New Jerusalem Bibleill:

The Missionary Intelligencer ,1907 English Works of John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester John Fisher,2002-02-21
Bishop John Fisher was a scholar and theologian of European reputation famous as a preacher and author of the first sermon sequence to be printed in English He was beheaded for his opposition to Henry VIII s divorce from Catherine of Aragon and pursued after his death by the enmity of the king who surpressed his books and sought to blacken his name The figure of John Fisher links the age of late medieval piety with the growth of Christian humanism and the new learning which as a friend of Erasmus he introduced as chancellor of Cambridge University His English writings are distinctive for their structured elegance and clarity This new edition contains sermons written during the last fifteen years of Fisher s life including a previously unpublished eyewitness account of the Field of Cloth of Gold celebrations and devotional works composed while he was a prisoner in the Tower of London *F.A.D.N.A. Public Religion and the Urban Environment Richard Bohannon, 2012-04-26 Nature and the city have most often functioned as opposites within Western culture a dichotomy that has been reinforced and sometimes challenged by religious images Bohannon argues here that cities and natural environments however are both connected and continually affected by one another He shows how such connections become overt during natural disasters which disrupt the narratives people use to make sense of the world including especially religious narratives and make them more visible This book offers both a theoretical exploration of the intersection of the city nature and religion as well as a sociological analysis of the 1997 flood in Grand Forks ND USA This case study shows how religious factors have influenced how the relationship between nature and the city is perceived and in particular have helped to justify the urban control of nature The narratives found in Grand Forks also reveal a broader understanding of the nature of Western cities highlighting the potent and ethically rich intersections between religion cities and nature
