Luttrell, Helen J. Nicholson, 2017-05-15 This volume brings together recent and new research with several items specially translated into English on the sisters of the largest and most long lived of the military religious orders the Hospital of St John of Jerusalem In recent years there has been increasing scholarly interest in women s religious houses during the Middle Ages with particular focus on the problems which they faced and the social needs which they performed The military religious orders have been largely excluded from this interest partly because it has been assumed that women played little role in religious orders with a predominantly military purpose Recent research has shown this to be a misconception Study of the women members of these orders enables scholars to gain a deeper appreciation of the nature of hospitaller and military orders and of the role of women in religious life in general The papers in this volume explore the roles which the Hospitaller sisters performed within their order examine the problems of having men and women living within the same or adjoining houses study relations between the order and the patrons of its women s houses and consider the career of a prominent Hospitaller woman who became a saint This volume will be of interest not only to scholars of the military religious orders and of the Hospital of St John in particular but also to scholars of monastic history and to those with a concern for women s history during the middle ages      Art, Architecture, and the Moving Viewer, c. 300-1500 CE, 2022-04-19 Premodern architecture and built environments were fluid spaces whose configurations and meanings were constantly adapting and changing The production of transitory meaning transpired whenever a body or object moved through these dynamic spaces Whether spanning the short duration of a procession or the centuries of a building s longue dur e a body or object in motion created in the moment narratives that unfolded through time and space The authors in this volume forge new approaches to architectural studies by focusing on the interaction between monuments artworks and their viewers at different points in space and time Contributors are Christopher A Born Elizabeth Carson Pastan Nicole Corrigan Gillian B Elliott Barbara Franz Anne Heath Philip Jacks Divya Kumar Dumas Brigitte Kurmann Schwarz Ashley J Laverock Susan Leibacher Ward Elodie Leschot Meghan Mattsson McGinnis Michael Sizer Kelly Thor and Laura J Whatley      Medieval Art and Architecture in the Diocese of Glasgow Richard Fawcett, 2024-11-01 This volume includes many of the papers given at the 1997 conference of the British Archaeological Association It focuses on aspects of patronage the wider architectural context of the cathedral and on the Romanesque sculpture and manuscripts with the diocese      Romanesque and the Mediterranean Rosa

Bacile, 2017-12-02 The sixteen papers collected in this volume explore points of contact across the Latin Greek and Islamic worlds between c 1000 and c 1250 They arise from a conference organized by the British Archaeological Association in Palermo in 2012 and reflect its interest in patterns of cultural exchange across the Mediterranean ranging from the importation of artefacts textiles ceramics ivories and metalwork for the most part to a specific desire to recruit eastern artists or emulate eastern Mediterranean buildings The individual essays cover a wide range of topics and media from the ways in which the Cappella Palatina in Palermo fostered contacts between Muslim artists and Christian models the importance of dress and textiles in the wider world of Mediterranean design and the possible use of Muslim trained sculptors in the emergent architectural sculpture of late 11th century northern Spain to the significance of western saints in the development of Bethlehem as a pilgrimage centre and of eastern painters and techniques in the proliferation of panel painting in Catalonia around 1200 There are studies of buildings and the ideological purpose behind them at Canosa Apulia Feldebro Hungary and Charroux Aquitaine comparative studies of the domed churches of western France significant reappraisals of the porphyry tombs in Palermo cathedral the pictorial programme adopted in the Baptistry at Parma and of the chapter house paintings at Sigena and wide ranging papers on the migration of images of exotic creatures across the Mediterranean and on that most elusive and apparently Mediteranean of objects the Oliphant The volume concludes with a study of the emergence of a supra regional style of architectural sculpture in the western Mediterranean and evident in Barcelona Tarragona and Provence It is a third volume based on the British Archaeological Association s 2014 Conference in Barcelona will explore Romanesque Patrons and Processes

The Gilded Page Mary Wellesley, 2021-10-12 A breathtaking journey into the hidden history of medieval manuscripts from the Lindisfarne Gospels to the ornate Psalter of Henry VIII A delight immersive conversational and intensely visual full of gorgeous illustrations and shimmering description Helen Castor author of She Wolves Medieval manuscripts can tell us much about power and art knowledge and beauty Many have survived because of an author s status part of the reason we have so much of Chaucer s writing for example is because he was a London based government official first and a poet second Other works by the less influential have narrowly avoided ruin like the book of illiterate Margery Kempe found in a country house closet the cover nibbled on by mice Scholar Mary Wellesley recounts the amazing origins of these remarkable manuscripts surfacing the important roles played by women and ordinary people the grinders binders and scribes in their creation and survival The Gilded Page is the story of the written word in the manuscript age Rich and surprising it shows how the most exquisite objects ever made by human hands came from unexpected places Mary Wellesley is a born storyteller and The Gilded Page is as good as historical writing gets This is a sensational debut by a wonderfully gifted historian Dan Jones bestselling author of The Plantagenets and The Templars

Byzantine Images and their Afterlives Lynn Jones, 2016-12-05 The twelve papers written for this volume reflect the wide scope of Annemarie Weyl Carr s interests and the equally wide impact of her work The concepts linking the essays include the examination of form and meaning the relationship between original and copy and reception and cultural identity in medieval art and architecture Carr's work focuses on the object but considers the audience looks at the copy for retention or rejection of the original form and meaning and always seeks to understand the relationship between intent and perception. She examines the elusive nature of center and periphery expanding and enriching the discourse of manuscript production icons and their copies and the dissemination of style and meaning. Her body of work is impressive in its chronological scope and geographical extent as is her ability to tie together aspects of patronage production and influence across the medieval Mediterranean. The volume opens with an overview of Carr's career at Southern Methodist University by Bonnie Wheeler. Kathleen Maxwell Justine Andrews and Pamela Patton contribute chapters in which they examine workshops subgroups and influences in manuscript production and reception. Diliانا Angelova Lynn Jones and Ida Sinkevic offer explorations of intent and reception focusing on imperial patronage relics and reliquaries. Cypriot studies are represented by Michele Bacci and Maria Vassilaki who examine aspects of form and style in architecture and icons. The final chapters by Jaroslav Folda Anthony Cutler Rossitza Schroeder and Ann Driscoll are linked by their focus on the nature of copies and tease out the ways in which meaning is retained or altered and the role that is played by intent and reception.

The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012. This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century. Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture.

Pictorial Narrative in the Romanesque Cloister Pamela Anne Patton, 2004. Praised as paradisiacal or denounced as impious fantasy the sculpture of Romanesque cloisters played a powerful role in medieval monastic life. This book demonstrates how sculpture in the cloister the physical and spiritual heart of the religious foundation could be shrewdly configured to articulate the most influential ideals and experiences of its individual community. Taking as its focus the visually rich highly organized narrative programs of three twelfth century Spanish cloisters this book reveals the power of such imagery to reflect and reinforce the social and spiritual preoccupations of its age.

The Pictorial Arts of the West, 800-1200 Charles Reginald Dodwell, 1993-01-01. Between the ninth and thirteenth centuries the Western world witnessed a glorious flowering of the pictorial arts. In this lavishly illustrated book C. R. Dodwell provides a comprehensive guide to all forms of this art from wall and panel paintings to stained glass windows mosaics and embroidery and sets them against the historical and theological influences of the age. Dodwell describes the rise and development of some of the great styles of the Middle Ages: Carolingian art which ranged from the splendid illuminations appropriate to an emperor's court to drawings of great delicacy; Anglo-Saxon art which had a rare vitality and finesse; Ottonian art with its political and spiritual messages; the colorful Mozarabic art of Spain which had added vigor through its interaction with the barbaric Visigoths and the art of Italy influenced by the styles of Byzantium and the West. Dodwell concludes with an examination of the universal Romanesque style of the twelfth century that extended from the Scandinavian countries in the north to Jerusalem in the south His book which includes the first exhaustive discussion of the painters and craftsmen of the time incorporates the latest research and is filled with new ideas about the relations among the arts history and theology of the period will be an invaluable resource for both art historians and students of the Middle Ages Proceedings of the British Academy, Volume 117 ,2002 Volume 117 of the Proceedings of the British Academy contains 13 lectures delivered at the British Academy in 2001 Medieval Illuminators and Their Methods of Work Jonathan James Graham

Alexander,1992-01-01 Who were the medieval illuminators How were their hand produced books illustrated and decorated In this beautiful book Jonathan Alexander presents a survey of manuscript illumination throughout Europe from the fourth to the sixteenth century He discusses the social and historical context of the illuminators lives considers their methods of work and presents a series of case studies to show the range and nature of the visual sources and the ways in which they were adapted copied or created anew Alexander explains that in the early period Christian monasteries and churches were the main centers for the copying of manuscripts and so the majority of illuminators were monks working in and for their own monasteries From the eleventh century lay scribes and illuminators became increasingly numerous and by the thirteenth century professional illuminators dominated the field During this later period illuminators were able to travel in search of work and to acquire new ideas they joined guilds with scribes or with artists in the cities and their ranks included nuns and secular women Work was regularly collaborative and the craft was learned through an apprenticeship system Alexander carefully analyzes surviving manuscripts and medieval treatises in order to explain the complex and time consuming technical processes of illumination its materials methods tools choice of illustration and execution From rare surviving contracts he deduces the preoccupation of patrons with materials and schedules Illustrating his discussion with examples chosen from religious and secular manuscripts made all over Europe Alexander recreates the astonishing variety and creativity of medieval illumination His book will be a standard reference for years to come The Medieval Scriptorium Sara J. Charles,2024-08-12 Illuminated with illustrations an exploration of medieval manuscript production that offers insight into both the early history of the book and life in the Middle Ages This book takes the reader on an immersive journey through medieval manuscript production in the Latin Christian world Each chapter opens with a lively vignette by a medieval narrator including a parchment maker scribe and illuminator introducing various aspects of manuscript production Sara J Charles poses the question What actually is a scriptorium and explores the development of the medieval scriptorium from its early Christian beginnings through to its eventual decline and the growth of the printing press With the written word at the very heart of the Christian monastic movement we see the immense amount of labor planning and networks needed to produce each manuscript By tapping into these processes and procedures The Medieval Scriptorium helps us to experience medieval life through the lens of a manuscript maker The Roman de toute chevalerie Charles Russell Stone,2019-03-14 The medieval reception of Alexander the Great inspired a complicated literary corpus not simply because it involved so many source texts and languages but because it incorporated such diverse perspectives on the conqueror Beginning with a discussion of the evolution of this corpus this book examines the manuscripts readership and historical contexts of the earliest surviving Alexander romance in England Thomas de Kent s Anglo Norman Roman de toute chevalerie To shed light on the origins and treatment of this romance Charles Russell Stone reads each manuscript within the contexts of its production scribal interpolations and patronage and readership in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries While Thomas recalls a range of attitudes towards his protagonist in the late twelfth century when the recovery of classical histories and composition of vernacular romance informed conflicting attitudes towards Alexander s legacy scribes and readers of his poem appropriated it as a continuing commentary on power politics and the relevance of the Alexander legend in their own time Each of the three major manuscripts of Thomas s poem thus offers a unique text informed by unique literary and political contexts which this book situates within the ongoing debate over Alexander s reception as a paradigm of imperial authority or failure in late medieval England     Routledge Revivals: Medieval England (1998) Paul E. Szarmach,M. Teresa Tavormina,Joel T. Rosenthal,2017-07-05 First published in 1998 this valuable reference work offers concise expert answers to questions on all aspects of life and culture in Medieval England including art architecture law literature kings women music commerce technology warfare and religion This wide ranging text encompasses English social cultural and political life from the Anglo Saxon invasions in the fifth century to the turn of the sixteenth century as well as its ties to the Celtic world of Wales Scotland and Ireland the French and Anglo Norman world of the Continent and the Viking and Scandinavian world of the North Sea A range of topics are discussed from Sedulius to Skelton from Wulfstan of York to Reginald Pecock from Pictish art to Gothic sculpture and from the Vikings to the Black Death A subject and name index makes it easy to locate information and bibliographies direct users to essential primary and secondary sources as well as key scholarship With more than 700 entries by over 300 international scholars this work provides a detailed portrait of the English Middle Ages and will be of great value to students and scholars studying Medieval history in England and Europe as well as non specialist readers

The Top Books of the Year Sigena Romanesque Paintings In Spain And The Artists Of The Winchester Bible Artists The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Sigena Romanesque Paintings In Spain And The Artists Of The Winchester Bible Artists : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
