The History of the Seljuq State Clifford Edmund Bosworth,2010-10-20 The Akhbar al dawla al saljuqiyya is one of the key primary documents on the history of Western Persia and Iraq in the 11th and 12th centuries This book provides an accessible English translation and commentary on the text making available to a new readership this significant work on the pre modern history of the Middle East and the Turkish peoples The text is a chronicle of the Seljuq dynasty as it emerged within the Iranian lands in the 11th and 12th centuries dominating the Middle Eastern lands from Turkey and Syria to Iran and eastern Afghanistan During this formative period in the central and eastern Islamic lands they inaugurated a pattern of Turkish political and military dominance of the Middle East and beyond from Egypt to India in some cases well into the 20th century Shedding light on many otherwise obscure aspects of the political history of the region the book provides a more detailed context for the political history of the wider area As such it will be of great interest to scholars of Middle Eastern history and is an important addition to the existing literature on the Seljuq dynasty

Islam in American Prisons Hamid Reza Kusha,2016-12-05 The growth of Islam both worldwide and particularly in the United States is especially notable among African American inmates incarcerated in American state and federal penitentiaries This growth poses a powerful challenge to American penal philosophy structured on the ideal of rehabilitating offenders through penance and appropriate penal measures Islam in American Prisons argues that prisoners converting to

Islam seek an alternative form of redemption one that poses a powerful epistemological as well as ideological challenge to American penology Meanwhile following the events of 9 11 some prison inmates have converted to radical anti Western Islam and have become sympathetic to the goals and tactics of the Al Qa ida organization This new study examines this multifaceted phenomenon and makes a powerful argument for the objective examination of the rehabilitative potentials of faith based organizations in prisons including the faith of those who convert to Islam
