criticize white society revealing its past and present injustices their emphasis Ruppert argues is on healing survival and continuance Their fiction aims to produce cross cultural understanding rather than divisiveness To that end they articulate the perspectives and values of competing world views In particular they create characters who manifest what Ruppert calls multiple identities determined by both Native and non Native perceptions of the self These writers use a variety of narrative techniques deriving from different cultural traditions They might incorporate Native oral storytelling techniques adapting them to written form or they might reconstruct Native mythologies investing them with new meaning and relevance by applying them to contemporary situations As novel writers they also include features more characteristic of western European writing such as the omniscient narrator or the detective story plot
