Regarde Regarde Les Lions:

Comparative Literature in Canada Susan Ingram,Irene Sywenky,2019-11-05 This timely volume takes stock of the discipline of comparative literature and its theory and practice from a Canadian perspective It engages with the most pressing critical issues at the intersection of comparative literature and other areas of inquiry in the context of scholarship pedagogy and academic publishing bilingualism and multilingualism Indigeneity multiple canons literary and other the relationship between print culture and other media the development of information studies concerted efforts in digitization and the future of the production and dissemination of knowledge The authors offer an analysis of the current state of Canadian comparative literature with a dual focus on the issues of multilingualism in Canada s sociopolitical and cultural context and Canada s geographical location within the Americas It also discusses ways in which contemporary technology is influencing the way that Canadian literature is taught produced and disseminated and how this affects its readings The Black Atlantic Reconsidered Winfried Siemerling,2015-05-01 A survey of English and French black Canadian writing and its transnational connections from the eighteenth century to the present How Far is America from Here? International American Studies Association. World Congress,2005 Main headings American studies from an international American studies perspective International transnational hemispheric America American social ethical and religious mentalities Comparative perspectives literary counterpoints American identities Space and place in American studies OK! Megamag Sue Finnie,Danièle Bourdais,2002-05-15 OK Megamag is a series of ten cross curricular magazine style workbooks aimed at less able pupils at secondary school level including those with a statement of special educational needs Because of its flexibility it can also be used with younger learners It is suitable for pupils who are beginning to study French or who may have some previous experience but would benefit from a fresh start in order to build confidence There are opportunities for listening speaking reading and writing with plenty of activities suitable for pupils who are not good readers writers It can be used to supplement any main course or as a framework for a programme of study Contested Spaces, Counter-Narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada Roxanne Rimstead,Domenico A. Beneventi,2019-02-28 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Quebec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Quebecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space France and the Americas Bill Marshall, 2005-05-24 A unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the impacts that French and American politics foreign policy and culture have had on shaping each country's identity From 17th century fur traders in Canada to 21st century peacekeepers in Haiti from France's decisive role in the Revolutionary War leading to the creation of the United States to recent disagreements over Iraq France and the Americas charts the history of the inextricable links between France and the nations of the Americas This comprehensive survey features an incisive introduction and a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of France's transatlantic relations Students of many disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this comprehensive survey which traces the common themes of both French policy language and influence throughout the Americas and the wide ranging transatlantic influences on contemporary France Translating Pain Madelaine Hron, 2010-10-23 In the post Cold War post 9 11 era the immigrant experience has changed dramatically Despite the recent successes of immigrant and world literatures there has been little scholarship on how the hardships of immigration are conveyed in immigrant narratives Translating Pain fills this gap by examining literature from Muslim North Africa the Caribbean and Eastern Europe to reveal the representation of immigrant suffering in fiction Applying immigrant psychology to literary analysis Madelaine Hron examines the ways in which different forms of physical and psychological pain are expressed in a wide variety of texts She juxtaposes post colonial and post communist concerns about immigration and contrasts Muslim world views with those of Caribbean creolite and post Cold War ethics Demonstrating how pain is translated into literature she explores the ways in which it also shapes narrative culture history and politics A compelling and accessible study Translating Pain is a groundbreaking work of literary and postcolonial studies Exile and Post-1946 Haitian Literature Martin Munro, 2013-08-15 Exile and Post 1946 Haitian Literature provides readers with an excellent introduction to recent Haitian literature one of the richest literary traditions in the Americas Martin Munro focuses on works written after 1946 a period in which exile has become the dominant theme in Haitian literature Using this notion of Haitian writing as a literature of exile Munro analyzes key novels by the most important figures of each generation of the past sixty years including Jacques Stephen Alexis Ren Depestre mile Ollivier Dany Laferriere and Edwidge Danticat On Migration Cornelia Sieber, Alfonso de Toro, 2020-11-17 This volume is based on the section Transnationalities Transidentities Hybridities Diasporization organized by the Ibero American and Francophone Research Centres of the University of Leipzig as part of the First Annual Conference of the Centre for Area Studies at the University of Leipzig By now already a decade has passed since our conference section took place and it is due to various circumstances that this volume has not been
