Cross-Border Marriages Nicole Constable,2010-08-03 Illuminating how international marriages are negotiated arranged and experienced Cross Border Marriages is the first book to chart marital migrations involving women and men of diverse national ethnic and class backgrounds The migrations studied here cross geographical borders of provinces rural urban borders within nation states and international boundaries including those of China Japan South Korea India Vietnam the Philippines the United States and Canada Looking at assumptions about the connection between international marriages and poverty opportunism and women s mobility the book draws attention to ideas about global patterns of inequality that are thought to pressure poor women to emigrate to richer countries while simultaneously suggesting the limitations of such views Breaking from studies that regard the international bride as a victim of circumstance and the mechanisms of international marriage as traffic in commodified women these essays challenge any simple idea of global hypergamy and present a nuanced understanding where a variety of factors not the least of which is desire come into play Indeed most contemporary marriage scapes involve women who relocate in order to marry rarely is it the men But Nicole Constable and the volume contributors demonstrate that contrary to popular belief these brides are not necessarily poor nor do they categorically marry men who are above them on the socioeconomic ladder Although often women may appear to be moving up from a less developed country to a more developed one they do not necessarily move higher on the chain of economic resources Complicating these and other assumptions about international marriages the essays in this volume draw from interviews and rich ethnographic materials to examine women s and men s agency their motivations for marriage and the importance of familial pressures and obligations cultural imaginings fantasies and desires in addition to personal and economic factors Border crossing marriages are significant for what they reveal about the intersection of local and global processes in the everyday lives of women and men whose marital opportunities variably yield both rich possibilities and bitter disappointments

One One Coco the Modern Day Guide to Long

Distance Relationships Harona Osborne, 2018-09-13 One One Coco Full Basket Harona has been through it all in long distance dating. She has wine and dine, said yes twice and walked down the aisle in long distance relationships. She has dated long distance for over eight years and tells us in this reviving book how to build, maintain and grow a long distance relationship. Harona brings this proverb from her humble upbringings on the island of Jamaica to come in the idea of taking things one step at a time in a long distance relationship to get to the end goal in the relationship. Harona takes us to school in this comprehensive self-help book. She captures the mind with different thought processes to bring the concepts across in the simplest way. She gives step by step instructions on how to build, maintain and grow your long distance relationship. Harona leaves nothing to chance in this book. She explains every relevant topic in long distance relationships in the twenty-first century, including long distance marriage. She cancels all uninformed and out of date information about long distance relationships.

Moving for Marriage Shruti Chaudhry, 2021-10-01 Shortlisted for the 2023 BASAS Book Prize presented by British Association for South Asian Studies. Based on ethnographic fieldwork in a village in the north Indian state of Uttar Pradesh, Moving for Marriage compares the lived experiences of women in regional marriages that conform to caste and community norms within a relatively short distance with women in cross-regional marriages that traverse caste, linguistic and state boundaries and entail long distance migration within India. By demonstrating how geographic distance and regional origins make a difference in these women's experiences, Shruti Chaudhry challenges stereotypes and moral panics about cross-regional brides who are brought from far away. Indeed, Moving for Marriage highlights the ways in which the post-marital experiences of both categories of wives in this study, their work and social relationships, their sexual lives and childbearing decisions and their ability to access support in everyday contexts and in the event of marital distress are shaped by factors such as caste, class, poverty, religion and stage in the life course. In focusing on this Global South context, Chaudhry makes novel arguments about the development of intimacy within marriages that are inherently unequal and even violent, thereby offering an alternative to Euro-American understandings of intimacy and women's agency.

Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Culture (ICLC-4 2023) Muhammad Hasyim, 2024-05-22 This is an open access book. Research and teaching activities in the fields of language, literature and culture are still being carried out even during the Covid-19 era that hit the world. It is undeniable that the results of research and learning of language, literature and culture at this time were a bit hindered because most activities were carried out from home. During the Covid-19 period which started in early 2020, practically more activities were done at home. Likewise, institutions during the Covid-19 era were carried out online. For example, the Language Agency continues to carry out activities but it is carried out online such as online webinars that contribute to the wider community in accordance with the duties and functions of the Language Agency carried out using a hybrid method or completely online. Various events are packaged creatively and innovatively to produce a new spirit in speaking. Research and teaching of language, literature and culture during the Covid-19 period resulted in many
