The Heavy Bomber Offensive of WWII
Martin W. Bowman, 2015-05-31 This book contains fourteen stirring accounts each conveying an authentic sense of what it was really like to fly as a member of air crew during the various bombing operations of the Second World War The storytellers are an eclectic mix of pilots navigators bomb aimers wireless operators and gunners who flew on operations in heavy bombers It conveys the terror of being coned by German searchlights over the target attacks by Luftwaffe night fighters often catastrophic damage to aircraft and the ensuing struggle to keep the machine airborne on the return trip to base It tells of the comradeship between the crew and the humour between them often borne of fear The gentle and unassuming narratives include Millennium One of Our Aircraft Is Missing Bomber s Moon Bombing Berlin The Ordeal Of Pilot Officer Romans DFC Last Man Out operations on Whitleys and Halifaxes Flying Officer X Stirlings Rescue At Sea The Incendiary Load s Alight The Night Of The Bombs and The Kassel Raids of 1943 as well as BBC Broadcasts and stories by Allied war correspondents Each of these accounts conveys the sense of purpose that these men felt in doing one of the most dangerous jobs of the war It is a fitting tribute to those that survived and the many thousands who died in the struggle against Hitler s dreadful ambitions in Europe

A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945 Christopher Shores, Russell Guest, 2025-09-30 In 1943 Allied bombers from Italy launched strategic attacks on Axis oil fields factories and Danube supply routes Following the inter Allied Casablanca Conference in January 1943 the outline for the Combined Bomber Offensive was agreed and resulted in early February with the Casablanca Directive This required the progressive destruction and dislocation of the German military industrial and economic systems and the undermining of the morale of the German people to a point where their capacity for armed resistance is fatally weakened This directive was clarified in June when the Combined Chiefs of Staff issued the Pointblank Directive that stated that the highest priority targets were the fighter aircraft factories to ensure that in the coming invasion of France the enemy would not have air superiority When these directives were issued it was envisaged that as well as attacks by RAF Bomber Command and the US 8th Air Force based in England the strategic bomber forces in Italy would begin operations once suitable bases were available After the Allied landings in Italy and resulting collapse of the Italian fascist regime a network of bomber bases was hastily developed Thus on 1 November 1943 the US 15th Air Force was formed to conduct the daylight bombing offensive against strategic targets in southern Germany and across southeastern Europe Key among these were the Rumanian oilfields and traffic along the River Danube This new formation was joined by the smaller but highly effective 205 Group RAF that was trained and equipped for night bombing so mirroring their equivalent British based formations The damaging attacks on the Reich s oil supplies and the highly effective Danube mining campaign conducted at night by 205 Group delivered huge strategic effect The latter reduced vital oil and goods traffic into the Reich to a trickle but also dislocated the supply and logistics train into the southern part of the Eastern Front so giving manifest support to the Soviets In this volume the early months of this hugely significant air campaign are described in minute and original detail and are accompanied by hundreds of hitherto unpublished photographs In combating these attacks Germany's Axis allies such as Hungary Rumania Bulgaria and Slovakia were encountered for the first time by the Western Allies

Air Power and the Evacuation of Dunkirk Harry Raffal, 2021-07-15 The evacuation of Dunkirk has been immortalised in books prints and films narrated as a story of an outnumbered inexperienced RAF defeating the battle hardened Luftwaffe and protecting the evacuation This book revives the historiography by analysing the air operations during the evacuation Raffal draws from German and English sources many for the first time in the context of Operation DYNAMO to argue that both sides suffered a defeat over Dunkirk This work examines the resources and tactics of both sides during DYNAMO and challenges the traditional view that the Luftwaffe held the advantage The success that the Luftwaffe achieved during DYNAMO including halting daylight evacuations on 1 June is evaluated and the supporting role of RAF Bomber and Coastal Command is explored in detail for the first time Concluding that the RAF was not responsible for the Luftwaffe's failure to prevent the evacuation Raffal demonstrates that the reasons lay elsewhere
