New Demographic Regime Population Challenges And Policy Responses:

Demographic Challenges for the 21st Century Johan Surkyn, 2008 Inspired by the work of Ron Lesthaeghe retired Belgian professor of demography and social science research methodology this collection of contributions is also based on a conference entitled Demographic Challenges for the 21st Century A State of the Art in Demography During Ron Lesthaeghe's tenure he established himself as a scholar publishing highly influential work that changed the face of demography and founded the research group Interface Demography Most of his research was in the various subfields of demography historical social and economic and mainly covered populations of Europe and of sub Saharan Africa He also researched the fields of cultural change in Europe and of ethnic minority studies This book offers a collection of tributes to his contribution to demography presented by leading international demographers Demographic Research, Volume 17: Book I

Demographic Research, 2008 The Problem-solving Capacity of the Modern State Martin Lodge, Kai Wegrich, 2014 Governance Challenges and Innovations examines the capacity of contemporary governments to act upon and address the pressing problems of our time It highlights four basic administrative capacities that matter for governance and considers the way in which states have addressed particular governance challenges Population Ageing in Central and Eastern Europe Andreas Hoff, 2016-04-08 During the 1990s Europe became the first continent with a mature society where people aged 60 years and older outnumber children and as this trend continues the resulting ageing societies will differ from previous societies in their make up in their needs and in their resource allocation Population ageing poses an even greater challenge to the post communist societies of Central and Eastern Europe While still struggling to cope with the aftermath of the economic and social transition process following the breakdown of communism they are now facing even more rapid demographic change than Western Europe This book brings together leading scholars to present an understanding of the processes underlying the very rapid population ageing in Central and Eastern Europe In addition to discussing the main demographic drivers behind this development in each of the countries examined this volume also discusses its implications for policy healthcare provision workforces intergenerational family relations the social cohesion of future Central and Eastern European societies and the quality of life experienced by their citizens Organised around broad geographical regions with final sections analysing the book's findings and their future implications Population Ageing in Central and Eastern Europe will be of interest to gerontologists policy makers students and scholars of population change Work, Family Policies and Transitions to Adulthood in Europe T. Knijn, 2012-09-17 This book analyzes how the current generation of young adults enters the labour market and tries to create their own autonomous household with or without children exploring questions such as what does it mean to be a young adult in Europe today and what social policies help them to combine work and family life Equality of Retirement Benefits Received by Men and Women in Selected European Countries: Childbearing and Future Benefits, 2008 Analyses the interrelationship between fertility and the retirement benefits of men and women and considers possible changes in old age pension systems to stimulate decisions on having children

Interpersonal Relations Across the Life Course Timothy J Owens, J. Jill Sutor, 2007-09-05 This volume number 12 is subtitled Interpersonal Relations across the Life Course It is inspired by the increased awareness in recent years of the way in which structural and psychosocial dimensions of the life course shape interpersonal relations Interest in this issue has included both the maintenance of long term relationships that may span many phases of the life course and the development of relationships that are specific to particular phases The volume is a combination of invited and author initiated papers all anonymously peer reviewed that seeks to present a cohesive source of information on the multiform nature and influences of interpersonal relations from a variety of perspectives theoretical frames and substantive areas Contributions reflect Macro micro linkages and interpersonal relations i e age structures social institutions and race ethnicity Parenting across the life course Parent adult child relations and transitions Transitions in non kin relationships Social relationships and well being

The European Second Generation Compared Maurice Crul, Jens Schneider, Frans Lelie, 2012-08-01 Based on data collected by the TIES survey in 15 cities across 8 European countries looks at the place and position of the children of immigrants from Turkey Morocco and the former Yugoslavia

Population and Society Gregg Lee Carter, 2016-04-29 This exciting new book presents the field of social demography animating the study of population with a vibrant sociological imagination Gregg Lee Carter provides multiple demonstrations of how taking a demographic perspective can give us a better understanding of social phenomena once thought to be largely the products of culture politics or the economy Five key chapters concentrate on 1 the social and individual determinants of fertility mortality and migration 2 the social and individual impacts of changing levels of fertility mortality and migration and 3 the impacts of overpopulation on the environment and how changes in the environment in turn impact the human condition especially regarding migration What gives these analyses coherence is how each emphasizes the ways in which demographic forces both reflect and limit individual choices Written in a straightforward and engaging style and without getting bogged down in academic debates this concise book is the ideal introduction and primer for courses in social demography and population and society

Families in Converging Europe E. Oinonen, 2008-04-30 This book examines common familial trends and differences throughout Europe from the 1960s onwards and discusses the most common theoretical explanations for convergence and divergence Eriikka Oinonen reveals how structural factors such as the labour market the welfare state and the EU affect Europeans family related choices
