My Life With Groucho A Sons Eye View:

My Life with Groucho Arthur Marx, 1988 The Darkest Year William K. Klingaman, 2019-02-19 The acclaimed narrative history of the American home front during WWII from the attack on Pearl Harbor through 1942 For Americans on the home front the twelve months following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor comprised the darkest year of World War Two Despite government attempts to disguise the magnitude of American losses it was clear that the nation had suffered a nearly unbroken string of military setbacks in the Pacific by the autumn of 1942 government officials were openly acknowledging the possibility that the United States might lose the war Appeals for unity and declarations of support for the war effort made it appear as though the class hostilities and partisan animosities that had beset the United States for decades had suddenly disappeared Yet a deeply divided American society was splintering even further as conflicting interest groups sought to turn the wartime emergency to their own advantage Meanwhile blunders and repeated displays of incompetence by the Roosevelt administration added to the sense of anxiety and uncertainty that hung over the nation The Darkest Year focuses on Americans state of mind not only through what they said but in the day to day details of their behavior William K Klingaman delves into the social and cultural changes wrought by war including shifts in family roles race relations economic pursuits popular entertainment education and the arts Focus On: 100 Most Popular Vaudeville Performers Wikipedia contributors, Groucho Marx & Charlie Chaplin Harry Lime, Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Game Show Hosts Wikipedia contributors, The Spirit of Grace Alister McGrath, 2016-04-08 In this volume the fourth in the Heart of Christian Faith series Alister E McGrath looks at the Holy Spirit human nature the doctrine of grace and the place of the church in the Christian life Full of stories and helpful illustrations these easy to read devotional books offer spiritual consideration of the difference that our belief in God makes to the way in which we think about ourselves and the world With one volume remaining McGrath s series will define mere Christianity to a new generation for many years to come Focus On: 100 Most Popular Deaths from Pneumonia Wikipedia contributors, A Century of the Marx Brothers Joseph Mills, 2009-03-26 In 1905 Julius Marx began his vaudeville career with the singing group The Leroy Trio and was abandoned in the middle of the tour It was an inauspicious start for the person who would become Groucho A hundred years later the Marx Brothers have permeated our culture from the plastic noses and glasses worn at parties to a Smithsonian exhibition which explains DNA recombination using A Night at the Opera Although they completed relatively few films together the brothers have become icons recognizable even to people who have never seen their movies Most scholarly work on the Marx Brothers has focused on biographical aspects of their careers and lives A Century of the Marx Brothers suggests a myriad of other useful approaches to their film and stage productions The collection s eleven essays examine the Marx Brothers work from a number of critical perspectives ranging from reader response theory to film semiotics The contributors include international scholars in a variety of fields such as literature cultural studies performance studies and film history or Two Stephen Wagg, 2004-01-14. Because I Tell a Joke or Two explores the complex relationship between comedy and the social differences of class, region, age, gender, sexuality, ethnicity, and nationhood. It shows how comedy has been used to sustain, challenge, and to change power relationships in society. The contributors, who include Stephen Wagg, Mark Simpson, Stephen Small, Paul Wells, and Frances Williams, offer readings of comedy genres, texts, and performers in Britain, the United States, and Australia. The collection also includes an interview with the comedian Jo Brand. Topics addressed include women in British comedies such as Butterflies and Fawlty Towers, the life and times of Viz, from Billy the Fish to the Fat Slags, queer readings of Morecambe and Wise, the male double act, the Marx Brothers, and Jewish comedy in the United States, black radical comedy in Britain, The Golden Girls, Cheers, Friends, and American society. The Marx Brothers Encyclopedia Glenn Mitchell, 2009-05. This edition originally published 2003. Film Clowns of the Depression Wes D. Gehring, 2014-11-21.

The 1930s are routinely considered sound film's greatest comedy era. Though this golden age encompassed various genres of laughter, clown comedy is the most basic type. This work examines the Depression decade's most popular type of comedy: the clown or personality comedian. Focusing upon the Depression era, the study filters its analysis through twelve memorable pictures. Each merits an individual chapter in which it is critiqued. The films are deemed microcosmic representatives of the comic world and discussed in this context. While some of the comedians in this text have generated a great deal of previous analysis, funnymen like Joe E. Brown and Eddie Cantor are all but forgotten. Nevertheless, they were comedy legends in their time, and their legacy, as showcased in these movies, merits rediscovery by today's connoisseur of comedy. Even this book's more familiar figures, such as Charlie Chaplin and the Marx Brothers, are often simply relegated to being recognizable pop culture icons whose work has been neglected in recent years This book attempts to address these oversights and to re expose the brilliance and ingenuity with which the screen clowns contributed a comic resiliency that was desperately needed during the Depression and can still be greatly appreciated today The films discussed are City Lights 1931 Chaplin The Kid From Spain 1932 Cantor She Done Him Wrong 1933 Mae West Duck Soup 1933 Marx Brothers Sons of the Desert 1933 Laurel and Hardy Judge Priest 1934 Will Rogers It s a Gift 1934 W C Fields Alibi Ike 1935 Brown A Night at the Opera 1935 Marx Brothers Modern Times 1936 Chaplin Way Out West 1937 Laurel and Hardy and The Cat and the Canary 1939 Bob Hope Performing Arts ,2002
