In the Twinkle of an Eye Linda Sterling, 2004 The Block A Brooklyn Story is about the author's experiences growing up in Brooklyn New York between the years 1969 and 1990 The book relates to the many people the author grew up with and the things that went on in the neighborhood The book also tells the author's views on topics like sports movies television and food There is one or two four letter words contained but in each case the author included those words not to offend or to be obscene but to drive some points home and present his past honestly Stolen Life Yvonne Johnson, Rudy Wiebe, 2012-07-31 Written with primal intensity touched with redeeming compassion Rudy Wiebe has explored our history our roots and the secrets of our hearts with moral seriousness and great feeling Governor General's Award for Fiction Citation 1994 A powerful major work of non fiction beautifully written from the twice winner of the Governor General's Award for Fiction and the great great granddaughter of Big Bear This is a story about justice and terrible injustices a story about a murder and a courtroom drama as compelling as any thriller as it unravels the events that put Yvonne Johnson behind bars for life first in Kingston's Federal Prison for Women until the riot that closed it and presently in the Okimaw Ochi Healing Lodge in the Cypress Hills But above all it is the unforgettable true story of the life of a Native woman who has decided to speak out and break the silence written with the redeeming compassion that marks all Rudy Wiebe's writing and informed throughout by Yvonne Johnson's own intelligence and poetic eloquence Characters and events spring to life with the vividness of fiction The story is told sometimes in the first person by Rudy Wiebe sometimes by Yvonne herself He tracks down the details of Yvonne's early life in Butte Montana as a child with a double cleft palate unable to speak until the kindness of one man provided the necessary operations the murder of her beloved brother while in police custody her life of sexual abuse at the hands of another brother grandfather and others her escape to Canada to Winnipeg and Wetaskiwin the traumas of her life that led to alcoholism and her slow descent into hell despite the love she found with her husband and three children He reveals how she participated with three others in the murder of the man she believed to be a child abuser he unravels the police story taking us step by step with jail taped transcripts through the police attempts to set one member of the group against the others in their search for a conviction and the courtroom drama that followed And Yvonne openly examines her life and through her grandmother comes to understand the legacy she has inherited from her ancestor Big Bear having been led through pain to wisdom she brings us with her to the point where she finds spiritual strength in passing on the lessons and understandings of her life How the great great granddaughter of Big Bear reached out to the author of The Temptations of Big Bear to help her tell her story is itself an extraordinary tale The co authorship between one of Canada's foremost writers and the only Native woman in Canada serving life imprisonment for murder has produced a deeply moving raw and honest book that speaks to all of us and gives us new insight into the society we live in while offering a deeply moving affirmation of spiritual healing

Seeking God Michael H. Mitias, 2012-09-14 Seeking God is a Platonic dialogue on the nature of the religious experience and the conditions under which this experience is possible The dialogue takes place between three characters a philosopher a Sufi and a Christian monk They meet in the Syrian Desert and share their views and experiences on what it takes to have a union with God The main premise that is presented and analyzed in the dialogue is that God reveals himself in nature human civilization and the human heart Love is the beginning and end of the path that leads to the quest for God and the light that illumines this path Living from the standpoint of the Divine is the basis of the good life This book presents a vivid picture of the beauty and sublimity of the Divine the joy of the religious experience and the joy of life My Heart Will Cross This Ocean Kadiatou Diallo, Craig Wolff, 2009-04-23

Descended from West African kings and healers raised in the turbulence of Guinea in the 1960s Kadiatou Diallo was married off at the age of thirteen and bore her first child when she was sixteen Twenty three years later that child a gentle innocent young man named Amadou Diallo was gunned down without cause on the streets of New York City Now Kadi Diallo tells the astonishing inspiring story of her life her loss and the defiant strength she has always found within It was Kadi Diallo s voice that captivated the public when she came to America to defend her slain son and it is that same voice candid wise and generous that fills the pages of this extraordinary book Kadi reaches back to her earliest memories of growing up in Guinea the daughter of a strict man who was thwarted by the relics of the French colonial system Raised in a world in which age old religious and cultural rituals were disappearing before the onslaught of modernity Kadi saw her own childhood end abruptly at age thirteen when her father literally gave her away in marriage Kadi prayed for death but instead she found herself plunged into a baffling new life the life of a second wife in a strange household in a distant country and soon afterwards the teenage mother of a sweet natured son Yet somehow Kadi managed not only to survive but to flourish Despite the rigid strictures of African Islamic culture she attended school and later started a successful business of her own She eventually divorced and remarried and lived for eight years in Bangkok Back in Guinea she learned that her oldest child Amadou had been shot in New York City in a case of racial profiling Kadi read with outrage the American newspaper description of her son as an unarmed West African street vendor Nothing she writes could be more distant from the truth Now with great pride and searing love Kadi Diallo finally tells the truth about herself and her son My Heart Will Cross This Ocean is an extraordinary book a girl s story of desire and innocence a wife s story of defiance a mother s story of unbearable loss and a woman s story of unshakable strength and love Stories I Lived to Tell Gary

Carden, 2024-08-20 Stories I Lived to Tell is more than a selection of stories from revered mountain storyteller Gary Carden it is a testimony of a distinguished culture sense of place and spirit of community that connects the Appalachian past to its present This memoir in stories invites the reader to move beyond stereotypes to experience the scenes characters and community of the author s childhood and formative years intersecting with the regional folktales and mythologies that fired his imagination It is not only a fascinating window into an Appalachian community in the middle of the twentieth century but also an insightful reminder of who that community is today in spite of the external changes Featuring an introduction by documentarian Neal Hutcheson this book is a moving often funny collection by a talented storyteller who cuts through cliché and sanctimony with his powerful words The Bryologist, 1920 Milkweed and Honey Cake Wendy A.

Horwitz, 2025-02-04 In Milkweed and Honey Cake A Memoir in Ritual Moments Wendy A Horwitz shares stories about celebration loss change and the best way to open a pomegranate Holidays delight and disappoint A couple marrying in the pandemic finds a surprise after a rainstorm and a topsy turvy search for a gravestone honors her ancestors When a graduation is cancelled Horwitz serves pomp and circumstance on the front porch and through the shifting seasons of a life amid the scramble of pet guinea pigs and birthday parties her children add wonder and comedy to tradition With observations from nature religion and literature Horwitz explores how ritual can exalt ordinary moments and frame the extraordinary A blue heron an old cupboard's scent and the lingering feel of an engagement ring long gone prompt reflections laced with yearning and humor Guiding us along a wooded path to the kitchen table in a messy garden and under a tent reverberating with song she traces the boundaries of ritual considering what we do when ritual falls short and how we might adapt each other's practices And when the wider world seems broken new rituals provide hope Lyrical and funny thought provoking and deeply moving Milkweed and Honey Cake is at once a meditation on our desire for meaning and the story of a woman's lifelong efforts to create it The People of the New River Leland R. Cooper, Mary Lee

Cooper, 2016-04-14 Said to be one of the oldest rivers in the world the New River begins at two locations in Watauga County in northwest North Carolina From there the North and South Forks meander north through Ashe County until they meet near the Virginia border and continue through a corner of Alleghany County before turning north again into Virginia and West Virginia and on to the Ohio Settlers came to the fertile bottom lands along the New River during the 18th and 19th centuries and many of their descendants still live there today In this collection of oral histories 33 people in Ashe Alleghany and Watauga counties most of whom are in their 70s 80s and 90s share memories of their lives and work on the New River and their hopes for its future They tell of floods snows sickness the Great Depression education religion quilting weaving and other crafts and the fight against a large power company that planned to flood thousands of acres of land They also recall how the river has been central to their lives in providing food transportation and recreation No Struggle No
