Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature The Story of Tönle Mario Rigoni Stern, 1998 Mario Rigoni Stern was born in 1921 in Asiago in the mountains of northeastern Italy Throughout his literary career he has remained deeply attached to the region of his birth its peasant customs its dialect its seasonal cycles and shifting historical fortunes Tonle Bintern's story takes place in the mountains of the Veneto region which once bordered the Austro Hungarian Empire and where smuggling was a means of subsistence for the peasant population Having run afoul of a patrol of revenue agents Tonle must seek refuge beyond the frontier in Central Europe where year after year he lives by doing odd jobs and working among other things as an itinerant print peddler a horse trainer in Hungary and a gardener in a Prague castle But every winter he returns secretly to his home and family until finally a pardon is granted By now his children are grown and he has little to do but tend his sheep Meanwhile the times are changing social values are disintegrating under the impact of modernization and Europe moves ever closer to disaster During the devastation of the First World War the occupation and ultimate destruction of his village and his own internment in an Austrian camp it is Tonle's loyalty to his roots and his stubborn devotion to his task as a shepherd that persist and make him a quiet symbol of heroism and human endurance The Trojan Horse and Other Stories Julia Kindt,2024-01-11 What makes us human What if anything sets us apart from all other creatures Ever since Charles Darwin s theory of evolution the answer to these questions has pointed to our own intrinsic animal nature Yet the idea that in one way or another our humanity is entangled with the non human has a much longer and more venerable history In the West it goes all the way back to classical antiquity This grippingly written and provocative book boldly reveals how the ancient world mobilised concepts of the animal and animality to conceive of the human in a variety of illuminating ways Through ten stories about marvelous mythical beings from the Trojan Horse to the Cyclops and from Androcles lion to the Minotaur Julia Kindt unlocks fresh ways of thinking about humanity that extend from antiquity to the present and that ultimately challenge our understanding of who we really are disorienting feelings of the present In the wake of recent presidential elections in the United States and in the Philippines Gloria s latest collection sharpens his obsession with arrivals and departures gun violence displacement cultural legacy and the bitter divisions in America Through the voice of Nacirema the central persona of the collection we are introduced to a character who chooses mystery and inhabits landscapes fraught with beauty and brutality Gloria quotes melodies from seventies soul and jazz blending the urban lament of Thelonious Monk and John Coltrane with the idiom of Stevie Wonder and Fela Kuti Sightseer in this Killing City is an argument for grace and perseverance in an era of bombast and bullies
