Redesigning English Sharon Goodman, David Graddol, 1996 The rapid development of communications technology is transforming the manner in which people communicate across time and space In this book the authors examine the ways in which the English language has adapted to new media An Intercultural Approach to English Language Teaching John Corbett, 2003-11-11 Intercultural language education has redefined the modern languages agenda in Europe and North America Now intercultural learning is also beginning to impact on English Language Teaching This accessible book introduces teachers of EFL to intercultural language education by describing its history and theoretical principles and by giving examples of classroom tasks Speaking Out of Turn Stephanie Sparling Williams, 2021-08-24 Speaking Out of Turn is the first monograph dedicated to the forty year oeuvre of feminist conceptual artist Lorraine O Grady Examining O Grady s use of language both written and spoken Stephanie Sparling Williams charts the artist s strategic use of direct address the dialectic posture her art takes in relationship to its viewers to trouble the field of vision and claim a voice in the late 1970s through the 1990s when her voice was seen as out of turn in the art world Speaking Out of Turn situates O Grady s significant contributions within the history of American conceptualism and performance art while also attending to the work s heightened visibility in the contemporary moment revealing both the marginalization of O Grady in the past and an urgent need to revisit her art in the present Stylistic Use of Phraseological Units in Discourse Anita Naciscione, 2010 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session The English Studies Book Rob Pope, 2005-10-05 The English Studies Book is uniquely designed to support students and teachers working across the full range of language literature and culture Combining the functions of study guide critical dictionary and text anthology it has rapidly established itself as a core text on a wide variety of degree programmes nationally and internationally Revised and updated throughout features of the second edition include a new prologue addressing changes and challenges in English Studies substantial entries on over 100 key critical and theoretical terms from absence and author to text and versification with new entries on creative writing travel writing and translation practical introductions to all the major theoretical approaches with new sections on aesthetics ethics ecology and sexuality a rich anthology of literary and related texts from Anglo Saxon to Afro Caribbean with fresh selections representing the sonnet haiku slave narratives and science fiction and with additional texts by Elizabeth Barrett Browning Charles Darwin Ian McEwan Margaret Atwood Amy Tan and others handy frameworks and checklists for close reading research essay writing and other textual activities including use of the Internet English David Graddol, Dick Leith, Joan Swann, 2024-11-01 The story of English is often presented as one of progress from a set of Germanic dialects to a fully fledged national and international language The emphasis in this book is on the diversity of English throughout its history and the changing social meanings of different varieties of English Words and Minds Neil Mercer,2002-05-03 Words and Minds takes a lively and accessible look at how we use language to combine our mental resources and get things done Examining everyday language and drawing on a wide range of research but always with a light style Neil Mercer provides a unified account of the relationship between thought and language Mercer analyses real life examples of language being used effectively or otherwise in many different settings including workplaces and schools the home the internet and the courtroom and offers practical insights into how we might improve our communication skills Words and Minds will appeal to anyone interested in language and the psychology of everyday life English Media Texts □ Past and Present Friedrich Ungerer,2000-12-04 This book is among the first to combine a historical view of media texts with a critical look at their textual diversity today The thirteen chapters cover corpora of early news papers and pamphlets present day news stories and commentaries TV talk shows and commercials as well as internet presentations The studies focus on the wide range of text types in 18th century newspapers and the interpersonal strategies of pamphlets they pursue the development of the persuasive potential of headlines and advertisements right down to the sophisticated postmodernist and multilingual examples of today Other topics are the definition and structure of news stories and commentaries the interpersonal and multi modal aspects of talkshows and more radically the questioning of the journalist s role in the age of the internet Generally the stress is on the attention getting side of media texts rather than on the manipulative qualities investigated by critical discourse analysis
