Creating a Culture of Support for Teacher Leaders Rosemary Gornik, Wendy L. Samford, 2018-02-09 Within the pages of this book you will meet six K 12 practicing public school administrators and two university instructors who give concise study and practice guidance on two aims 1 to build the awareness and capabilities to become a lead professional for democratic ways of living and 2 to develop the school culture needed to support this teacher leadership Teacher leadership is not in addition to the many initiatives administrators face each day Rather you will read stories about teacher leadership incorporated into the initiatives that already exist By distributing leadership administrators organically utilize the gifts and talents that individual teachers already possess defying prescribed roles and specific job descriptions A key feature in this text is its problem solving orientation and the interplay among teaching learning leading research that raises critical questions for professionals ready to understand the nuances of educational growth in societies with democratic ideals In spite of the political demands for efficiency and accountability six administrators worked with teacher leaders in different contexts to develop and exercise the wisdom which honors the democratic ideals upon which our society was built Democratic Curriculum Leadership

James G. Henderson, Daniel J. Castner, Jennifer L. Schneider, 2018-03-06 This book provides educators with guidance on studying and practicing a curriculum problem solving artistry that is focused on deepening students subject matter understandings through democratic self and social understandings The book begins with a discussion of seven principles of curriculum leadership which provide a framework for the presentation of a theoretical platform that guides a four phased process The curriculum problem solving has four interrelated phases and advice on studying and practicing each phase has been organized into separate chapters using a montage format incorporating inquiry prompts supportive quotations critical commentaries practical tips narrative illustrations and study recommendations There is a continuous recognition of the ways in which the four phases are folded into one another in highly interactive ways hence the problem solving approach is described as a fourfold process The text concludes with an epilogue honoring the disciplined journey of understanding and the pursuit of professional virtues that are central to the cultivation of problem solving artistry An ethical oath that was created by twenty Ohio teacher leaders serves as a collegial pledge to embrace this disciplinary commitment

Anti-Authoritarian Curriculum Practice Daniel J. Castner, Jennifer L. Schneider, James G. Henderson, 2025-07-10 Drawing upon curriculum studies and utilizing curricular concepts this book provides a framework for teachers interested in imagining enacting and reflecting upon their daily practices in ways that defy the standardization and bureaucratic management of curriculum and instruction and responds to the needs and interests of their local contexts Although the specific experiences of teachers can vary significantly based on factors such as location district policies and community dynamics the current socio political landscape surrounding educational institutions from pre K through higher education de professionalizes educators Instead of providing an ideological critique of this state of affairs this book provides practitioners with a pragmatic framework that empowers them to critically and creatively engage curriculum in ways that are meaningful within their particular contexts Tep Vol 22-N2 Teacher Education and Practice, 2010-08-16 Teacher Education and Practice a peer refereed journal is dedicated to the encouragement and the dissemination of research and scholarship related to professional education The journal is concerned in the broadest sense with teacher preparation practice and policy issues related to the teaching profession as well as being concerned with learning in the school setting The journal also serves as a forum for the exchange of diverse ideas and points of view within these purposes As a forum the journal offers a public space in which to critically examine current discourse and practice as well as engage in generative dialogue Alternative forms of inquiry and representation are invited and authors from a variety of backgrounds and diverse perspectives are encouraged to contribute Teacher Education Practice is published by Rowman Littlefield Current Perspectives on the TESOL Practicum
Andrzej Cirocki, Irshat Madyarov, Laura Baecher, 2020-01-30 This volume presents the current state of the TESOL Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages practicum in 13 countries including Armenia Australia Chile Costa Rica Croatia

England Indonesia Japan Malta Poland South Korea Sweden and the USA Together the contributions offer a unique and contemporary view of how teachers are being educated and brought into the TESOL worldwide community of practice This is the first publication to present diverse models frameworks of the TESOL practicum from several international teaching contexts focusing on exemplary practicum cases in the selected countries IAENG Transactions on Engineering Technologies Haeng Kon Kim,Sio-Iong Ao,Mahyar A.
