Excerpt from Sidelights on Contemporary Socialism. The present volume, like several of the author's earlier works, is made up of lectures delivered from time to time, somewhat revised to meet the requirements of publication in book form. The lectures differ from all the author's lectures on Socialism heretofore published in that instead of being addressed to non-Socialists in the interests of the Socialist propaganda, they were addressed to his fellow Socialists and deal with various problems within the Socialist movement itself. They are fairly typical in spirit and substance of the lectures which responsible Socialists are constantly delivering to their comrades.
