Molinsky, Bill Bliss, 2001-07-20 Speaking American Zevi Gutfreund, 2019-03-07 When Lyndon B Johnson signed the Bilingual Education Act of 1968 language learning became a touchstone in the emerging culture wars Nowhere was this more apparent than in Los Angeles where elected officials from both political parties had supported the legislation and where the most disruptive protests over it occurred The city with its diverse population of Latinos and Asian Americans is the ideal locus for Zevi Gutfreund's study of how language instruction informed the social construction of American citizenship Combining the history of language instruction school desegregation and civil rights activism as it unfolded in Japanese American and Mexican American communities in L A this timely book clarifies the critical and evolving role of language instruction in twentieth century American politics Speaking American reveals how for generations language instruction offered a forum for Angelino educators to articulate their responses to policies that racialized access to citizenship from the national origins immigration quotas of the Progressive Era through Congress's removal of race from these quotas in 1965 Meanwhile immigrant communities designed language experiments to counter efforts to limit their liberties Gutfreund's book is the first to place the experiences of Mexican Americans and Japanese Americans side by side as they navigated debates over Americanization programs intercultural education school desegregation and bilingual education In the process the book shows these language experiments helped Angelino immigrants introduce competing concepts of citizenship that were tied to their actions and deeds rather than to the English language itself Complicating the usual top down approach to the history of racial politics in education Speaking American recognizes the ways in which immigrant and ethnic activists as well as white progressives and conservatives have been deeply invested in controlling public and private aspects of language instruction in Los Angeles The book brings compelling analytic depth and breadth to its examination of the social and political landscape in a city still at the epicenter of American immigration politics Immigration Practice - 15th Edition Robert C. Innovation in University-Based Intensive English Programs Jason Litzenberg,2023-10-17 This book considers the past present and future directions of innovation in US based Intensive English Programs IEPs which provide international students with an immersion style environment for learning academic English prior to matriculating into a full time college or university degree program IEPs frequently serve as sites for pre service teacher preparation curricular experimentation and research and yet little published work takes a critical look at the advantages and shortcomings of such programs The chapters in this book provide a nuanced view of this microcosm of the English language teaching industry demonstrating the various ways that IEPs have impacted and continue to influence the wider fields of Applied Linguistics and TESOL They emphasize the unique positioning of IEPs within higher education and describe the various ways IEP practitioners can influence their host institutions and beyond American Machinist ,1912 Educating Refugee-background Students Shawna Shapiro,Raichle Farrelly,Mary Jane Curry,2018-05-03 This collection of empirical work offers an in depth exploration of key issues in the education of adolescents and adults with refugee backgrounds residing in North America Australia and Europe These studies foreground student goals experiences and voices and reflect a high degree of awareness of the assets that refugee background students bring to schools and broader society Chapters are clustered according to the two themes of Language and Literacy and Access and Equity Each chapter includes a discussion of context researcher positionality and implications for educators policy makers and scholars Reading and Writing for Civic Literacy Donald Lazere,2017-07-05 Lazere s book is heaven sent and will provide a crucial link in the chain of understanding how conflicts are structured and most importantly how they can be rationally addressed a healthy antidote to the scepticism that has become so pervasive in academic life Alan Hausman Hunter College This innovative book addresses the need for college students to develop critical reading writing and thinking skills for self defence in the contentious arena of American civic rhetoric In a groundbreaking reconception of composition theory it presents a comprehensive critical perspective on American public discourse and practical methods for its analysis Exercises following the text sections and readings help students understand the ideological positions and rhetorical patterns that underlie opposing viewpoints in current controversies such as the growing inequality of wealth in America and its impact on the finances of college students as expressed in paired sets of readings from the political left and right Widely debated issues of whether objectivity is possible and whether there is a liberal or conservative bias in news and entertainment media as well as in education itself are foregrounded as topics for rhetorical analysis
