The Siddur Companion Paul H. Vishny, 2005 There is an architecture to the Siddur which is truly a work of splendor It was not created by one hand nor at one time or in one place The Siddur records the Jewish People's joyous searching for God but it also records their longing for redemption even as the text frequently marks suffering and hostile surroundings This work is intended to form the background for a meaningful devotion to prayer during the week and on the major festivals It will help guide the novice through the different prayers and make these prayers more understandable and fulfilling It will also give the daily davener a sense of where these prayers came from how the rabbis developed them and even their deeper purpose and meaning

Jewish Prayers to an Evolutionary God: Science in the Siddur Joel Yehudah Rutman MD,2017-07-20 Why do we pray On the one hand prayer offers us a way to meditate on the knowledge of God and have intimate interaction with a personal creator And for many Jews it offers a sense of community and fulfils a need for daily connection with a venerable tradition and language Yet for many modern Jews prayer is at best old fashioned or at worst no longer necessary In Jewish Prayers to an Evolutionary God Science in the Siddur author Dr Joel Rutman provides a new way of understanding the existing language of Jewish prayer and he integrates science with Jewish liturgy all the while striving to preserve the passion that makes prayer matter The aim is to enable Jews to daven pray with kavanna intent trusting that science will not pull the rug out from under their prayer The poems also continue the ancient tradition of hazzanim cantors who author new prayer poems
