My Pocket Money:

Hearings United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee Investigating Expenditures in Senatorial Primary and General Elections, A Cry Within Joy Agwu, 2014-08-29 A Cry Within describes two children who were born of the same parents a brother and sister who are always in constant disagreement with each other The boy tends to be very playful and unconcerned while the girl is very articulate in all her ways Their parents believed so much in superstition and tradition and this brings consistent divergent opinions between these parents and their two children The girl who is in the center of everything envisaged the coming of an evil day and succeeded in drawing her brother's attention to her thoughts and feelings concerning a traditional right that was performed on her behalf when she was two years old The boy in like manner was so troubled that he vowed that his sister must not marry a man whom she was betrothed to at the age of two maintaining that his sister has the right of speech and freedom to choose who she wants as a husband On swearing to stop at nothing to save her sister from being a victim of a tradition which he considers insignificant an indirect intimidation and injustice against women and children related his concerns to his friends Rosaleen's Diary Rosaleen O'Brien, Dr, 2011-06-01

Description This autobiography intercedes factual reminiscences in prose with later poems reflecting on the wider implications of Rosaleen's life These implications stretch to encompass all those who may have suffered at the hands of the state in Ireland About the Author I have been in receipt of trauma counselling since 1999 on a daily basis at times speaking till the early hours of the morning Support from my trauma Counsellor helps me to come to terms with accepting that what has happened to me cannot now be changed I cannot ever forgive those who had a vicarious liability to look after me and failed As a result of being locked away for some years all because we were poor has brought certain limitations to my day to day life Writing is a form of therapy and allows me to be free to be the person that I want to be and should have been my birthright Through writing I can reach out to others who may have had such an unfortunate experience as myself Daily flashbacks can be upsetting and I fill my life with things to do so as to block them out Day to day life can be exhausting and coping mechanisms that I learnt in order to survive have not helped me in the outside world God help all fellow survivors and perhaps one day Ireland will accept the terrible price we paid Shame on all you right thinking residents in Ireland to allow the government and Catholic Church to ignore harm done to me and many others who are either dead or too ill to tell their story Thanks to Chipmunk publishing I have been able to confront my demons and a Big Thank you to Reatha my trauma counsellor without her I would not be here today writing about my stolen life Stories From My Life Natarajan Raman, 2023-08-19 The author was born in Madras in 1941 He was raised by his grandmother in Coimbatore where he attended Suburban middle school He moved to Mylapore Madras in 1952 He did his high schooling there and graduated S S L C from P S High School in 1955 He was a member of the Children's Club in VM street He moved to Jamshedpur to be with his parents He joined Kamachha in Banaras for his Intermediate Science in 1956 then graduated from Banaras Engineering college in 1962 as a Mechanical Engineer He joined as a graduate apprentice in Telco Jamshedpur in 1963 As a member of the United Club in Northern Town he read Time Life Look and National Geographic magazine with a passion The politics history geography and space travel fascinated him and kindled a serious desire to immigrate to USA which he did in August of 1969 He also helped around 20 friends from TELCO and TISCO In U S he worked as an Engineer in Nuclear and Fossil Plants Raised a family and retired in 1999 Came to Madras and built a 12 apartment complex in 2000 in Mylapore He spent the next 14 years in a Del Webb community Rancho Resort in Sahuarita Arizona He ran the Solo Club there for 10 years Subsequently moved to a Senior independent community The Gardens in Pleasanton California near his son due to bad health and lives there now He comes to Madras every year to visit family This Was My England Robert Corfe,2011 Taking a multi purpose and inter denominational approach this is a book addressed to all Christians who in this sceptical age may be experiencing a religious crisis or doubts as to their commitment to Christ s teaching and Revelation Whilst this book is written from the basis of conviction it insists on demonstrating factual evidence Nothing is presented which is contrary to the reason of the ordinary man or woman in arguing the basis of religious truth With this in mind the reader is taken through the Bible from the book of Genesis onwards and answers are offered for many of those difficult questions which usually arouse anxiety in the minds of the faithful from time to time In addition the book offers questions and discussion topics at the conclusion of each chapter This is an ideal handbook which religious teachers and ministers of all denominations will find helpful written by a fully qualified scholar holding a doctorate in theological studies My Marriage Jakob Wassermann,2016-01-26 Alexander Herzog a young writer goes to Vienna to escape his debts and a failed love affair There he is pursued by book loving Ganna giddy girlish clumsy eccentric and wild Dazzled and unnerved by her devotion to him and attracted to the large dowry offered by her wealthy father he thinks he can mold Ganna into what he wants But no one can control her troubling passions As their marriage starts to self destruct Herzog will discover that he can never escape her Posthumously published in 1934 and based on Wassermann s own ruinous marriage My Marriage is a tragic masterpiece that unfolds in shocking detail This story of rare intensity and drama is now brought to English readers in a powerful translation by Michael Hofmann A Voice from Lebanon Assaad Y. Kayat,1847 Bitching Marion Meade,2014-04-01 In the early 1970s the national conversation regarding feminism was very different Public discussions of womanhood single life marriage workplace harassment rights gripes were often channeled through movement spokeswomen and always refracted through the lens of talking to men about men Little was shared about the chats happening behind closed doors where everyday women talked to women without the threat of men listening in But all that changed with the book Bitching Originally published in 1973 Bitching is journalist and author Marion Meade s deep and insightful investigation into the real dialogue happening inside coffee klatches consciousness raising groups and therapist s sessions Using excerpts from real taped conversations Meade presents the frustration anger resigned acceptance and scathing humor that make up the female experience from birth to grave For the first time male chauvinist behavior goes fully examined and unexcused and the roles men force upon women get broken down to their sometimes ridiculous component parts A snapshot into a key time in the feminist movement this book is a must read for anyone interested in how far we have come or how much we have stayed the same in London A Black Boy at Eton Dillibe Onyeama,2022-02-03 The story Onyeama had to tell was so gripping and shocking it wouldn't let me go A remarkably well written memoir Bernardine Evaristo from the Introduction Dillibe was the second black boy to study at Eton joining in 1965 and the first to complete his education there Written at just 21 this is a deeply personal revelatory account of the racism he endured during his time as a student at the prestigious institution He tells in vivid detail of his own background as the son of a Nigerian judge at the International Court of Justice at The Hague of his arrival at the school of the curriculum of his reception by other boys and masters and of his punishments He tells too of the cruel racial prejudice and his reactions to it and of the alienation and stereotyping he faced at such a young age A Black Boy at Eton is a searing ground breaking book displaying the deep psychological effects of colonialism and racism A title in the Black Britain Writing Back series selected by Booker Prize winning author Bernardine Evaristo this series rediscovers and celebrates pioneering books depicting black Britain that remap the nation Walk with the Devil Zakariah Ali,2012-11 I was profoundly touched by evil at the dawn of my life and have been haunted by the experience throughout most of my life My mother was poisoned before my eyes at about age four I grew up on that that fateful day and became aware of myself I was touched by evil and the wickedness of man against man at the dawn of my life She died an agonizing and horrible death The room I shared with her smelled like rotten flesh or putrefied meat before her death But the last time I saw her on earth she looked radiant and was miraculously transformed when I saw her seated in the village square for public viewing She was at peace the lines and marks of pain and anguish etched on her face as she lay dying were smoothed out Her countenance was peaceful devoid of the expressions of agony and pains the hallmark of the last three to four months of her life She was beautiful in death than during the last months of her life death gave her peace I did not know it but I was affected or infl uenced by the events of my mother's last days on earth I do not fear death and whenever I came close to death I was more concerned about the inconvenience my death would have imposed on others than fear for my life Death is not a bogey man About a year after her death I encountered malicious spirits in the bush I did not know the spirits were not human but I was apprehensive and fearful at the sight of little people under the fruit tree on which I sat The spirits chased me from the bush to the village during the chase the earth opened up and swallowed me for my protection And not to be outdone the spirits followed me into the bowels of the earth That was the second time in my young life that I was touched by evil of a different kind I nearly died from the encounter with the malicious spirits I was reunited with a father I did not know I had before my mother's death But about three years after I was reunited with him he walked out on my new family my stepmother and her children Thus by age seven or eight I had gone through two broken homes First my mother walked out on my father when I was a baby and second my father walked out on my new mother and half siblings For most of my life I was haunted by forces of darkness malevolent spirits and scary nightmares from time to time Scary and haunting nightmares led me to discover the power of prayer very early in life I started praying before going to bed when I was in class three and the nightly nightmares ceased until I was a young adult and went to St John Bosco's College I discovered alcohol and began ignoring and skipping my nightly prayers or prayed haphazardly without heart and the nightmares came back I was hospitalized about five times in one year from the effects of a nightmare and vision when I was a student at the University of Science he did not foist his faith on the rest of the family My stepmother followed no particular faith or organized religion until the last days of her life She was animist she worshipped our ancestral spirits and deities I became a Catholic or Christian by virtue of education my father made no attempt to convert me to Islam The family while together was united by love not by faith each member followed his/her own faith I could not reconcile my new faith with my parents and realized that but for love we would not have known peace in our family We are divided by faith but united by love that was the experience from my upbringing My lack of blind faith is influenced by my upbringing Man as God and Satan I understand the meaning of some popular bible passages different from most because of my experience of the forces of darkness my struggle in life against evil witchcraft and malicious spirits I understand the true meaning of the passage in Luke 17:20-21 For indeed the kingdom of God is within you And the adm

Fathers Can Be Good Dads Brigitta Gisella Geltrich-Ludgate, 2014-09-25 Fathers Can Be Good Dads is a novel which is based on true events Even though dates houses names of people countrysides and sceneries have been changed the family interactions are real However not all have been the actions of Ginia Marie Giselle Hinson the heroine of the book The majority though are When the author was a little girl she often sat around the family sitting room table or stood outside the doors listening as the grown ups in her family were sharing with loud laughter the mischiefs they had gotten themselves into when they were young Often the author wondered how she could improve on these mischiefs just to get a bit more attention A heartfelt thank you is expressed to all family members and friends the author had listened to Everyone was an inspiration to her Also a thank you is given to all those she had interacted with and to all those who got into trouble with her in moments of absolute exuberance where household rules were ignored The novel is dedicated to every writer who has struggled through the ups and downs of putting together personal memoirs to preserve in writing for children and their children's children an insight into a life that once existed before their own times
