throughout the Bible A remarkable offering for those who care about the interface of power and faith with all the threats and seductions that go with it As I read I felt overwhelmed both by the mass of data and by the cunning of interpretation I could not put it down and expect to continue to be instructed by it Walter Brueggemann Howard Brook undertakes what few dare anymore an introductory primer for the whole Bible This book invites disciples to connect the dots in order to recover our ancient anti imperial identity and to embrace a radical faith and practice that are personal and politica Ched Myers Howard Brook illuminates how ancient empires exercised control and manipulation of people not simply by political and military means but also through the religion of empire Throughout he makes clear that the core message of the God of creation is to call people out of empire to refuse to cooperate with the forces of destruction and domination today Richard Horsley Will become a classic for communities that seek first to receive the gracious gift of God s alternative future to Empire Jarrod McKenna If we who sojourn in America are to be a community that can both name and resist the lure of Empire we need a story more powerful than the story called America Wes Howard Brook knows than the Bible tells such a story May its story be ours as we are set free from our imperial imaginations to dream with our Creator of a new world here and now Jonathan Wilson

Hartgrove For We are Sold, I and My People María Patricia Fernández-Kelly,1983-01-01 On the basis of systematic research and personal experience For We Are Sold I and My People uncovers some of the social costs of modern production Maria Patricia Fernandez Kelly peels off the labels Made in Taiwan Assembled in Mexico and the trade names RCA Sony General Motors United Technologies General Electric Mattel Chrysler American Hospital Supply to reveal the hidden human dimensions of present day multinational manufacturing procedures Focusing on Ciudad Juarez located at the United States Mexican border Fernandez Kelly examines the reality of maquiladoras the hundreds of assembly plants that since the 1960s have been used by the Mexican government as part of its development strategy Most maquiladoras function as subsidiaries of large U S based corporations and a majority of the employees are women Drawing from current knowledge in political economy and anthropology this study focuses on one common denominator of the international division of labor a growing proletariat of Third World women exploited by what some experts are calling the global assembly line My Tapestry

Annette Batterink,2017-01-23 One Sunday my husband rented a U Haul trailer and announced to my children and me that he was moving more than 3 000 kilometres away It was a pivotal moment in that I began to understand that my life needed to change It was time to allow God to do a new thing in my life to cleanse and renew me I had gotten lost and confused tired and despairing It was the beginning of an ongoing journey of learning to love myself Outward changes didn't happen immediately but deep inside I was different The threads of the tapestry of my life start long before I was born and go on into eternity Through brilliant colours and dark hues knots and zigzag lines God is creating a picture that only He could design In the Weaver's design there are no mistakes There are threads that remind me that God was preparing me for the tough times before they even happened threads filled with pain that still bring tears to my eyes and threads that bring back memories that make me smile and bring joy to my day The Weaver loves me and I am trusting Him more and more Psychological

Aspects of Crisis Negotiation Thomas Strentz,2012-05-17 While there are many books on crisis negotiation most of the current literature focuses on the history and mechanics of this dynamic process leaving out critical elements that are required for a successful encounter with a hostage taker or other malefactor Psychological Aspects of Crisis Negotiation Second Edition explores the methods and strategies for confronting the nine types of subjects typically encountered in hostage suicide sieges by correctional staff and law enforcement crisis negotiators Drawn from articles published by Thomas Strentz while serving at the FBI Academy along with written versions of lectures developed and delivered since his retirement the book highlights psychological dynamics of negotiations as they apply to the negotiator the hostage and the subject It discusses the predictors of surrender versus the need for a tactical intervention and examines the phases of a hostage crisis and the changing focus as the crisis develops Referencing historical events such as The Bay of Pigs invasion and the Challenger and Columbia incidents the book demonstrates how faulty group decision making can spell tragedy Enhanced with case studies to put the material into context this second edition also includes new chapters on the first responder hostage survival and the Islamic belief system and culture Steeped in sage advice from a national expert this volume arms those tasked with confronting dangerous offenders with the knowledge and tools they need to subvert disaster and ensure the preservation of human life Articles were reviewed by the Academy Editorial Review Board and approved by the Bureau for publication

I Hear My People Singing Kathryn Watterson, 2017-05-30 A vivid history of life in Princeton New Jersey told through the voices of its African American residents I Hear My People Singing shines a light on a small but historic black neighborhood at the heart of one of the most elite and world renowned Ivy League towns Princeton New Jersey The vivid first person accounts of more than fifty black residents detail aspects of their lives throughout the twentieth century Their stories show that the roots of Princeton's African American community are as deeply intertwined with the town and university as they are with the history of the United States the legacies of slavery and the nation's current conversations on race Drawn from an oral history collaboration with residents of the Witherspoon Jackson neighborhood Princeton undergraduates and their professor Kathryn Watterson neighbors speak candidly about Jim Crow segregation the consequences of school integration World Wars I and II and the struggles for equal opportunities and civil rights Despite three centuries of legal and economic obstacles African American residents have created a flourishing ethical and humane neighborhood in which to raise their children care for the sick and elderly worship stand their ground and celebrate life Abundantly filled with photographs I Hear My People Singing personalizes the injustices faced by generations of black Princetonians including the famed Paul Robeson and highlights the community's remarkable achievements The introductions to each chapter provide historical context as does the book's foreword by noted scholar theologian and activist Cornel West An intimate testament of the black community's resilience and ingenuity I Hear My People Singing adds a never before compiled account of poignant black experience to an American narrative that needs to be heard now more than ever

0500 Letters from a Ww II Combat Infantryman Verdi Gilbertson, 2015-11-11 May 7 1945 Well the war ended today Tomorrow is officially V E Day All is quiet on the western front Thank our Almighty God that at last we have peace over here We cant really be happy as long as we have boys fighting on the other side of the world but it is also a big step towards ending the war over there too We hope and pray that it ends soon It looked like the 4th of July here tonight The French civilians are shooting up flares and rockets of all colors The soldiers are not celebrating very much though The order to Cease Firing has come I just cant help but thinking of our buddies who were left behind on the battlefields and never will hear the order

From My People Daryl Cumber Dance, 2002 A celebration of African American life and culture brings together four hundred years of folklore traditional tales recipes proverbs legends folk songs and folk art World War II Remembered Kendal at Hanover Residents Association, 2012-02-08 An exceptional human document of proud men and women who know what it meant to serve Tracking One's Dna Ernest L. Barham,2009-03-23 This is a novel about the Barham family history It centers on the life of John Will Barham 1859 1938 my great grandfather and his descendants and is written hopefully in such a way that it was easy to read understand and enjoy The Other Side of the Woods Robert L. Lesueur,2020-08-09 Bob at any early age had a dream of becoming an Air Force pilot He devoted his life to achieving that dream Along the way he met not only skepticism from the society in which he lived but also from his peers Bob talks about the people he met growing up that had a profound impact on his life This is the autobiography of a black youth who was born in the Jim Crow south and discovered at a young age that he would not accept the status quo of being a second class citizen It deals with the struggles that he had to overcome in order to realize a lifelong dream It is a story of growing up in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s in Madison North Carolina The story is at times humorous and at times deadly It is a story that dreams can come true The Pursuit of Peace and Freedom 1939-2025 People Who Made a Difference A Guide to the Future Dr. Anthony R.
