My Name Is Martha Brown:

My Name is Martha Brown Nicola Thorne, 2001 A Bride and No Wife. A Novel afterwards MOSSE ROUVIÈRE (Henrietta), 1817 Lost Mountain Anne Coray, 2021-03-16 The searing debut novel of poet and writer Anne Coray Lost Mountain is an impassioned story of love loss environment and politics against a landscape facing threat of destruction Anne Coray the author of three poetry collections has brought her observational and writing skills to fiction that demonstrates both her attention to language and her passion for her home place Lost Mountain is many things a love story between the two main characters a portrait of a small and isolated community a mystery a paean to salmon and lives that surround salmon a not very disguised critique of a megamine project and an example of eco fiction environmentally conscious literature Anchorage Daily News When news of an open pit mining project hits the remote Alaskan hometown of Whetstone Cove young widow Dehlia Melven barely takes in the town's nervous chatter The Ziggurat corporation promises the mine will be fifteen times larger than all the mines in Alaska combined but Dehlia's thoughts are consumed by the loss of her late husband and the future of her security At least the new arrival of solar energy expert Alan Lamb brings a distraction and a different dynamic to the small community one that's surprisingly more interesting than expected For Alan Whetstone Cove offers a fresh start to a job away from all the bureaucracy and politics he'd been running away from Plus there's Dehlia the beautiful and enigmatic artist who begins to occupy more and more of Alan's thoughts But with Ziggurat's looming presence he knows it is only a matter of time before the corporation would take over his livelihood as well as the town's way of life He can't bear the thought of being connected let alone paid by Ziggurat yet leaving would also mean losing Dehlia forever Inspired by the Pebble Mine project in Alaska Lost Mountain is an exploration on the interconnectivity of the natural world woven into the narrative of people's strength and resistance Readers will enter a familiar world where environment plays an encompassing role in not just politics of society but in real relationships and careers and in the hopes and dreams we dare to have The Goings on of Mrs. Brown at the Tichborne Trial and in Her Own Family, with the Sad End of the Unfort'nate Lady Thro' A' Writin of Books Mr. Brown, 1872 Moments That Take Your Breath Away Rev. James W. Moore, 2010-09-01 As the saying goes It's not the number of breaths we take it is the number of moments that take our breath away Every now and then and more often than we realize God breaks into the routine and gives us one of those awesome moments so powerful so amazing so beautiful that time seems to stand still How long has it been since you had one of those moments I have had many moments like that Some were quite dramatic some were quite memorable and some were just too beautiful for words Do you remember the first time you saw the ocean or a majestic mountain range or a breathtaking sunset with colors so amazing that you find yourself thinking Only God could do that As we explore in this book some of the many different kinds of moments that take your breath away it is my hope and prayer that we will all become more aware of and receptive to the myriad breathtaking moments that God has in store for us James W Moore adapted from the introduction Contains twelve chapters plus an introduction Each chapter of the book features a key passage of Scripture and focuses on a key theme A study guide is included The goings on of mrs. Brown at the Tichborne trial and in her own family. By mr.
