Our Voices, Our Histories Shirley Hune, Gail M. Nomura, 2020-03-10 An innovative anthology showcasing Asian American and Pacific Islander women's histories Our Voices Our Histories brings together thirty five Asian American and Pacific Islander authors in a single volume to explore the historical experiences perspectives and actions of Asian American and Pacific Islander women in the United States and beyond This volume is unique in exploring Asian American and Pacific Islander women's lives along local transnational and global dimensions The contributions present new research on diverse aspects of Asian American and Pacific Islander women's history from the politics of language to the role of food to experiences as adoptees mixed race and second generation while acknowledging shared experiences as women of color in the United States Our Voices Our Histories showcases how new approaches in US history Asian American and Pacific Islander studies and Women's and Gender studies inform research on Asian American and Pacific Islander women Attending to the collective voices of the women themselves the volume seeks to transform current understandings of Asian American and Pacific Islander women's histories

The Woman's Book of Money and Spiritual Vision Rosemary Williams, 2005-11 Money triggers powerful emotions and conflicting messages especially for women But for those who want to look at their finances in new and freeing ways this workshop in a book complete with worksheets journaling exercises and meditations strips away misconceptions about money and shows women how they can create a secure future and shape a better world It walks readers through a six stage process encouraging them to explore feelings about money identify core spiritual values and make sound decisions reflecting those values

Finding Our Voice Neil Glover, 2024-04-30 Beneath all the anxieties about church decline and strategies to reverse that this book speaks to a problem that has not been addressed why is it that mainstream churches Anglican Methodist Baptist and Presbyterian have been particularly affected by the secular age And how might they be renewed It argues that these churches need to focus less on restructuring and closures and instead recover a sense of authenticity in the gospel they believe in their vision of human flourishing their diversity their passion for justice and their unique ability to connect with local communities Too often mainline churches are perceived as worthy but also profoundly unexciting This book explores the centuries old roots of this perceived boredom and how the church can more often become a place of inspiration and of encounter with God Finding Our Voice calls on all kinds of resources that can help refresh the church's self expression in engagement with the scriptures with art music and poetry in searching for a better language that remains true to the church's core identity and resonates with contemporary culture

Our Voices Alberto González, Yea-Wen Chen, 2016 Brief original essays teach students about particular cultures through the perspective of someone within that culture promoting greater understanding of others

Our Voices, Our Land Stephen Trimble, 1986 SCIENCE 85 called the audio visual presentation of Our Voices Our Land at The Heard Museum Phoenix Awesome This program an emotional experience that has captured the hearts of viewers is an almost overwhelming collage of faces landscape and words that brings to life Southwest Indian people Native Americans have applauded it Now to reach a much wider audience the show has been distilled by its creators in this book The Indian people themselves do the speaking here Their voices come from ten tribes in Arizona and northern New Mexico elders teenagers medicine women artists tribal chairmen teachers a cross section of contemporary Indian people of the Southwest They speak about everything of consequence in their lives the past the present and the future In doing so they eloquently communicate their complexity vitality and grace From Monument Valley to the saguaro cacti of the Sonoran Desert from the Pueblo villages around Santa Fe to the Grand Canyon Carefully chosen black and white photos provide contrast and historical perspective Amazon.com

Adaptation Online Lyndsay Michalik Gratch, 2017-09-05 Adaptation Online Creating Memes Sweding Movies and other Digital Performances explores how traditional notions of the processes and products of creative adaptation are evolving online Using a performance lens and a shift in terminology from the metaphor of the cultural meme to the framing that adaptation affords Lyndsay Michalik Gratch considers online adaptations in terms of creative process and human agency rather than merely as products This book offers a glossary of strategies for online adaptation that is useful not only for scholars in performance studies but also for scholars of cinema communications and new media studies

Women with 2020 Vision Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner, 2020-10-06 Women haven't always had the right to vote From such diverse voices as John Stuart Mill and Cokie Roberts the absolute right of both women and men to vote has been affirmed And yet resistance to women's suffrage even by women themselves has a long and painful history In this exciting volume thirteen theologians and religious leaders in America look back at the historic victory in 1920 when women in the United States won the right to vote They then assess the current situation and speak into the future Women with 2020 Vision American Theologians on the Voice Vote and Vision of Women commemorates the 100th anniversary of women in the United States obtaining the right to vote a story that must be told and retold and reflected upon in light of the current sociopolitical theological realities

Finding Our Voice Marc H. Ellis, 2018-06-19 Finding Our Voice is a series of meditations on how to express the deepest sense of who we are in a troubled world What is the core of our being How do we find the language to name that core If the core of our faith is identifying and embodying the prophetic for our time surviving that naming is as challenging as finding our voice Often as not the prophetic lands us in hot water We feel alone and abandoned Recognizing others in the same situation is crucial to our ability to hold fast With others our voice grows more certain and finds a home even in exile Soon the community we left is replaced by a new community of fellow travelers We are not alone The Fortnightly Sermons on the Appeal to Life, No. 1 ...

Oscar Carleton McCulloch, 1889 Democratizing Leadership Mike Klein, 2015-12-01 Democratizing Leadership Counter hegemonic Democracy in Organizations Institutions and Communities promotes leadership in the democratization of culture to counter the current hegemony of domination and cultivate an alternative hegemony of collaboration It is premised on a leadership framework for decision making rooted in democratic voice and leading to collective action This broad peacebuilding prescription for individual and collective agency accounts for the constructive role of conflict in democratic pluralism and the need to develop practices and structures that prevent violent conflict in order to advance positive peace This theory addresses the contexts of deliberative agonistic and revolutionary democratic frameworks Democratizing Leadership is informed by three qualitative case studies described in rich detail First Bank System Visual Art Program In the Heart of the Beast Theater's May Day Ritual and The Minnesota Alliance of Peacemakers exemplify the practice of democratizing leadership These diverse settings include corporate banking during 1980's deregulation an annual community May Day parade and an informal alliance of peacemaking organizations Leadership in each case promotes authentic voice encourages decision making with integrity and advocates for responsible collective action The Word in the Wind Bruce L. Taylor, 2019-07-26 The growing use and appreciation of the Common Lectionary Revised has stimulated renewed attention to the Christian calendar in its fullness and an enrichment of liturgical worship In this volume Bruce Taylor offers a collection of theologically rich sacramentally sensitive and biblically centered sermons for the Sundays and feast days in the first half of Year A of the Lectionary featuring Gospel readings from Matthew with attention to the accompanying Old Testament and epistolary texts Included is a sampling of sermons written as engaging stories and a sermon presented during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Preachers will find here encouragement for their own homiletical observance of the liturgical year and ecumenical celebrations and the mutual and intimate relationship between Word and Sacrament All readers will find a thoughtful and stimulating resource for their own life of faith witness and devotion Ethical Leadership Bill Grace, William J. Grace, 1998 Our Stories, Our Voices, Our Identities Abann Kamyay Ajak Yor, 2022-02-03 The New Zealand Resettlement Storybook is an introductory narrative to encourage relationship building between resettled people and New Zealand society The stories in this book recall the lived experiences of individuals from a forced migrant background i e those who were forced because of civil war and persecution to leave their country of origin without having the choice to immigrate These narratives are human stories of hope and resilience that give different voices and space to tell their life stories beyond settlement This is a sequel to the book Beyond Refuge Stories of Resettlement in Auckland published in 2016 and second print in 2021 This book has been compiled by the author for the Aotearoa Resettled Community Coalition ARCC as a part of his strategic leadership role to engage and connect with wider stakeholders including service providers policymakers the media and educational institutions politicians and the public The book serves as a guide resource and tool to equip the audiences with resettlement knowledge These narratives bring a greater understanding of the journeys toward smooth settlement and positive integration at local regional and national levels The book captures ethnic diverse background voices that foster sustainability and help maintain the storyteller's own cultural identities The storybook shares these human struggle and success stories with love and compassion to all Aotearoa New Zealand resettled people and host society and the world It recognizes the Aotearoa New Zealand hospitality and the opportunity that allows time to become a healer for some of the individual storytellers as they recover from the past and discover their new home dreams The spirit of willingness to tell a story and share personal confidences opens a larger audience to hear directly from people who have lived through traumatic experiences The book aims to change people's mindsets and worldviews through storytelling And it will take you along the journey of 20 individuals new residents and citizens of New Zealand They openly share their resettlement journeys from leaving a country of origin a country of asylum and finally starting a new life in Aotearoa New Zealand The personal accounts will improve readers general knowledge and understanding of the resettlement journey It creates an awareness that can lead to more positive settlement and integration outcomes for resettled people New residents Resettled people are not asking for a special privilege they want to be treated like any other New Zealander and to be respected as human beings The storybook publishing is an aim to create self reconciliation via active participation for new residents resettled migrants of Aotearoa New Zealand opening cultural and economic contribution to their new home It is also to fill the public and service providers knowledge gap to support the healing process by building confidence to adapt to new home culture and enlightenment of recovery and resilience from historical trauma The storybook offers to listen to participants collective voices and respect their priorities with recognition of individual opinions that laminate the mission of guilt and ongoing trauma Understanding Mental Health and Counselling Naomi Moller, Andreas Vossler, David W Jones, David Kaposi, 2020-08-24 Understanding Mental Health and Counselling provides a critical introduction to key debates about how problems of mental health are understood and to the core approaches taken to working with counselling and psychotherapy clients In drawing out the differences and intersections between professional and social understandings of mental health and counselling theory and practice the book fosters critical thinking about effective and ethical work with mental health service users and therapy clients With chapters by noted academic writers and service user researchers and content enlivened by activities first person accounts and case material the book provides a key resource for both counselling and psychotherapy trainees and those interested in the broader field of mental health
