Reflections Nigerian Prose Verse:

Literature and Language Teaching Gillian Lazar, 1993-01-28 Literature and Language Teaching is for teachers and trainers who want to incorporate literature into the language classroom The book can be used as a resource by trainers working with groups of teachers by teacher development groups or by teachers working on their own Literature and Language Teaching contains tasks and activities which encourage reflection on some of the issues and debates involved in using literature in the language classroom explore different approaches to using literature with teenage and adult learners at all levels suggest criteria for selecting and evaluating materials for classroom use identify some of the distinctive features of novels short stories poems and plays so that these can be successfully exploited in the classroom provide a wide range of practical ideas and activities for developing materials which teachers can use with their own learners encourage the observation and assessment of lessons using literacy texts draw on literary texts in English by a variety of authors from all over the world Each section of the book is designed to be self contained so that users of the book can select what is most relevant to their purpose A key to the tasks and activities is provided as well as guidelines for teacher trainers which suggest different ways of using the activities in the book as part of a training programme Reflections F. Ademola, 1962

Conversations with Wole Soyinka Wole Soyinka, 2001 Within these interviews Soyinka is forthright clear and eloquent He addresses many facets of his writing and plumbs pressing issues of culture society and community Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Terranglia Joseph Jones, 1966 Poetry, Print, and the Making of Postcolonial Literature Nathan Suhr-Sytsma, 2017-07-10 Poetry Print and the Making of Postcolonial Literature reveals an intriguing history of relationships among poets and editors from Ireland and Nigeria as well as Britain and the Caribbean during the mid twentieth century era of decolonization The book explores what such leading anglophone poets as Seamus Heaney Christopher Okigbo and Derek Walcott had in common peripheral origins and a desire to address transnational publics without expatriating themselves The book reconstructs how they gained the imprimatur of both local and London based cultural institutions It shows furthermore how political crises challenged them to reconsider their poetry s publics Making substantial use of unpublished archival material Nathan Suhr Sytsma examines poems in print often the pages on which they first appeared in order to chart the transformation of the anglophone literary world He argues that these poets achievements cannot be extricated from the transnational networks through which their poems circulated and which they in turn remade Modern African Poetry and the African Predicament Romanus N. Egudu, 1978-10-12 A Poetry Course for K.C.S.E. , Reflections; Nigerian Prose & Verse Frances Ademola (ed),
