

HOW TO WRITE LETTERS TO CAMP

SURPRISE! Whether you're a parent, relative, or friend of a camper, writing letters to camp can be easy, quick and fun. And you can write letters to overnight or sleep-away camp in just five easy steps!

SAY HELLO

Let's take care of the easy stuff first. Start with a greeting to your camper and add a few opening comments.

ASK QUESTIONS

Of course you want to know what's going on at camp, so let's start off with a few questions. With any luck, your camper might even answer your questions in their next letter! Yeah, right...

SHARE THE LATEST "NEWS"

Camper's want to know what's happening at home. Which is funny since there's usually a whole lot less going on at home than at camp! But that's OK because this is your chance to share some news about home, family and friends. Go light on activities your camper might regret missing.

BE YOURSELF

HAVE FUN

TELL A JOKE

Most kids enjoy humor – jokes, riddles and funny stories, especially those they can share with their friends at camp.

This is also a great place to share something special with your camper like the French/Spanish/Chinese/SAT/word of the day, bible verse of the day, sports scores etc.

ENCOURAGE YOUR CAMPER

As you wrap up your letter, make sure to include encouragement for your camper. This is your chance to support your camper and help them think about the great experience they can have at summer camp. And yes, it doesn't hurt to throw in a final plug for letters from camp.

Hi Mikeey!

Great to hear from you last week. We're so happy to hear that you're having a great time at camp this year.

What's your favorite part of camp so far? We can't wait to hear about your new friends.

Yesterday the weather was sunny in the 80s. Dad and I woke up at 7 and walked the dog. Dad went off to work and got home at about 7. Your grandparents came over (they look great and say hello by the way) and we all went to that new Italian restaurant on Main Street. We enjoyed the shrimp scampi. It was getting cool at night so we just went home after dinner. Today is Saturday so we're off to visit Aunt Martha in Maple Village. We'll tell you more in our next letter.

Dad heard some jokes that you might like:
Question: What's a good time to go to the dentist? Answer: At tooth-thirty!
A funny news headline: Red Tape Holds Up New Bridge
Knock Knock. Who's there? Doney. Doney who? Doney have to listen to all this knocking!

We know this is going to be your best summer yet at Camp Awannagoheand. We can't wait to hear about all of your great activities in your next letter. We love you very much.

Love, Mom and Dad

Shameless Exploitation in Pursuit of the Common Good Paul Newman,A.E. Hotchner,2003-11-04 There are three rules for running a business fortunately we don t know any of them In 1978 Paul Newman and A E Hotchner decided that rather than just distribute Paul's own salad dressing at Christmas to neighbors they would offer it to a few local stores Freewheeling irreverent entrepreneurs they conceived of their venture as a great way to poke fun at the mundane method of traditional marketing Much to their surprise the dressing was enthusiastically received What had started as a lark quickly escalated into a full fledged business the first company to place all natural foods in supermarkets From salad dressing to spaghetti sauce to popcorn and lemonade Newman's Own became a major player in the food business The company's profits were originally donated to medical research education and the environment and eventually went to the creation of the eight Hole in the Wall Gang camps for children with serious illnesses In these pages Newman and Hotchner recount the picaresque saga of their own nonmanagement adventure In alternating voices playing off one another in classic Odd Couple style they describe how they systematically disregarded the advice of experts and relied instead on instinct imagination and mostly luck They write about how they hurdled obstacle after obstacle share their hilarious misadventures and reveal their offbeat solutions to conventional problems Even their approach to charity is decidedly different every year they give away all the company's profits empty the coffers and start over again The results of this amazing generosity are brought to life in heartwarming stories about the children at their camps With rare glimpses into their zany style and their compassion for those less fortunate Newman and Hotchner have written the perfect nonmanagement book at once playful informative and inspirational

Ross, 2010-08-31 Dying to Tell the Truth Jared Bradley, 2015-09-03 This book is a story about my life as a Christian and my struggle in loving my neighbor as myself It is based on a true story about friends family and the people who made a difference in my life It explains how hard it was for me growing up as a Christian and how challenging it was for a young person like me to share my faith with unbelievers Even as a
