Introduction to Sociology Arthur Fairbanks,1896 Darkness of Mind Hugo Van Bever,2013 A Sweet Double Murder Out of the blue a retired professor commits a double murder in his apartment killing two men In a monologue at the police station he explains why he did it reflecting on wars holocausts religion power money lust love and on the intellectual limitations of the human race When Death Does Not Part After ten years at a psychiatric institute Thomas a fifty year old teacher returns to Florence in search of the truth Retracing the steps he took with his young lover Irena he learns who she really was As similarities to Verdi s opera Rigoletto haunt the pages Thomas confesses what happened between them in a desperate attempt to purify his soul find peace of mind and love Unable to accept the truth and its horrifying implications Thomas is doomed to relive his past On My Father s Bike I wanted to become the first creator of perfect and painless love It was my father s fault Indirectly he forced me because I loved him too much Indeed my father Can you believe it I wanted to optimize love by transforming into what you love Imagine the advantages Wouldn t it be delightful to adopt the patience of the snake the speed of the panther the devilish persistence of the scorpion or the beauty of the orchid And imagine absorbing the beauty of a lover Nut s beauty For he surely was beautiful You d reach ultimate perfection Ultimate love But how do you do it How do you turn yourself into what you love Being a scientist and brilliant I had hit upon a scientific method that would allow me to achieve such a transformation Call it reverse metabolism These are the words of Andre Junior a professor who is certain that his mission in life is to prove that reverse metabolism is possible So certain in fact he is willing to kill for it even eat for it Mind ,1898 The Crisis of the European Mind Paul Hazard,2013-04-09 Paul Hazard s magisterial widely influential and beloved intellectual history offers an unforgettable account of the birth of the modern European mind in all its dynamic inquiring and uncertain glory Beginning his story in the latter half of the seventeenth century while also looking back to the Renaissance and forward to the future Hazard traces the process by which new developments in the sciences arts philosophy and philology came to undermine the stable foundations of the classical world with its commitment to tradition stability proportion and settled usage Hazard shows how travelers tales and archaeological investigation widened European awareness and acceptance of cultural difference how the radical rationalism of Spinoza and Richard Simon s new historical exegesis of the Bible called into question the revealed truths of religion how the Huguenot Pierre Bayle s critical dictionary of ideas paved the way for Voltaire and the Enlightenment even as the empiricism of Locke encouraged a new attention to sensory experience that led to Rousseau and romanticism Hazard s range of knowledge is vast and whether the subject is operas excavations or scientific experiments his brilliant style and powers of description bring to life the thinkers who thought up the modern world Guanzi W. Allyn Rickett,2021-08-31 Named for the famous Chinese minister of state Guan Zhong d 645 B C the Guanzi is one of the largest collections of ancient Chinese writings still in existence With this volume W Allyn Rickett completes the first full translation of the Guanzi into English Throughout the text Rickett provides extensive notes He also supplies an introduction to the volume and a comprehensive index The Mind of Empire Christopher A. Ford,2010-05-28 Ford s reading of Confucius is both shrewd and instructive with implications for contemporary policymakers a scholarly analysis of Chinese history The Weekly Standard China s prosperity has increased dramatically in the last two decades propelling the nation to a prominent position in the international community Yet China s ancient history still informs and shapes its understanding of itself in relation to the world As a highly developed and modern nation China is something of a paradox In The Mind of Empire China's History and Modern Foreign Relations Christopher A Ford demonstrates how China's historical awareness shapes its objectives and how the resulting national consciousness continues to influence the country's policymaking Despite its increasing prominence among modern developed nations China continues to seek guidance from a past characterized by Confucian notions of hierarchical political order and a moral geography that places China at the center of the civilized world The Mind of Empire describes how these attitudes have clashed with traditional Western ideals of sovereignty and international law Ford speculates about how China's legacy may continue to shape its foreign relations and offers a warning about the potential global consequences He examines major themes in China's conception of domestic and global political order describes key historical precedents and outlines the remarkable continuity of China's Sinocentric stance Expertly synthesizing historical philosophical religious and cultural analysis into a cohesive study of the Chinese worldview Ford offers revealing insights into modern China A much needed and an erudite contextualization this book will benefit immensely those interested in the history and strategic culture of China's foreign policy The China Quarterly the forefront of Buddhism in the West Rich in insight humor and world renowned expertise The Best of Inquiring Mind is an unprecedented gathering of wisdom from the minds of some of the most influential thinkers in the realm of modern Dharma Book jacket Physics of the Human Mind Ihor Lubashevsky, 2017-02-12 This book tackles the challenging question which mathematical formalisms and possibly new physical notions should be developed for quantitatively describing human cognition and behavior in addition to the ones already developed in the physical and cognitive sciences Indeed physics is widely used in modeling social systems where in particular new branches of science such as sociophysics and econophysics have arisen However many if not most characteristic features of humans like willingness emotions memory future prediction and moral norms to name but a few are not yet properly reflected in the paradigms of physical thought and theory The choice of a relevant formalism for modeling mental phenomena requires the comprehension of the general philosophical questions related to the mind body problem Plausible answers to these questions are investigated and reviewed notions and concepts to be used or to be taken into account are developed and some challenging questions are posed as open problems This text addresses theoretical physicists and neuroscientists modeling any systems and processes where human factors play a crucial role philosophers interested in applying philosophical concepts to the construction of mathematical models and the mathematically oriented psychologists and sociologists whose research is fundamentally related to modeling mental processes
