Hollywood Cinema Richard Maltby, Ian Craven, 1995-01-01 This comprehensive introduction to Hollywood cinema provides a fascinating account of the world's most powerful film industry and examines its cultural and aesthetic significance Taking a broad ranging approach it explores and interprets Hollywood cinema in history and in the present in theory and in practice

American Film History Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2015-09-08 From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film from the impact of the civil rights feminist and LGBT movements to that of 9 11 Features a student friendly structure dividing coverage into the periods 1960 1975 1976 1990 and 1991 to the present day each of which opens with an historical overview Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars combining broad historical social and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films including Midnight Cowboy Nashville Cat Ballou Chicago Back to the Future Killer of Sheep Daughters of the Dust Nothing But a Man Ali Easy Rider The Conversation The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Longtime Companion The Matrix The War Tapes the Batman films and selected avant garde and documentary films among many others

Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings Origins to 1960 to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium The Hollywood Renaissance Yannis Tzioumakis, Peter Krämer, 2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood's Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self censorship Long standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards The Wiley-Blackwell History of American Film, 4 Volume Set Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2011-12-12 Comprising over 90 essays and richly illustrated with over 200 images the Wiley Blackwell History of American Film provides a chronological portrait of American film history from its origins to the present day Taken as a whole the essays in this collection represent a comprehensive and nuanced overview of American film history from the intersecting perspectives of industry audiences aesthetics culture politics issues and ideology Unabashedly ambitious deeply historical and unprecedented in its multifaceted examination of film history this collection offers you Over 90 original essays written by an international cast of film scholars Discussions of the industrial and institutional components of film history including multiple modes of production distribution and marketing Investigations into the political social and economic factors that informed industry change and framed the reception of films Engaging close readings and in depth analysis of canonical and non canonical films Profiles of essential industry figures major directors stars and producers along with important figures outside the industrial mainstream An exploration of the history of film criticism and culture and central issues in American film historiography The most authoritative collection of fresh investigations available in one state of the art resource Selected by Choice as a 2013 Outstanding Academic Title Maverick Movies Daniel Herbert, 2023-11-21 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more

Maverick Movies tells the improbable story of New Line Cinema a company that cut a remarkable path through the American film industry and movie culture Founded in 1967 as an art film distributor New Line made a small fortune running John Waters's Pink Flamingos at midnight screenings in the 1970s and found reliable returns with the Nightmare on Elm Street franchise in the 1980s By 2001 the company competed with the major Hollywood studios and reached global box office success with the Lord of the Rings franchise Blurring boundaries between high and low culture between independent film and Hollywood and between the margins and the mainstream New Line Cinema epitomizes Hollywood's shift in focus from the mass audience fostered by the classic studios to the multitude of niche audiences sought today

Contemporary American Cinema Linda Williams, Michael Hammond, 2006-05-16 One of the rare collections I would recommend for use in undergraduate teaching the chapters are lucid without being oversimplified and the contributors are adept at analyzing the key industrial technological and ideological features of contemporary U S cinema Diane Negra University of East Anglia UK

Contemporary American Cinema offers a fresh and sometimes revisionist look at developments in the American film industry from the 1960s to the present Readers will find it lively and provocative Chuck Maland University of Tennessee USA

Contemporary American Cinema is the book on the subject that undergraduate classes have been waiting for Comprehensive detailed and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike Charlie Keil Director Cinema Studies Program University of Toronto Canada

Contemporary American Cinema usefully gathers together a range of materials that provide a valuable resource for students and scholars It is also a pleasure to read Hilary Radner University of Otago New Zealand Contemporary American Cinema deepens our knowledge of American cinema since the 1960s This is an important collection that will be widely used in university classrooms Lee Grieveson University College London UK

Contemporary American Cinema is a clear sighted and tremendously readable anthology mapping the terrain of post sixties US cinema with breadth and critical verve Paul Grainge University of Nottingham UK This collection of freshly written essays by leading specialists in the field will most likely be one of the most important works of reference for students and film scholars for years to come Liv Hausken University of Oslo Norway

Contemporary American Cinema is the first comprehensive introduction to American cinema since 1960 The book is unique in its treatment of both Hollywood alternative and non mainstream cinema Critical essays from leading film scholars are supplemented by boxed profiles of key directors producers and actors key films and key genres and statistics from the cinema industry Illustrated in colour and black and white with film stills posters and production images the book has two tables of contents allowing students to use the book chronologically decade by decade or thematically by subject Designed especially for courses in cinema studies and film studies cultural studies and American studies Contemporary American Cinema features a glossary of key terms fully referenced resources and suggestions for further reading questions for class discussion and a comprehensive filmography Individual chapters include The decline of the studio system The rise of American new wave cinema The history of the blockbuster The parallel histories of independent and underground film Black cinema from blaxploitation to the 1990s Changing audiences The effects of new technology Comprehensive overview of US documentary from 1960 to the present Contributors include Stephen Prince Steve Neale Susan Jeffords Yvonne Tasker Barbara Klinger Jim Hillier Peter Kramer Mark Shiel Sheldon Hall Eithne Quinn Michele Aaron Jonathan Munby Cinemas of the World James Chapman, 2004-06-03 The cinema has been the pre eminent popular art form of the 20th century In Cinemas of the World James Chapman examines the relationship between film and society in the modern world film as entertainment medium film as a reflection of national cultures and preoccupations film as an instrument of propaganda He also explores two interrelated issues that have recurred throughout the history of cinema the economic and cultural hegemony of Hollywood on the one hand and on the other the attempts of film makers elsewhere to establish indigenous national cinemas drawing on their own cultures and societies Chapman examines the rise to dominance of Hollywood cinema in the silent and early sound periods He discusses the characteristic themes of American movies from the Depression to the end of the Cold War especially those found in the western and film noir genres that are often used as vehicles for exploring issues central to us society and politics He looks at national cinemas in various European countries in the period between the end of the First World War and the end of the Second which all exhibit the formal and aesthetic properties of modernism The emergence of the so called new cinemas of Europe and the wider world since 1960 are also explored Chapman is a tough thinking original writer an engaging excellent piece of work David Lancaster Film and History
