Palermo city guide Adriana Chirco, 2020-03-31 T00:00:00+02:00 Palermo has about 3 000 years of history and its roots predate the Punic colonisation of the 8th century BC Because of its favourable geographical location and its fertile land the city was preyed upon by a variety of peoples and was conquered among others by the Muslims the Normans the Aragonese and the Spaniards From the 16th century onwards a number of hamlets and new agglomerations started to spring up in the country environs All these have now been absorbed by urbanisation The countryside was also characterised by the social phenomenon of villeggiatura which considerably enhanced urbanisation of the countryside from the 17th century to the 1850s This has given the city and its environs a unique image outstanding for its blend of different architectural styles and historical strata This guide based on a number of historical itineraries is intended to enable the visitor to discover Palermo and its surroundings through a detailed account of the countless churches the numerous palazzi and the various street patterns which all testify to the city's development throughout the centuries

Reading and Writing the Mediterranean Vincenzo Consolo, 2006-01-01 Vincenzo Consolo is counted by many critics among the most significant voices in contemporary world literature This volume makes available for the first in English an edited and annotated volume of Consolo's short stories, essays, and other writings pertaining to the diverse cultures and histories of Sicily and the Mediterranean basin. The Mediterranean region holds a particular fascination for Consolo, who seeks through his writing to recover the memory of a Sicilian and Mediterranean history which he feels is presently being threatened by the forces of late capitalist Western culture. His writings about the region also voice a commitment to questions of ethics and human rights which have been brought to the fore by recent tensions dividing this area and forcing a mass exodus of its people. At a time when this part of the world is under threat from unbridled globalization as well as dangerous forms of ethnic and religious fundamentalism, Consolo's words offer an insightful rethinking of regionalism within a global hierarchy of values. They remind us of the necessity of moderation and contingency and in so doing attempt to recover a moral and ethical dimension for our collective life.

Domestic Devotions in Early Modern Italy, 2018-11-01. Domestic Devotions in Early Modern Italy illuminates the vibrancy of spiritual beliefs and practices which profoundly shaped family life in this era. Scholarship on Catholicism has tended to focus on institutions, but the home was the site of religious instruction and reading, prayer and meditation, communal worship, multi-sensory devotions, contemplation of religious images, and the performance of rituals, as well as extraordinary events such as miracles. Drawing on a wide range of sources, this volume affirms the central place of the household to spiritual life and reveals the myriad ways in which devotion met domestic needs. The seventeen essays encompass religious history, the histories of art and architecture, material culture, musicology, literary history, and social and cultural history. Contributors are Erminia Ardissino, Michele Bacci, Michael J. Brody, Giorgio Caravale, Maya Corry, Remi Chiu, Sabrina Corbellini, Stefano Dall'Aglio, Marco Faini, Iain Fenlon, Irene Galandra, Cooper Jane, Garnett Joanna, Kostylo Alessia, Meneghin Margaret A., Morse Elisa, Novi Chavarria Gervase, Rosser Zuzanna, Sarnecka Katherine, Tycz and Valeria Viola.

Dark Mother Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, 2001. Bringing a feminist perspective to contemporary findings of geneticists and archeologists, Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, cultural historian, points out that the oldest veneration we know is of a dark mother of central and south Africa whose signs, ochre red and the pubic V, were taken by African migrants after 50 000 BCE to caves and cliffs of all continents. The oldest sanctuary in the world was created in 40 000 BCE by African migrants in Har Karkom, later called Mt Sinai, foundation place of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Lucia documents the continuing memory of the dark mother and her values in prehistoric images of the dark mother in historic black madonnas and in other dark women divinities whose sanctuaries are on african paths She tracks the memory in rituals and stories of her sicilian grandmothers in persecution of dark others in patriarchal Europe and the United States in the rise of nonviolent dark others since the 1960s in the banners of the 1995 world conference of women at Beijing and in art She finds the dark mother s values justice with compassion equality and transformation in everyday and celebratory rituals of the world s subaltern cultures and suggests that the image and values are in the submerged memories of everyone The Spiritual Rococo

GauvinAlexander Bailey,2017-07-05 A groundbreaking approach to Rococo religious d r and spirituality in Europe and South America The Spiritual Rococo addresses three basic conundrums that impede our understanding of eighteenth century aesthetics and culture Why did the Rococo ostensibly the least spiritual style in the pre Modern canon transform into one of the world s most important modes for adorning sacred spaces And why is Rococo still treated as a decadent nemesis of the Enlightenment when the two had fundamental characteristics in common This book seeks to answer these questions by treating Rococo as a global phenomenon for the first time and by exploring its moral and spiritual dimensions through the lens of populist French religious literature of the day a body of work the author calls the Spiritual Rococo and which has never been applied directly to the arts The book traces Rococo s development from France through Central Europe Portugal Brazil and South America by following a chain of interlocking case studies whether artistic literary or ideological and it also considers the parallel diffusion of the literature of the Spiritual Rococo in these same regions placing particular emphasis on unpublished primary sources such as inventories One of the ultimate goals of this study is to move beyond the cliché of Rococo s frivolity and acknowledge its essential modernity Thoroughly interdisciplinary The Spiritual Rococo not only integrates different art historical fields in novel ways but also interacts with church and social history literary and post colonial studies and anthropology opening up new horizons in these fields Giacomo Serpotta and the Stuccatori of Palermo,

1560-1790 Donald Garstang,1984 Gendering Italian Fiction Maria Ornella Marotti,Gabriella Brooke,1999 This volume is an exploration of the innovative ways in which three generations of women writers in modern Italy have dealt with history both as narration of events and the events themselves The essays challenge traditional historiography and foster a rereading of history based on the tenets of feminist historicism They also claim a central role for fiction in the construction of women s history and in a rereading of Italian history Turin 1564-1680 Martha D. transformation is well told Pollak s account of the financial machinations of the Dukes in their efforts to acquire properties and to pay for fortifications by taxing betterment on enclosed land is one of the best parts of the book Simon Pepper Times Literary Supplement
