New Dawn On Rocky Ridge:

New Dawn on Rocky Ridge Roger Lea MacBride, 1997-10-04 It's a big year for thirteen year old Rose and her family as they witness the turn of the century and after years of hard work experience their first apple harvest out on Rocky Ridge farm And as her feelings for Paul grow stronger there are even signs of romance in the air for Rose It's a time for new beginnings in New Dawn on Rocky Ridge the sixth book in the Rocky Ridge series continuing the story that Laura Ingalls Wilder told of her own childhood a story that has charmed generations of readers The Rediscovered Writings of Rose

Wilder Lane, Literary Journalist Amy Mattson Lauters, 2007-03-09 Through numerous short stories novels such as Free Land and political writings such as Credo Rose Wilder Lane forged a literary career that would be eclipsed by the shadow of her mother Laura Ingalls Wilder whose Little House books Lane edited Lane's fifty year career in journalism has remained largely unexplored This book recovers journalistic work by an American icon for whom scholarly recognition is long overdue Amy Mattson Lauters introduces readers to Lane's life through examples of her journalism and argues that her work and career help establish her not only as an author and political rhetorician but also as a literary journalist Lauters has assembled a collection of rarely seen nonfiction articles that illustrate Lane's talent as a writer of literary nonfiction provide on the spot views of key moments in American cultural history and offer sharp commentary on historical events Through this collection of Lane's journalism dating from early work for Sunset magazine in 1918 to her final piece for Woman's Day set in 1965 Saigon Lauters shows how Lane infused her writing with her particular ideology of Americanism and individualism self reliance and freedom from government interference thereby offering stark commentary on her times Lane shares her experiences as an extra in a Douglas Fairbanks movie and interviews D W Griffith She reports on average American women struggling to raise a family in wartime and hikes over the Albanian mountains between the world wars Her own maturing conservative political views provide a lens through which readers can view debates over the draft war and women's citizenship during World War II and her capstone piece brings us again into a culture torn by war this time in Southeast Asia These writings have not been available to the reading public since they first appeared They encapsulate important moments for Lane and her times revealing the woman behind the text the development of her signature literary style and her progression as a writer Lauters's introduction reveals the flow of Lane's life and career offering key insights into women's history the literary journalism genre and American culture in the first half of the twentieth century Through these works readers will discover a writer whose cultural identity was quintessentially American middle class midwestern and simplistic and who assumed the mantle of custodian to Americanism through women's arts The Rediscovered Writings of Rose Wilder Lane traces the extraordinary relationship between one woman and American society over fifty pivotal years and offers readers a treasury of writings to enjoy and discuss Meet the New Dawn Rosanne Bittner, 2014-01-30 In this totally unforgettable sixth book in the Savage Destiny series a relentless wave of frontier progress forces itself into the lives of Zeke and Abbie Monroe threatening their many years of abiding love and forcing a separation unlike any other they have experienced Zeke joins the Cheyenne in their last effort to hold on to the freedom they knew until the white man invaded their pristine domain and destroyed their game their hunting grounds their beautiful innocence Meet the New Dawn is a keenly powerful and poignant story about the last years of Zeke and Abbie Monroe's life together and how their love and their passion for each other lingers on into their twilight years as proof that age and the challenges of life cannot dim the love these two share a love that causes a man and woman to see each other only as the fifteen year old girl who once touched a savage older man's hand over a campfire a touch that changed both their lives forever Get out the Kleenex for this powerful read you will never ever forget PRAISE Power passion tragedy and triumph are Rosanne Bittner's hallmarks Again and again she brings readers to tears Romantic Times Extraordinary Bittner's characters spring to life Publishers Weekly Ladies for Liberty John Blundell, 2011 In this 2nd Edition John Blundell gives a lively portrait of more than 25 American women who spoke out for liberty helping to shape the political and social fabric of the United States His subjects range from frontier novelists to suffragists to the inventor of life insurance for women and a tax collector who challenged the IRS Arranged chronologically the stories add up to a history of America Responses to the first edition were so positive that the author has added five more of the best stories in US Women's History namely Anne Hutchinson Clara Barton Alice Paul Rosa Parks and Mildred Loving Ladies for Liberty combats the myth that women want and benefit from big government In this new expanded edition of biographies of American women John Blundell shares further evidence that the spirit of independence has always been a strong impetus for America's leading ladies He shows that the underlying motivation of the women portrayed in these pages was self determination as a virtue and the conviction that individuals should be allowed to pursue their own ends free from the coercion of others His selection focuses on women of Conservative Libertarian views whether they were active in politics business owners writers or other cultural figures Black as well as white these women were revolutionary some directly influencing the colonial breakaway from great Britain some fighting for Abolition others breaking new ground professionally Each one not only made women's voices heard but made it clear that women have something to say that is both valid and valuable This book is intended for American and British readers alike high school and above and all who are interested in American history Conservative Libertarian politics or Women's Studies Westward Movement Robert W. Smith, Robert Smith, 2006 Encourage students to take an in depth view of the people and events of specific eras of American history Nonfiction reading comprehension is emphasized along with research writing critical thinking working with maps and more Most titles include a Readers Theater Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children s literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies
