Shropshire Lad and Last Poems A. E. Housman, 2010 Alfred Edward Housman 1859 1936 was an English poet and classical scholar whose work became a major force in turn of the century English poetry Unlike his contemporaries Houseman s poetry does not qualify as Romantic Victorian or Modernist and is not overly sentimental or optimistic instead his deeply pessimistic and ironic poetry written clearly and succinctly earned Housman notoriety as one of the foremost classicists of his time His best known work A Shropshire Lad is a cycle of 63 poems set in a half imaginative Shropshire and explores themes of death the fleetingness of love and the passing of youth The poems became increasingly popular at the time of World War I because of their depiction of brave English soldiers In the early 1920s Houseman s closest friend and old Oxford roommate Moses Jackson was dying prompting Housman to compile his Last Poems for Jackson to read The forty one previously unpublished poems were so titled because Housman felt his inspiration had been exhausted Indeed these proved to be his last published works
