Copyright Office, 1968 Stan Brakhage Suranjan Ganguly, 2017-03-22 In this volume editor Suranjan

Ganguly collects nine of Stan Brakhage's most important interviews in which the filmmaker describes his conceptual frameworks, his theories of vision and sound, the importance of poetry, music, and the visual arts in relation to his work, his concept of the muse, and the key influences on his art making. In doing so, Brakhage (1933-2003) discusses some of his iconic films such as Anticipation of the Night, Dog Star Man, Scenes from Under Childhood, Mothlight, and The Text of Light. One of the most innovative filmmakers in the history of experimental cinema, Brakhage made almost 350 films in his fifty-two year long career. These films include psychodramas, autobiography, Freudian trance films, birth films, song cycles, meditations on light, and hand-painted films which range from nine seconds to over four hours in duration. Born in Kansas City, Missouri, he lived most of his life in the mountains of Colorado, teaching for twenty-one years in the film studies program at the University of Colorado Boulder. As a filmmaker, Brakhage's life-long obsession with what he called an "adventure in perception" made him focus on the act of seeing itself, which he tried to capture on film in multiple ways, both with and without his camera, and by scratching and painting on film. Convinced that there is a primary level of cognition that precedes language, he wrote of the untutored eye with which children can access ineffable visual realities. Adults who have lost such primal sight can retrain their eyes by becoming conscious of what constitutes true vision and the different ways in which they daily perceive the world. Brakhage's films experiment with such perceptions, manipulating visual and auditory experience in ways that continue to influence film today. Catalogue of \(printed\) music. Music. Poems and Songs David H. Morrison, 1870      The New Monthly Belle Assemblée, 1839      [The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition of Ezra Pound, Gertrude Stein and Charles Olson R. Bruce Elder, 2011-08-26 Since the late 1950s Stan Brakhage has been in the forefront of independent filmmaking. His body of work, some seventy hours, is one of the largest of any filmmaker in the history of cinema and one of the most diverse. Probably the most widely quoted experimental filmmaker in history, his films typify the independent cinema. Until now, despite well-deserved acclaim, there has been no comprehensive study of Brakhage's oeuvre. The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition fills this void. R. Bruce Elder delineates the aesthetic parallels between Brakhage's films and a broad spectrum of American art from the 1920s through the 1960s. This book is certain to stir the passions of those interested in artistic critique and interpretation in its broadest terms.
