My Soul Is Not Broken I Am Stronger Than Ever:

My Soul Is Not Broken . . . I Am Stronger Than Ever Cassandra Louise Sligh Dewalt, Ph.D., 2002-12-01 Memories of Me is a collection of short stories essays and poetry inspired by my need to feel alive I was a Jehovah s Witness for 27 years and toward the end I begin to feel more and more that I was becoming a non person that my brain was drying up I was so involved with field service meeting attendance and the the end of the world until I had no time to be creative or to feel in touch with the rest of the world I began jotting down memories from childhood There is only one story included from my imagination The Eve of Summer Another Pimps Blood and Love was written by my youngest son Basically Memories chronicles part of my family s lives growing up in Karnack Texas deep in the piney woods of East Texas I write about characters that peopled my childhood and how their love wit and common goodness inspired me From Oppression to Grace Theodore Regina Berry, Nathalie Mizelle, 2023-07-03 This book gives voice to the experiences of women of color women of African Native American Latina East Indian Korean and Japanese descent as students pursuing terminal degrees and as faculty members navigating the Academy grappling with the dilemmas encountered by others and themselves as they exist at the intersections of their work and identities Women of color are frequently relegated on account both of race and womanhood into monolithic categories that perpetuate oppression subdue and suppress conflict and silence voices This book uses critical race feminism CRF to place women of color in the center rather than the margins of the discussion theorizing research and praxis of their lives as they co exist in the dominant culture The first part of the book addresses the issues faced on the way to achieving a terminal degree the struggles encountered and the lessons learned along the way Part Two Pride and Prejudice Finding Your Place After the Degree describes the complexity of lives of women with multiple identities as scholars with family friends and lives at home and at work The book concludes with the voices of senior faculty sharing their journeys and their paths to growth as scholars and individuals This book is for all women of color growing up in the academy learning to stand on their own taking first steps mastering the language walking running falling and getting up to run again and illuminates the process of self definition that is essential to their growth as scholars and individuals A Long Way to Go Darrell Cleveland, 2004 A Long Way to Go Conversations about Race by African American Faculty and Graduate Students highlights the experiences and coping strategies of faculty members and graduate students pursuing Ph D s who have successfully navigated the academy despite hostile environments and hurdles that cause many to avoid or leave the academy African American students and faculty often face problems such as isolation within a white environment the misinterpretation of confidence as aggressiveness and the need to work twice as hard as white peers in order to be taken seriously in their chosen careers This book will assist both doctoral students and junior faculty in successfully completing the graduate school experience and transitioning into tenure track positions and will be of great interest to all higher education faculty and administrators who must address the complex issues of diversity in recruiting and retaining graduate students and faculty
