Nadine Gordimer,2011-11-07 Throughout her career the internationally renowned South African writer Nadine Gordimer has built a literary reputation with her incisive short stories as much as with her acclaimed novels Together with her essays this highly imaginative and committed body of work won her the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1991 In the opinion of the Academy Through her magnificent epic writing she has in the words of Alfred Nobel been of very great benefit to humanity Gordimer has said that while novelists take the reader by the hand developing a consistency of relationship that does not and cannot convey the quality of human life where contact is more like the flash of fireflies in and out now here now there in darkness Short story writers see by the light of the flash theirs is the only thing one can be sure of the present moment Now for the first time the best of her stories are published in one volume Loot

Nadine Gordimer,2003-04-02 Masterly new fiction from the recipient of the Nobel Prize in Literature A startling new work ten fictions each a revelation of our interior lives each entering unforeseen contexts of our contemporary world In the title story an earthquake exposes both an ocean bed strewn with treasure among the dead and the avarice of the town s survivors In The Diamond Mine a woman recalls her youthful surreptitious sexual initiation while she and her parents chauffeured a young soldier to his wartime embarkation The anopheles mosquito brings death to the saunas and other playgrounds of the developed world in The Emissary Mission Statement is the story of a development agency official's idealism, the ghosts of colonial history and a love affair with a government official that ends astoundingly. The Generation Gap turns the gap upside down when a father's bid for freedom shocks his adult children. In Homage, one of Europe's aliens visits the grave of the politician he was paid to assassinate. In Karma, Gordimer's inventiveness knows no bounds in five returns to the earthly life, taking on different ages and genders. A disembodied narrator testifies to unfinished business critically, wittily, and questions the nature of existence.
