Paino, Laurie Mercier, Andrew Hunt, Peter C. Holloran, Nancy Cohen, 2008-10-23 This ten volume encyclopedia explores the social history of 20th century America in rich authoritative detail decade by decade through the eyes of its everyday citizens Social History of the United States is a cornerstone reference that tells the story of 20th century America examining the interplay of policies events and everyday life in each decade of the 1900s with unmatched authority clarity and insight Spanning ten volumes and featuring the work of some of the foremost social historians working today Social History of the United States bridges the gap between 20th century history as it played out on the grand stage and history as it affected and was affected by citizens at the grassroots level Covering each decade in a separate volume this exhaustive work draws on the most compelling scholarship to identify important themes and institutions explore daily life and working conditions across the economic spectrum and examine all aspects of the American experience from a citizen's eye view Casting the spotlight on those whom history often leaves in the dark Social History of the United States is an essential addition to any library collection Theatre in a Tent William L. Slout, 2008-08-01 A premier study of the dramatic tent show's development The History of the Haverstock Tent Show Robert Lee Wyatt, 1997 Although rural America supported more than seven hundred tent repertoire groups during the first half of the twentieth century little is known about the many players and companies that strolled the land to bring live entertainment to small towns Thus Robert Lee Wyatt's chronicle of a pioneer dramatic tent repertoire company is more than just a fascinating story it is also a particularly significant piece of American theater history Founded in Roosevelt Oklahoma in 1911 by Harvey Haver and Carlotta Lotta Haverstock the Haverstock Tent Show proved to be one of the most enduring of these tent theater companies and of family enterprises Rolland Haverstock the founders son played leading man roles for thirty of the company's forty three years and Rolland's wife Peggy who joined the company in 1933 toured with the group until it dissolved in 1954 As Wyatt reports the life and work of this remarkable family of thespians the schedule sounds grueling at least one new town every week with a different three act play for each night they worked a town but apparently the Haverstocks and the actors who traveled with them loved their work And they thoroughly enjoyed meeting new people in the towns along the route through rural Oklahoma Texas Missouri Arkansas and Illinois Unlike many such companies the Haverstocks made a point of fitting into the community including going to church with their audiences on Sunday mornings Wyatt was exceptionally fortunate in finding such willing and able subjects as he investigated the tent theater movement Not only did Rolland and Peggy Haverstock spend hours regaling him with tales of the family touring company but they also provided him with their own archival records Through these two veteran players Wyatt had access to family letters Haver's memoirs and diaries copies of scripts route books record books and scrapbooks and photographs some of which are included here Wyatt supplemented this material with interviews with those who had worked with the Haverstocks or who had known the company by reputation Billboard ,1943-12-04 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

Ruth Winstone retells Britain's history through the great diarists of the last century, drawing back the curtain on the lives of political classes, their doubts, ambitions, and emotions. She moves deftly among those in the thick of it, showing the elation, anger, doubts, jealousy, joys, and fears of people as they record their own and the nation's triumphs and disasters. To this potent mix, she adds the mordant perceptions of observers like Virginia Woolf, Cecil Beaton, Peter Hall, and Roy Strong, and the vivid records of everyday life found in the diaries of otherwise ordinary men and women. Events, Dear Boy Events reveals Britain's recent past in the words of the actors who were shaping the events of the day. This is living real-time history. The Brief, Madcap Life of Kay Kendall Eve Golden, 2014-04-23. Comedic film actress Kay Kendall, born to a theatrical family in Northern England, came of age in London during the Blitz. After starring in Britain's biggest cinematic disaster, she found stardom in 1953 with her brilliant performance in the low-budget film Genevieve. She scored success after success with her light comic style in movies such as Doctor in the House, The Reluctant Debutante, and the Gene Kelly musical Les Girls. Kendall's private life was even more colorful than the plots of her films as she embarked on a series of affairs with minor royalty, costars, directors, producers, and married men. In 1954, she fell in love with her married husband, costar Rex Harrison, and accompanied him to New York where he was starring on Broadway in My Fair Lady. It was there that Kendall was diagnosed with myelocytic leukemia. Her life took a romantic and tragic turn as Harrison divorced his wife and married Kendall. He agreed with their doctor that she was never to know of her diagnosis, and for the next two years, the couple lived a hectic, glamorous life together as Kendall's health failed. She died in London at the age of 32, shortly after completing the filming of Once More with Feeling, her husband by her side. The Brief, Madcap Life of Kay Kendall was written with the cooperation of Kendall's sister Kim and includes interviews with many of her costars, relatives, and friends.
