Master the Marathon Ali Nolan,2021-09-14 A must have for any woman targeting the distance Runner s World A no nonsense interactive guide that empowers all women at all levels to run their strongest best marathon ever As recently as 1966 women were forbidden to run in the marathon Professionals including doctors believed it was physically impossible and dangerous for women to run more than a mile and a half But as with many other barriers women have faced over time we fought our way in Today women make up almost half of the marathoning population Yet most marathon training manuals are written by men And while these men are experts when it comes to how men can and should train women need training programs tailored to our bodies to our unique strengths and weaknesses so that we can avoid injuries and run at our peak The programming in this book was created by a woman specifically for women Master the Marathon is a comprehensive guide to marathon training for women at all levels of running beginner intermediate and advanced The book takes you through everything you need to know to be prepared for the 26.2 miles of the marathon including detailed training plans strength training programs building your mental awareness of your physical body nutrition guidance on finding the best marathon for you identifying and avoiding potential injuries inspirational advice and other unexpected pieces of wisdom Both incredibly practical and deeply motivating Master the Marathon will help you unlock the strength and determination inside you to embark on the spectacular journey that is the marathon Improving Sports

Performance in Middle and Long-Distance Running Joanne Fallowfield, David M. Wilkinson, 1999-10-25 This text addresses the physiological demands of middle and long distance running and presents the reader with research on running physiology It explores the limitations to running performance and the methods used to monitor it The Longest Race Ed

Ayres, 2013-08-20 Chronicles the author's running of the iconic JFK fifty mile ultramarathon while also examining the author's thoughts about how the skills necessary for marathon running can also be applied to the human race's survival on the planet Modern Training and Physiology for Middle and Long-Distance Runners John Davis, 2013-05-14 Explains the practical aspects of exercise physiology and modern coaching including energy systems the aerobic and anaerobic thresholds VO2 max running economy muscle fibers and more In addition it covers how these ideas should inform both your day to day workouts and the underlying philosophy that forms the foundation of your training program Long Distance Running and Training Alfred A. Shrubbs, 1909

14 Minutes Alberto Salazar, John Brant, 2013-04-09 In 2007 after collapsing on a practice field at the Nike campus champion marathoner Alberto Salazar's heart stopped beating for 14 minutes Over the crucial moments that followed rescuers administered CPR to feed oxygen to his brain and EMTs shocked his heart eight times with defibrillator paddles He was clinically dead But miraculously Salazar was back at the Nike campus coaching his runners just nine days later Salazar had faced death before but he survived that and numerous other harrowing episodes thanks to his raw physical talent maniacal training habits and sheer will as well as he strongly believes divine grace In 14 Minutes Salazar chronicles in spellbinding detail how a shy skinny Cuban American kid from the suburbs of Boston was transformed into the greatest marathon runner of his era For the first time he reveals his tempestuous relationship with his father a former ally of Fidel Castro his early running life in high school with the Greater Boston Track Club his unhealthy obsession to train through pain the dramatic wins in New York Boston and South Africa and how surviving 14 minutes of death taught him to live again The Looniness of the Long Distance Runner Russell Taylor, 2001 The Looniness of the Long

Distance Runner is one comparatively unfit 39 year old Londoner s humorous account of his attempt to run the New York marathon from scratch He chose the pre Thanksgiving race in the Big Apple to avoid adding to his ordeal by having to train during the British winter Inspired by the charity running of friends Russell Taylor set himself the challenge of doing what Pheidippides first had done But to spare himself the post event trauma of trying to extract money from the reluctant grasp of his sponsors he decided to write a book about his experiences and donate the royalties to charity instead This book follows our intrepid road runner from the treadmills of a north London gymnasium via his first tentative fun run to the mean streets of the Bronx Queens and Manhattan Along the way we encounter indescribably tasteless isotonic drinks sweaty singlets sports injuries personal bests split times anxious queuing for the public toilets and an unfeasibly large quantity of bananas We also discover what lurks within the breast of the endurance athlete an unreasonable hatred of his fellow runner except the nubile females of the species a contempt for the idiocy of stadium announcers and a strange fear of spectators who line the route inanely shouting Keep Going by way of encouragement The narrative is interspersed by jocular reviews of films about running not least The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner and a tongue in cheek description of the history of the marathon from its Ancient Greek origins to its modern day revival as an Olympic event Written with considerable panache and a self deprecating sense of humour this illuminating tale of obsessive and foolhardy sporting endeavour will make entertaining reading for in descending order of athletic accomplishment manic ultra marathon runners dedicated pavement pounders occasional joggers and the simply curious alike

The Long Distance Runner's Guide to Injury Prevention and Treatment Brian J. Krabak, Grant S. Lipman, Brandee L.
