the new communes COMING TOGETHER IN AMERICA RON E. ROBERTS,1971 Encyclopedia of American Communes, 1663-1963 Foster Stockwell,2013-04-30 Swanendael the first communal experiment in America was established in 1663 by Mennonites from Holland The scant records available on the community show that 41 people led by Pieter Cornelisz Plockhoy settled in an area near Lewes Delaware in the late summer These souls as they were called shared all things in common refused to keep slaves practiced religious toleration for all but Catholics and stiff necked Quakers and had the first free school in the New World The opening of the New World made America the ideal location for many experimental communities Its unspoiled and inexpensive land encouraged social experimentation and as a result most of the world s communes have been established in the United States This encyclopedia details the more than 500 communes established in America from Swanendael 1663 through Tolstoy Farm founded in 1963 Entries include the name of the commune the years it operated the community s leaders a brief history a discussion of extant buildings or artifacts and sources for further study America's Communal Utopias Donald E. Pitzer,2010-01-20 From the Shakers to the Branch Davidians America s communal utopians have captured the popular imagination Seventeen original essays here demonstrate the relevance of such groups to the mainstream of American social religious and economic life The contributors examine the beliefs and practices of the most prominent utopian communities founded before 1965 including the long overlooked Catholic monastic communities and Jewish agricultural colonies Also featured are the Ephrata Baptists Moravians Shakers Harmonists Hutterites Inspirationists of Amana Mormons Owenites Fourierists Icarians Janssonists Theosophists Cyrus Teed s Koreshans and Father Divine s Peace Mission Based on a new conceptual framework known as developmental communalism the book examines these utopian movements throughout the course of their development before during and after their communal period Each chapter includes a brief chronology giving basic information about the group discussed An appendix presents the most complete list of American utopian communities ever published The contributors are Jonathan G Andelson Karl J R Arndt Pearl W Bartelt Priscilla J Brewer Donald F Durnbaugh Lawrence Foster Carl J Guarneri Robert V Hine Gertrude E Huntington James E Landing Dean L May Lawrence J McCrank J Gordon Melton Donald E Pitzer Robert P Sutton Jon Wagner and Robert S Weisbrot The American Family Howard Hoffman,2013-06-29 Several years ago an anonymous donor gave a generous gift to the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at George Washington University School of Medicine The donor suggested that the gift be used to support a conference on the current dilemmas of the American family and to publish its proceedings The current chairman of the department Jerry Wiener formulated the initial plans for the conference with Leon Yochelson who had been chairman at the time the gift was made Dr Yochelson is now Chairman of the Board of the Psychiatric Institute of the District of Columbia These initial discussions led to a significant and sustained collaboration between the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at George Washington and the

Psychiatric Institute in planning the conference and the present volume A committee was established to plan the conference It consisted of Peter Steinglass Associate Professor of Psychiatry and George Cohn Professor of Child Health and Development both of George Washington and Margaret Garrett a member of the psychiatric staff at the Psychiatric Institute The committee was jointly chaired by the editors of this volume The committee received indispensable assistance from members of the administrative staff of the Psychiatric Institute Al Bruce Carol Klein and Miriam Mathura Margaret Schnellinger of the Center for Family Research George Washington University was also very helpful in all phases of planning the conference

Contemporary Asian American Communities Linda Trinh Võ, Rick Bonus, 2009 Once thought of in terms of geographically bounded spaces Asian America has undergone profound changes as a result of post 1965 immigration as well as the growth and reshaping of established communities This collection of original essays demonstrates that conventional notions of community of ethnic enclaves determined by exclusion and ghettoization now have limited use in explaining the dynamic processes of contemporary community formation Writing from a variety of perspectives these contributors expand the concept of community to include sites not necessarily bounded by space formations around gender class sexuality and generation reveal new processes as well as the demographic diversity of today's Asian American population The case studies gathered here speak to the fluidity of these communities and to the need for new analytic approaches to account for the similarities and differences between them Taken together these essays forcefully argue that it is time to replace the outworn concept of a monolithic Asian America

While America Watches Jeffrey Shandler, 1999 In America where mediations have always provided most people with their primary encounter with the Holocaust television has helped transform watching into the morally charged act of witnessing the Holocaust By tracing the course of Holocaust television over the past half century While America Watches reveals how Americans have come to embrace this subject as a model for responding to other moral crises from domestic racial strife to ethnic cleansing operations in Bosnia
