Raft Of Zaire:

AF Press Clips ,1984 Die Walking Obadiah M.,2021-10-05 An unforgettable first person account of surviving the Rwandan genocide and its aftermath Featuring a foreword by Globe and Mail Africa Bureau Chief Geoffrey York In 1994 Obadiah was the thirteen year old son of a Hutu pastor living comfortably in Rwanda and dreaming of becoming a pilot when violence and bloodshed began to engulf the country His family soon fled their home pursued by soldiers and stalked by death and hunger As the genocide led into a horrific war Obadiah was forced to survive unrelenting terror and the darkest despair as a refugee both in neighbouring Zaire and eventually in the American refugee detention system Obadiah was sustained through these horrors by his faith and the philosophy of ubuntu finding one s self through connection with others In the spirit of Night by Elie Wiesel Die Walking is one boy s horrific story of shared humanity in a chaotic world AF Press Clips

United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs,1982 Trading on Sentiment Richard L. Peterson,2016-03-04 In his debut book on trading psychology Inside the Investor s Brain Richard Peterson demonstrated how managing emotions helps top investors outperform Now in Trading on Sentiment he takes you inside the science of crowd psychology and demonstrates that not only do price patterns exist but the most predictable ones are rooted in our shared human nature Peterson s team developed text analysis engines to mine data topics beliefs and emotions from social media Based on that data they put together a market neutral social media based hedge fund that beat the S P 500 by more than twenty four percent through the 2008 financial crisis In this groundbreaking guide he shows you how they did it and why it worked Applying algorithms to social media data opened up an unprecedented world of insight into the elusive patterns of investor sentiment driving repeating market moves Inside you gain a privileged look at the media content that moves investors along with time tested techniques to make the smart moves even when it doesn t feel right This book digs underneath technicals and fundamentals to explain the primary mover of market prices the global information flow and how investors react to it It provides the expert guidance you need to develop a competitive edge manage risk and overcome our sometimes flawed human nature Learn how traders are using sentiment analysis and statistical tools to extract value from media data in order to Foresee important price moves using an understanding of how investors process news Make more profitable investment decisions by identifying when prices are trending when trends are turning and when sharp market moves are likely to reverse Use media sentiment to improve value and momentum investing returns Avoid the pitfalls of unique price patterns found in commodities currencies and during speculative bubbles Trading on Sentiment deepens your understanding of markets and supplies you with the tools and techniques to beat global markets whether they re going up down or sideways Human Rights Standards Makau Mutua,2016-01-14 How are human rights norms made who makes them and why In Human Rights Standards Makau Mutua traces the history of the human rights project and critically explores how the norms of the human rights movement have been created Examining key texts and documents published since the inception of the human rights movement at the end of World War II he crafts a bracing critique of these works from the hitherto underutilized perspective of the Global South Attention is focused on the deficits of the international order and how that order which is defined by multiple asymmetries defines human rights in a manner that exhibits normative gaps and cultural biases Mutua identifies areas of further norm development and concludes that norm creating processes must be inclusive and participatory to garner legitimacy across various cleavages and divides The result is the first truly comprehensive critical look at the making of human rights norms and standards and as such will be an invaluable resource for students scholars activists and policymakers interested in this important topic This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to Knowledge Unlatched an initiative that provides libraries and institutions with a centralized platform to support OA collections and from leading publishing houses and OA initiatives Learn more at the Knowledge Unlatched website at <https://www.knowledgeunlatched.org> and access the book online at the SUNY Open Access Repository at <http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12648/7133>

Liv to Tell Mish Mockovic Martin,2020-03-18 Liv once expected her life to be quiet and unremarkable especially as a resident of a small country town in rural Australia She was wrong Following a failed relationship and the loss of her father Liv's decision to travel is easy She seeks adventure and finds it extending across four continents She lives life to the edge and ends up meeting Margaret Thatcher in London and being detained against her will in Namibia With a story worth telling her lifelong friend agrees to turn Liv's words into a thrilling narrative but he might have an ulterior motive as Liv finds more trouble than she wants in the form of romance Liv uncovers a world of betrayal shrouded in lies that change her life and jeopardize her future Her adventures continue but is the man at her side destined to be her lover or is there more to him than meets the eye

Viral Hemorrhagic Fevers Sunit K. Singh, Daniel Ruzek, 2016-04-19 Viral hemorrhagic fevers have captured the imagination of the public and made their way into popular books and movies by virtue of their extreme virulence and mysterious origins Since 2001 concerns have grown about the potential use of many hemorrhagic fever viruses as biological weapons This has led to a resurgence in research to develop improv

Negotiating Public Services in the Congo Tom De Herdt, Kristof Titeca, 2019-06-15 The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC has been widely derided as a failed state unable to meet the basic needs of its citizens But while state infrastructure continues to decay many essential services continue to be provided at the local level often through grassroots initiatives So while for example state funding for education is almost non-existent average school enrolment remains well above average for Sub-Saharan Africa This book addresses this paradox bringing together key scholars working on public services in the DRC to elucidate the evolving nature of governance in developing countries Its contributions encompass a wide range of public services including education justice transport and health Taking stock of what functions and why it contributes to the debate on public services in the context of real or hybrid governance beyond the state does the state still have a function or is it no longer useful and relevant Crucially how does international aid help or complicate this picture Rich in empirical detail the contributors provide a valuable work for students and scholars interested in the role played by non-state actors in organizing statehood a role too often neglected in debates on post-conflict reconstruction
