The (Almost) Complete Hitchhiker in Time Shawn M. Tomlinson,2015-11-07 The Hitchhiker in Time columns were the single most popular things ever written by Shawn M Tomlinson which honestly doesn't say all that much. All together they appeared in fewer than 10 newspapers between 1988 and 2001. Well, multiple copies of those newspapers, of course. The highest circulation was approximately 40,000, so not exactly Bob Greene levels. Still, Tomlinson had a following with these columns, and to a great extent they hold up well today. Either that, or Tomlinson would like to think so. Many of these columns appeared in chapbooks over the years, but this is the first full collection of them to be in print. New York Magazine

Along the way, it unearths underreported stories and illuminating minutiae often skimmed over or completely ignored in other histories of the legendary film series. Highlights include details about the Star Wars Holiday Special debacle, the Ewok TV movies, the rise of Star Wars fiction, and its importance in the revival of the franchise and the wave of Star Wars imitators and parodies that flooded theaters and TV screens in the late 1970s and early 1980s, along with dozens of rare publicity stills and photographs of vintage memorabilia. Offering an original analysis of the series' enduring appeal and cultural impact, Star Wars FAQ tells a story as thrilling and action-packed as the movies themselves, with bold characters facing apparently insurmountable odds, full of frantic chases, narrow escapes, daring victories, and tragic setbacks, culminating in an unlikely triumph that changed the course of the galaxy or at least of Hollywood. New York Magazine, 1994-11-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. From comic book universes crowded with soaring superheroes and shattering skyscrapers to cosmic empires set in far off galaxies today's fantasy blockbusters depend on visual effects. Bringing science fiction from the studio to your screen through film, television, or video games, these special effects power our entertainment industry. More Than Meets the Eye delves into the world of fantastic media franchises to trace the ways in which special effects over the last 50 years have become central not just to transmedia storytelling but to worldbuilding, performance, and genre in contemporary blockbuster entertainment. More Than Meets the Eye maps the ways in which special effects build consistent storyworlds and transform genres while traveling from one media platform to the next. Examining high profile franchises in which special effects have played a constitutive role such as Star Trek, Star Wars, The Matrix, and The Lord of the Rings as well as more contemporary franchises like Pirates of the Caribbean and Harry Potter, Bob Rehak analyzes the ways in which production practices developed alongside the cultural work of industry professionals. By studying social and cultural factors such as fan interaction, this book provides a context for understanding just how much multiplatform storytelling has come to define these megahit franchises. More Than Meets the Eye explores the larger history of how physical and optical effects in postwar Hollywood laid the foundation for modern transmedia franchises and argues that special effects are not simply an adjunct to blockbuster filmmaking but central agents of an entire mode of production.

Fiasco James Robert Parish, 2008-05-02 A longtime industry insider and acclaimed Hollywood historian goes behind the scenes to tell the stories of 15 of the most spectacular movie megaflops of the past 50 years such as Cleopatra, The Cotton Club, and Waterworld. He recounts in every gory detail how enormous hubris, unbridled ambition, artistic hauteur, and bad business sense on the parts of Tinseltown wheeler-dealers and superstars such as Elizabeth Taylor, Clint Eastwood, and Francis Ford Coppola conspired to engender some of the worst films ever.

George Lucas Charles Champlin, 1997 Over the past 25 years, George Lucas has been responsible for some of the most successful films made, for example Indiana Jones and Star Wars. In recognition of his abilities, he was awarded the Irving Thalberg Award for Lifetime Achievement by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts in 1992. This book aims to examine and illustrate all the films Lucas has made and all of the other projects he has been involved in. It looks at Industrial Light and Magic, his special effects company responsible for such films as ET and Terminator II Lucasfilm and LucasArts two companies funded by profits from his work which are dedicated to technical advances in projects as diverse as sound editing and theme park rides Behind the scenes photographs are also included
