Show Me One Two:

The Rolling Stone Chris Urch, 2015-05-21 One day you're you The next you're I can't even say the word Dembe and Sam have been seeing each other for a while They should be wondering where this is going and when to introduce each other to their families But they're gay and this is Uganda The consequences of their relationship being discovered will be violent and explosive Especially for Dembe whose brother goes into the pulpit each week to denounce the evils of one man loving another A Bruntwood Prize for Playwriting winner in 2013 The Rolling Stone received its world premiere at the Royal Exchange Manchester on 21 April 2015 One:Two The Reality of Reality Itani Netshiongolwe, Two families very different in class In Limpopo Musina where we lay our scene Affluence always makes a way but it did nothing more than to ignite a conflagration Thus two households tore apart in creating one A pair of star-crossed teenage lovers who are genuinely addicted to love and threatened to be separated by one's studies and disapproval from their families decide to head for the hills Happily ever after doesn't go as lovely and dandy as planned and the outcome is catastrophic Hearts break feelings get hurt and their souls are left weeping Making it in life isn't tantamount to making it in endearment Blood saved their failure and drops of sorrow the blood they didn't even know they shared The Reality of reality prevails Five Civilized Tribes in Oklahoma United States.
