Anne Sexton
 Anne Sexton, 2016-04-05 A revealing collection of letters from Pulitzer Prize winning poet Anne Sexton While confessional poet Anne Sexton included details of her life and battle with mental illness in her published work her letters to family friends and fellow poets provide an even more intimate glimpse into her private world Selected from thousands of letters and edited by Linda Gray Sexton the poet's daughter and Lois Ames one of her closest friends this collection exposes Sexton's inner life from her boarding school days through her years of growing fame and ultimately to the months leading up to her suicide Correspondence with writers like W D Snodgrass Robert Lowell and May Swenson reveals Sexton's growing confidence in her identity as a poet as she discusses her craft publications and teaching appointments Her private letters chart her marriage to Alfred Kayo Sexton from the giddy excitement following their elopement to their eventual divorce her grief over the death of her parents her great love for her daughters balanced with her frustration with the endless tasks of being a housewife and her persistent struggle with depression Going beyond the angst and neuroses of her poetry these letters portray the full complexities of the woman behind the art passionate anguished ambitious and yearning for connection

Lyricism as Educational Transformation Lamont Pretrell Muhammad, 2025-07-18 This volume explores the pedagogical and transformative potential of writing lyrics Based on an autoethnographic study and inspired by Ivani's notion of writer identity it explores how writing can nurture different aspects of students' identity allowing them to connect with and engage in their social and community background Through an analysis of the author's lived experiences as a Black male educator and author Hip Hop lyricist and curriculum writer it details how the lyrics of Hip Hop artists served as educational experiences in his journey toward becoming a Hip Hop artist and educator as well as how he developed his experiences into a template for his students to follow through programs such as Hip Hop Literacy A unique and engaging exploration of lyricism this book examines themes such as building positive classroom relationships self-actualization self-expression skill acquisition and culturally responsible pedagogy It will be of interest to researchers and educators involved in alternative literacy practices Hip Hop education autoethnography and curriculum studies German Feminist Writings Patricia

Tennyson,1900 Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ,1820 Poetry Zooms In Carroll E. Arkema,2022-01-18 A poem can capture a moment Zoom in on an instant in time Otherwise lost in the ongoing rush Of a life not experienced in rhyme These poems can fortify your soul help you see deeply into persons and the world and be mindful of Sacred Presence in the supposedly mundane world The poems zoom in to see evidence of the Sacred in nature in the human healing journey from brokenness to wholeness They lament the tragic results of humans setting themselves up as sacred or ultimate and they contemplate the mystery of death as part of the soul s journey of transformation Savor them see something of what I see or even more and be fascinated by the presence of the Sacred even in something like the way a house wren builds its nest I focus in some poems on what the night reveals but most of my poems are suffused with deep delight contemplative wonder and transformative joy each in their own now autonomous way They re free of me Now over to you Pieces of Time
