New Life For The Dead:

Romans Michael J. Gorman, 2022-03-03 Above all Romans is a letter about Spirit enabled participation and transformation in Christ and his story and thus in the mission of God in the world This commentary engages the letter to the Romans as Christian scripture and highlights the Pauline themes for which Michael Gorman is best known participation and transformation cruciformity and new life peace and justice community and mission With extensive introductions both to the apostle Paul and to the letter itself Gorman offers background information on Paul s first century context before proceeding into the rich theological landscape of the biblical text In line with Paul s focus on Christian living Gorman interprets Romans at a consistently practical level highlighting the letter s significance for Christian theology daily life and pastoral ministry Questions for reflection and sidebars on important concepts make this especially useful for those preparing to preach or teach from Romans the epistle of life as Gorman calls it for its extraordinary promise that through faith we might walk in newness of life with Christ

Church Michael G. Lawler, Thomas J. Shanahan, 1995 It is taken for granted today among theologians that the principal achievement of the Second Vatican Council was its Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium It is beginning to be equally taken for granted that the core of this central document is its vision of Church as communion Communion Pope John Paul II has said is the very mystery of the Church Church A Spirited Communion grows out of the ecclesiology of the Council as a systematic treatment of this notion of communion Church A Spirited Communion is not however a book only about the Church It is a book about the God whom Christians confess as Triune who calls the Church into existence and who seeks its commitment in every age It is a book about the Church only to the extent that the Church is in communion with this God To the extent that it is a book which is primarily theo logical and only secondarily ecclesio logical it is a book which adheres to God rather than to men and summons the Church to do the same

Resurrection of the Flesh Or Resurrection from the Dead Brian Schmisek, 2013 What will our resurrected bodies look like Will we be young or old Marked by the physical imperfections of our earthly lives Does this flesh we carry now rise or is it something other What does our modern knowledge of the world contribute to our understanding Brian Schmisek traces developments in the Christian understanding of resurrection explores the topic in light of biblical data and mines scientific insights What results is a synthesis that expresses the essence of the apostolic kerygma in modern terms Schmisek s impressive combination of solid theological and biblical scholarship with an accessible and welcoming style makes this book an excellent resource for adult education groups deacon formation classes undergraduates and other nonspecialists

Storied Revelations Gisela H Kreglinger, 2014-08-28 Parables were used by Jesus to reveal to us the kingdom of God and to move us from being bystanders to active recipients of God s work of revelation However parables are constantly at risk of being buried as mummies of prose as George MacDonald puts it We become so familiar with the language of Scripture that Jesus parables no longer work on us in this revelatory and transforming way George MacDonald the Victorian poet and theologian observed this very process at work in Victorian society. It was a culture saturated with Christian jargon but often devoid of a profound understanding of the gospel for its own time and culture. The language of Scripture no longer penetrated people's hearts, imaginations, and attitudes; it no longer transformed people's lives. MacDonald called to be a pastor turned a story and more specifically the parabolic as a means of spiritual awakening. He created fictive worlds in which the language of Jesus would find a new home and regain its revelatory power for his particular Victorian audience.

Death as Transformation Dr Henry L Novello, 2013-06-28. A key tenet of Christian faith is that the crucifixion of Jesus Christ is a unique death by which the powers of death in the world have been conquered so that Christian life in the Spirit is marked by the promise and hope of new life already anticipated in the community of baptized believers. Notwithstanding this basic tenet regarding the Christian life as a participation in the redemptive death of Jesus Christ, theology in the past as well as much contemporary theology tends to assign no salvific significance to the event of our own death, focusing instead on death in negative terms as the wages of sin. This work is a significant retort to theological neglect both Catholic and Protestant of the positive and transformative aspect of our death when conceived as a dying into the redemptive death of Jesus Christ. The development of Henry L Novello's proposed theology of death takes place in conversation with the pre-eminent contemporary contributors to this field of theological inquiry. By offering comprehensive critiques of Karl Rahner, Hans Urs von Balthasar, Karl Barth, Eberhard Jüngel, and Jürgen Moltmann, Novello painstakingly pieces together a positive construal of death as salvific and transformative. What is especially distinctive about Novello's work is that he develops the idea of death as a sharing in the admirable exchange of natures in the person of Jesus Christ, from which emerges his theory of resurrection at death for all. The reach of the work is extended by exploring some pastoral and liturgical implications of a theology of death conceived as the privileged moment for the actualization of God's grace in Jesus Christ and thus being created anew in the power of the Spirit.

Explanatory and Practical, on the Epistle to the Romans Albert Barnes, 1848 Rising from the Dead Patricia Nanoff, 2013-10-23. Bridging the gap between spirituality and the recovering community, Rising from the Dead: Stories of Women's Spiritual Journeys to Sobriety tells the stories of alcoholic women in long-term sobriety whose faith-based rehabilitation healed and transformed their lives. Using the format adopted by Alcoholics Anonymous in telling their stories, each woman tells how it was, what happened, and how it is now. approach to treating addiction and offers strategies for strengthening and developing the spiritual lives of those afflicted with this burden This book examines the use of stories from a therapeutic and Christian perspective and suggests models for therapeutic listening and counseling It also covers narrative construction issues with shame and guilt threshold experiences God language and much more An indispensable book on healing through communities of faith Rising from the Dead Stories of Women s Spiritual Journeys to Sobriety is ideal for pastors pastoral counselors chaplains parish nurses and seminary faculty teaching in the area of addiction ministry
