My Piece Of Hollywood:

My Piece of Hollywood Richard Braden, 2001-12 Charley Pickney wanted to become a screenwriter but right out of college computer science provided a more reliable income where he could eat regularly and work standard business hours So he chose the easier road to success Then one day he got a chance to shoot the moon and screenwrite a cowboy western saga for a Dallas cowboy boot manufacturer and he hitched his wagon to that star He was glad that he did Hollywood's Blacklists Reynold Humphries, 2008-09-10 Are you now or have you ever been a member of the Communist Party That question was to be repeated endlessly during the anti Communist investigations carried out by the House Committee on un American Activities HUAC in the early 1950s The refusal of ten members of the film industry to answer the question in 1947 led to the decision by studio bosses to fire them and never to hire known Communists in the future The Hearings led to scores of actors writers and directors being named as Communists or sympathisers All were blacklisted and fired Hollywood's Blacklists is a history of the political and cultural factors relevant to understanding the why and the how of the various investigations of the alleged Communist infiltration of Hollywood What was HUAC What propaganda role did films play during World War II and the Cold War What values were at stake in the confrontation between Left and Right that saw the former so resoundingly defeated and expelled from Hollywood Answers to these and other questions are offered via analyses of the motives of the various players and of the tactics deployed by HUAC to reward collaboration and punish dissent
