Roots Of A Revolution Scenes From Zimbabwes Struggle:

Zimbabwe, a Country Study United States. Department of the Army, 1983 Roots of a Revolution Ndabaningi Sithole, 1977 Jimmy Carter in Africa Nancy Mitchell, 2023-05-25 By a wide margin the best book about Carter's presidency that's yet appeared Christian Science Monitor In the mid 1970s the Cold War had frozen into a nuclear stalemate in Europe and retreated from the headlines in Asia As Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter fought for the presidency in late 1976 the superpower struggle overseas seemed to take a backseat to more contentious domestic issues of race relations and rising unemployment There was one continent however where the Cold War was on the point of flaring hot Africa Jimmy Carter in Africa opens just after Henry Kissinger's failed 1975 plot in Angola as Carter launches his presidential campaign The Civil Rights Act was only a decade old and issues of racial justice remained contentious Racism at home undermined Americans efforts to win hearts and minds abroad and provided potent propaganda to the Kremlin As President Carter confronted Africa the essence of American foreign policy stopping Soviet expansion slammed up against the most explosive and raw aspect of American domestic politics racism Drawing on candid interviews with Carter as well as key U S and foreign diplomats and on a dazzling array of international archival sources Nancy Mitchell offers a timely reevaluation of the Carter administration and of the man himself In the face of two major tests in Rhodesia and the Horn of Africa Carter grappled with questions of Cold War competition domestic politics personal loyalty and decision making style Mitchell reveals an administration not beset by weakness and indecision as is too commonly assumed but rather constrained by Cold War dynamics and by the president's own temperament as he wrestled with a divided public and his own human failings Jimmy Carter in Africa presents a stark portrait of how deeply Cold War politics and racial justice were intertwined An impressive historical work in every respect Choice Her writing flows and she places Carter's Africa policy within the larger context of US foreign policy and politics International Journal Signs of the Spirit Tony Perman, 2020-06-08 In 2005 Tony Perman attended a ceremony alongside the living and the dead His visit to a Zimbabwe farm brought him into contact with the madhlozi outsider spirits that Ndaupople rely upon for guidance protection and their collective prosperity Perman's encounters with the spirits the mediums who bring them back and the accompanying rituals form the heart of his ethnographic account of how the Ndaupople experience ceremonial musicking As Perman witnessed other ceremonies he discovered that music and dancing shape the emotional lives of Ndaupople individuals by inviting them to experience life's milestones or cope with its misfortunes as a group Signs of the Spirit explores the historical spiritual and social roots of ceremonial action and details how that action influences the Ndaupople's collective approach to their future The result is a vivid ethnomusicological journey that delves into the immediacy of musical experience and the forces that transform ceremonial performance into emotions and community These Bones Will Rise Again Panashe Chigumadzi, 2018-06-14 What are the right questions to ask when seeking out the spirit of a nation In November 2017 the people of Zimbabwe took to the streets in an unprecedented alliance with the military Their goal to restore the legacy of Chimurenga the liberation struggle and wrest their country back from more than 30 years of Robert Mugabe's rule In an essay that combines bold reportage memoir and critical analysis Zimbabwean novelist and journalist Panashe Chigumadzi reflects on the coup that was not a coup the telling of history and manipulation of time and the ancestral spirits of two women her own grandmother and Mbuya Nehanda the grandmother of the nation Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture Robert Muponde, Ranka Primorac, 2005-06-15 The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing The contributors focus on pluralities inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice A Companion to African Literatures Olakunle George, 2021-03-22 Rediscover the diversity of modern African literatures with this authoritative resource edited by a leader in the field How have African literatures unfolded in their rich diversity in our modern era of decolonization nationalisms and extensive transnational movement of peoples How have African writers engaged urgent questions regarding race nation ethnicity gender and sexuality And how do African literary genres interrelate with traditional oral forms or audio visual and digital media A Companion to African Literatures addresses these issues and many more Consisting of essays by distinguished scholars and emerging leaders in the field this book offers rigorous deeply engaging discussions of African literatures on the continent and in diaspora It covers the four main geographical regions East and Central Africa North Africa Southern Africa and West Africa presenting ample material to learn from and think with A Companion To African Literatures is divided into five parts The first four cover different regions of the continent while the fifth part considers conceptual issues and newer directions of inquiry Chapters focus on literatures in European languages officially used in Africa English French and Portuguese as well as homegrown African languages Afrikaans Amharic Arabic Swahili and Yoruba With its lineup of lucid and authoritative analyses readers will find in A Companion to African Literatures a distinctive rewarding academic resource Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students in literary studies programs with an African focus A Companion to African Literatures will also earn a place in the libraries of teachers researchers and professors who wish to strengthen their background in the study of African literatures

Methodists and their Missionary Societies 1900-1996 John Pritchard, 2016-04-22 The twentieth century saw the spectacular growth of Christianity in much of the global south the transformation of mission fields into self governing Churches schemes of church union some successful others abortive evolving attitudes to other faiths and significant Christian engagement with issues of racial justice and world poverty This book examines the contribution of the Methodist Missionary Society and its predecessors before 1932 to these world changing movements from the remarkable mass conversions in south west China and west Africa early in the century to the controversy over grants to liberation movements in the 1970s and 1980s Pritchard traces the MMS contribution to education health care rural development and social welfare and describes the administration of the Societies and the selection and preparation of candidates for missionary service This is a ground breaking study of Methodist Overseas Mission in the twentieth century how it adjusted to changing circumstances including the forced withdrawals from China and Burma and developed new initiatives and partnerships including its World Church in Britain programme which brought missionaries from the younger Churches to serve in Britain and Ireland

The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008
Columbia's guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent's rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors' heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development

Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English, 2021-11-01 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English brings together the proceedings of a symposium organised by the editors at the University of Trento in 1990 At a time when the study of the post colonial literatures is gaining more widespread recognition scholars based mainly at universities in Italy and Germany were invited to address the manner in which writers are giving literary expression to the complexity of contemporary post colonial and multicultural societies and to consider from their differing perspectives on the new literatures central questions of formal experimentation linguistic innovation social and political commitment textual theory and cross culturality Focusing on such major writers such as Achebe Soyinka and Walcott as well as on lesser known figures such as Jack Davis Witi Ihimaera Rohinton Mistry and Manohar Malgonkar the contributors take up many themes characteristic of the new literatures the challenge posed to traditional authority the expression of national identity the role of literature in the liberation struggle modes of literary practice in multicultural societies the relationship of the new literatures in English to that of the former metropolitan centre and the complex intertextuality characterizing much of the literary production of post colonial societies

Politics in Africa Dennis Austin, 1978 The Last British Liberals in Africa Dickson Mungazi, 1999-05-30 A study of the clash of two traditions British liberalism and African nationalism and an examination of how Michael Blundell in Kenya and Garfield Todd in Zimbabwe used their liberal backgrounds to further the future of their adopted countries despite threats and detention Both Blundell and Todd believed that political leaders had a responsibility to serve the needs of the people as a condition of national development By the time each came to power European colonization had had a profoundly negative effect on the lives of Africans Blundell and Todd sought to correct this by putting their positive views of Africans into practice While colonial governments designed strategies for controlling Africans to serve political and economic interests at home in Europe Africans themselves established their own effective strategy not only to ensure their survival in the colonial setting but also to initiate a process for the restoration of their sense of self Michael Blundell and Garfield Todd with their liberal beliefs served as excellent allies in this period of a rising African consciousness Using sources obtained in Kenya and Zimbabwe over the past 15 years this work examines democratic traditions that have survived tumultuous times in recent years Manning the Nation. Father Figures in Zimbabwean Literature and Society Z. Muchemwa, Robert

Muponde, 2008-01-15 Gender studies in Zimbabwe have tended to focus on women and their comparative disadvantages and under privilege Assuming a broader perspective is necessary at a time when society has grown used to arguments rooted in binaries colonised and coloniser race and class sex and gender poverty and wealth patriotism and terrorism etc The editors of Manning the Nation recognise that concepts of manhood can be used to repress or liberate and will depend on historical and political imperatives they seek to introduce a more nuanced perspective to the interconnectivity of patriarchy masculinity the nation and its image The essays in this volume come from well respected academics working in a variety of fields The ideals and concepts of manhood are examined as they are reflected in important Zimbabwean literary texts However if literature provides a rich vein for the analysis of masculinities what makes this collection so interesting is the interplay of literary analysis with chapters that provide a critical examination of the ways in which ideals of manhood have been employed in for example leadership and the nation as a justification for violent engagement in the field of AIDS and HIV etc Manning the Nation Father figures in Zimbabwean literature and society sets the stage for a fresh and engaging discourse essential at a time when new paradigms are needed Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Black Africa Robert C. Mitchell,Donald G. Morrison,John N. Paden,1989-07-17 Black Africa presents political economic and social data for 41 black African nations The first edition was published in 1972 and included only data on 32 countries which was the total number of independent African nations at that time Enlarging on the first edition this second edition covers in detail important aspects of the countries included from demography to political development and social mobilization to a modern comparative analysis of African states Black Africa is a complete and comprehensive handbook The first edition of Black Africa won a Book of the Year Award from the American Library Association Guns and Rain David Lan,1985-11-14 This book makes us understand an historical event of world importance the liberation of Zimbabwe from the point of view of ordinary people It is not only a specific study of great brilliance but also a model which shows how anthropology can contribute to politics and history Maurice Bloch Professor of Anthropology London School of Economics in his preface to this book International African Bibliography ,1978 Fiction, 1876-1983: Titles R.R.
